

Worcester December 9th 1839

Dear Cousin

I wish you to call on W<sup>m</sup> Jackson and enquire if my books have arrived or if he has heard of their being on the way, have you found any catalogs of old & second hand Medical books? if so please to send them by the first private opportunity, I expect you find your lectures much more interesting this season than last and ~~less~~ less difficult to comprehend, I wish you to attend to the Diseases of the Ear, Eye, & Skin as much as is practicable they are Departments of our profession that are much neglected especially in the country, I do not know that there are any lectures in New York on those subjects, but in Philadelphia there are several who lecture upon them and are not connected with any Public institution, you are now about half way through your course and I should like to hear how you are getting on. Please to write soon by mail, remember me to Aunt Green and family, all the Worcester friends are well yours truly

W<sup>m</sup> John P. Green
Worcester

John Green

Worcester December 9th, 1839

Dear Cousin,

I wish to call on W[illia]m Jackson and inquire if my books have arrived or if he has heard of their being on the way. Have you found any catalogue of old & second hand Medical books? If so please to send them by the first private opportunity, I expect you find your lectures much more interesting this season than last and [Ms. illegible, crossed out] less difficult to comprehend. I wish you to attend to the diseases of the ear, eye, and skin or much as is practible [sic] they are departments of our profession that are much neglected especially in the country. I do not know that there are any lectures in N[ew] York on those subjects, but in Philadelphia there are several who lecture upon them and are not connected with any Public institutions. You are now half way through your course and I should like to hear how you are getting on. Please to write soon by mail, remember me to Aunt Green and family. All the worcester [sic] friends are well.

Yours Truly,

John Green

Dr. John P. Green
N[ew] York

Transcribed by Edward Everett
Edited by Emily S. Dunster