Who we are
Non-profit organization with the goal of resettling refugees into a small scale community with opportunities of education, employment, and housing.

Our Mission
Integrate refugees into a community which they can benefit and contribute to.

Our Vision
Provide refugees with the chance to utilize their skill sets to improve, grow, and incorporate into a community without the label “refugee”, which often has a negative connotation, to grow as human beings.

“ In the small town, each citizen had done something in his own way to build the community. ”
- Daniel J. Boorstin
