About the Authors

Susan Black, M.D. contributed to her paper while doing a Fellowship in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry at Tripler Army Medical Center, Hawaii.

Marguerite M. Blythe, M.D. completed her book review while a PGY-IV Child Fellow at the University of Cincinnati in Ohio.

Homer C. Curtis, M.D. is a Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at Hahnemann Medical College; Adjunct Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Pennsylvania Medical College; Training Analyst at the Institute of the Philadelphia Association for Psychoanalysis; Senior Attending Psychiatrist at the Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital; and President of the American Psychoanalytic Association.

Bradley C. Diner, M.D. contributed to his paper while in residency training at Vanderbilt University. He is now in private practice in Nashville, Tennessee.

William S. Evans, Jr., M.D. completed his paper while doing a Fellowship in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry at Tripler Army Medical Center, Hawaii. This paper received the Robinson Cunningham Award from the Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry this year.

Kathleen A. Hughes, M.D. is a PGY-5 Fellow in Child Psychiatry at the Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston.

Edward Kim, M.D. is a PGY-2 resident at Jefferson Medical College, Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

John Kasckow, M.D., Ph.D. is a third year resident at Duke University Medical Center, Durham, North Carolina.

Steven J. Kingsbury, M.D., Ph.D. wrote his paper while he was Chief Resident of Southard Clinic, Massachusetts Mental Health Center. Parts of this paper were presented in a workshop entitled "Stress and Coping in Psychiatric Residents" at meetings of the American Psychiatric Association in Montreal, Canada, May, 1988.

Michael B. Knable, D.O. is a PGY-4 resident in psychiatry at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, D.C. where he is currently Chief Resident. He is also a Ginsberg Fellow to the Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry. An earlier version of this paper won first prize in the William A. White Competition at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in 1987.

J. Gregory Kyser, M.D. is a PGY-3 resident at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

Allan Maltbie, M.D. is an Associate Professor of Psychiatry at Duke University Medical Center, Durham, North Carolina.

Michael Miller, M.D., M.P.H. is a PGY-2 resident at the Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadephia, Pennsylvania.

Peter N. Novalis, M.D., Ph.D. is a PGY-4 psychiatry resident at the District of Columbia Commission on Mental Health Services. He received his M.D. from the University of Maryland School of Medicine and his Ph.D. in philosophy from Johns Hopkins University.

Gilbert W. Raulston, M.D. contributed to his paper while in residency training at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee. He is currently in private practice in Nashville.

Al Santos, M.D. is an Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Director of Residency Training at the Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston.

Mark Servis, M.D. wrote his paper while a PGY-5 Chief Resident at the New York Hospital—Cornell Medical Center, West Chester Division.

Phebe Tucker, M.D. wrote her paper while a PGY-3 resident at Oklahoma Teaching Hospitals in Oklahoma City. Her paper won the award for best overall paper at their annual Psychiatry Residents' Day. Currently she is Chief Resident at Oklahoma Teaching Hospitals.