R.I. College May 25th 1795

Dear Brother,

I am now

an opportunity which you ought have improved. I mean in writing a short letter to you. I have put you Choir while in town in a small place a house used it once myself to attend the funeral of the Rev child yesterday, his only son about 3 months old. Col. Whipple went to

New York to get the

Tickets in R.I. College battery they are at home but there were many di

sters that they would post tellers shall have been in the tickets sold which may lie in the

reven 04 04 month 00 00
Letter from William E. Green to John Green Jr.
May 25th[?], 1798
[John P. Green Mss. – A.L.S.]

R.I. College May 25th 1798

Dear Brother, I am now [Ms. smudged] an opportunity which you ought [Ms. smudged] have improved. I mean in writing [Ms. smudged] a short letter to you. I have put you [Ms. smudged] Chaise while in town in a safe place & have used it once myself to attend the Funeral of the Pre[Ms. smudged] child yesterday, his only son about[Ms. smudged] 3 months old. Col. Whipple has [Ms. smudged] to New York to [Ms. smudged] the Tickets in R. I. College Lottery they [Ms. smudged] seem so many [Ms. smudged]-tors that they have postponed [Ms. smudged] till there shall have [Ms. smudged] tickets sold which may be in the [Ms. illegible] of a month or so[.]
Since the Col. lost loved his sister has died by a quick consumption & is to be buried tomorrow. I should like to receive her from you the first opportunity. Let me know how many bundles of 1 sister how hard none more letters from．

I wish you would try & see some of me it in your power, but if you cannot it convenient to send money you'll be kind enough to get 15 dollars for Col's letter. I would not have him disappointed & you all the more. I wish you would put 10 the old English money 75 cents & 5 dollars for Mr. Oaken. I would not have him disappointed & have you all the more. I wish you would put 10 the old English money 75 cents & 5 dollars for Mr. Oaken.
Since the Col. Left town his sister has died of a quick consumption & is to be [Ms. smudged] tomorrow. I should like to receive [Ms. smudged]ter from you the first opportunity [Ms. smudged] let me hear how money matters stand [Ms. smudged] sister has had none, nor no letters from [Ms. smudged] York. I wish you would try & get some [Ms. smudged] me if in your power, but if you cannot [Ms. smudged] it convenient to send me some you [Ms. smudged] be kind enough to get 15 dollars for Col[Ms. smudged] could not have him disappointed [Ms. smudged]. I wish you would put off the old English [Ms. illegible] [Ms. smudged] her for twenty dollars if you can get rid [Ms. smudged] the prospects last week must be short. & feed is very poor here – If the Money comes from Mason send it as soon as you can for it is ten to one if we get any more this summer from Carter. If you have a little lea[Ms. smudged] I wish you to fix a place [Ms. smudged] rabbits for I shall have some soon [Ms. smudged] have seen them & they are without exception the sma[r]test creatures I[Ms. smudged] [Ms. illegible] they are put in a little house about[Ms. smudged] the size of your shop or rather smaller & little boxes made for them about 2 feet square with a little grated door & a [Ms. smudged] partition for them to litter in [Ms. smudged] are of all collours [sic]. The[Ms. smudged] into town [Ms. smudged] dear Benitian[?] [Ms. smudged] & I am in hope [Ms. smudged] [Ms. smudged] ssion to [Ms. smudged] they are slimmer & larger [Ms. smudged] in N. York – Mr. Proler’s letter – yours with esteem W[illia]m E. Green – To Doc[tor] John Green Jun[io]r

[Written in margin]: - remember me to your wife & family & to - the students in town -
[Addressed]: Doc[to]r John Green Ju[nio]r
   - Worcester –
   John Green Jun[io]r 1798 & 9

Transcribed by Emily S. Dunster