

Greater Philadelphia Schweitzer Program Welcomes New Fellows

The Albert Schweitzer Fellowship (ASF) is thrilled to announce the selection of the new cohort of Greater Philadelphia Schweitzer Fellows. After a competitive selection process, 15 graduate students from among the area's best health and human service schools have been awarded 2011-2012 Greater Philadelphia Albert Schweitzer Fellowship positions.

Over the next year, these students will join approximately 260 other 2011-2012 Schweitzer Fellows across the country in conceptualizing and carrying out service projects that address the unmet health needs of underserved individuals and communities while developing lifelong leadership skills.

Schweitzer Fellows continue their conventional professional training while participating in the entry year of the Schweitzer Fellowship Program. This year's newly selected group continues to diversify the rapidly growing network of Schweitzer Fellows who are committed to supporting each other on lifelong paths of service.

As anticipated, the Greater Philadelphia Schweitzer Fellowship Program moves forward into its 5th year of operation. This year's fellows represent the following Colleges and Universities:

Drexel University

College of Medicine

Temple University

School of Graduate Studies
School of Medicine

Thomas Jefferson University

Jefferson Medical College
Jefferson School of Pharmacy
Jefferson School of Population Health

University of Medicine and

Dentistry of New Jersey

School of Osteopathic Medicine
School of Nursing

University of Pennsylvania

School of Medicine
School of Social Policy and Practice

With much excitement, we welcome the 2011-2012 fellows and encourage you to visit the national website for more details about their projects and progress. <http://www.schweitzerfellowship.org/features/us/gp/> ■
