

Rf 64.3.13.

New York 19 Jan. 1864

My dear bro. John,

Yesterday we had a most fearful account in the paper of the loss of more than 2000 lives by the burning of a church in Santiago.

It was caused by an accident in illuminating the church during a festival in honor of "Mary". The result may prove a benefit, in releasing the people somewhat from the oppressive rule of the priests.

I have been writing Samuel this morning. We are waiting with some impatience to hear again from him, that we may know whether we have a niece or nephew.

Letter from Julia yesterday. All well there. I left home early in December. to accom.

Letter from Lydia Plimpton Green to John P. Green
January 19 1864
[John P. Green Mss. - A.L.S.]

Rp 64..3..13
New York 19 Jan[uary] 1864

My dear bro[ther] John,

Yesterday we had a most fearful account in the paper of the loss of more than 2000 lives by the burning of a church in Santiago. It was caused by an accident in illuminating the church, during a festival in honor of "Mary". The result may prove a benefit, in releasing the people somewhat from the oppressive rule of the priests.

I have been writing Samuel this morning. We are waiting with some impatience to hear again from him, that we may know whether we have a niece or nephew.

Letter from Julia yesterday. All well there. I left home early in December – to accom-young Lillie, a little girl whom sister Lucy has in charge, and who had been passing the summer on the Hill, to New York. I have been passing the time here very pleasantly and I hope somewhat profitably. Soon I expect to return, for I feel Julia must be lonely without me. On my way home I may pass a day or two with cog. Lucie.

da. if she be living. Now she is very low.
The Dr. thinks consumption is added to her other disease.

Andrew is much occupied just now with his annual report. Sisters busy with school affairs. Brothers at west were both well & their families, when we last heard from them. We are much disappointed in not seeing Oliver here this winter. Business proving his leaving. He sent a Christmas present to No. 1 of turkeys, geese, chickens, prairie fowls, quails etc. If opportunity offered he wished some sent to Green Hill & to bro William.

What a generous hearted fellow he is. Martin too is kind. I wish they were not so much immersed in business that we might see them oftener. Last autumn Martin sent us a bro. W. & dog. of earned preaches. raised on his place in St. Joseph's Mich. Not long since we had a letter from cog. O. Plimpton. Cog. Augusta better. She had been very ill; not expected to live. Aunt L. was pretty well.

On Wednesday D.V. Dr. Williams will deliver a discourse appropriate to leaving their place of worship. The church and much of the property in the vicinity has been sold to Stewart. They have not yet decided upon any hall in wh. to meet till another church can be created. Andrew had one or two photographs taken of the interior of the building for Dr. W. & himself.
In one of the pictures there is a group - Dr.
W. - Mrs. W. & oldest son, one of their deacons & wife - bro. A. - sister M. - myself - Lillie. Not very well taken owing to faint light.
The Slugs often enquire for you. I saw Mrs.
Jeltd a few days since. She has a grandson of a year or more old.

pany Lillie, a little girl whom sister Lucy has in charge, and who had been passing the summer on the Hill, to New York. I have been passing the time here very pleasantly and I hope somewhat profitably. Soon I expect to return, for I feel Julia must be lonely without me. On my way home I may pass a day or two with Co[u]s[in] Lucinda – if she be living – now she is very low. The Dr. thinks consumption is added to her other disease.

Andrew is much occupied just now with his annual report. Sisters busy with school affairs. Brothers at west were both well & their families, when we last heard from them. We are much disappointed in not seeing Oliver here this winter – Business prevents his leaving – He sent a Christmas present to No. 1 of turkeys, geese, chickens, prairie fowls, quails etc. If opportunity offered he wished some sent to Green Hill & to bro[ther] William. What a generous hearted fellow he is. Martin too is kind. I wish they were not so much immersed in business so that we might see them oftener. Last autumn Martin sent us a bro. W. 2 dog. of canned peaches, raised on his place in St. Joseph's Mich. not long since we had a letter from Esq. O. Plimpton – Co[u]s[in]. Augusta better – She had been very ill; not expected to live. Aunt L. was pretty well.

On Wednesday D.V. Dr. Williams will deliver a discourse appropriate to leaving their place of worship. The church and much of the property in the vicinity has been sold to Stewart – they have not yet decided upon any hall in wh[ich] to meet till another church can be erected. Andrew had one or two photographs taken of the interior of the building for Dr. W. & himself. In one of the pictures there is a group – Dr. W. Miss. W & oldest son, one of their deacons & wife – bro. A. Sister M – myself & Lillie. Not very well taken owing to faint light – The Hugheys often enquire for you. I saw Mrs. Talbot a few days since. She has a grandson of a year or more old.

We have from time to time pleasant letters from Willie, who is with his regiment in New Orleans. There does not seem much prospect of a speedy close of the war. Some are very hopeful and some are despairing.
It is a comfort to know that the Lord reigns and that all things shall work for good to those who love Him. Pa's birth-day will occur the last day of this month. I hope to be at home to keep it with him.
Sister Julia's will come in a few days after. Bro. And. has purchased for her a nice travelling trunk. This is to be a surprise to her. She knows nothing of it.
Bro. A. gave me a nice cloak for my New Years present. I could not begin to tell what sisters gave. for they are all the time giving something. I think no one was ever so blessed as I, in kind sisters & brothers. Jan 26. Just space enough to say that I love you my dear brother & hope soon to hear from you. Goodbye from L.P.S.

We have from time to time pleasant letters from Willie, who is with his regiment in New Orleans. There does not seem much prospect of a speedy close of the war. Some are very hopeful and some are desponding. It is a comfort to know that the Lord reigns and that all things shall work for good to those who love Him. Pa's birth-day will occur the last day of this month – I hope to be at home to keep it with him – Sister Julia will come in a few days after – Bro. And. has purchased for her a traveling trunk. This is to be a surprise to her – she knows nothing of it. Bro. A. gave me a nice cloak for my New Years present – I could not begin to tell what sisters gave – for they are all the time giving something. I think no one was ever so blessed as I, in kind sister & brothers – Jan 26 – Just space enough to say that I love you my dear brother & hope soon to hear from you – goodbye from L.P.G.

Transcribed by Emily S. Dunster