

Barnesland June 16th 1798

Dear Brother

I have received your letter by Meller this morning in Providence & am now at Barnesland in per--suit of the old man who has made his escape from the pos-ture night before last. I am now twelve miles from Providence & have heard nothing of her if she comes to Norwester you will not us regret the first opportunity for I am in the fixings & sister like mine. I shall make all search for her & and you must when I find her if I do - you will not suppose she could have goten far from home without seeing her. My friends are well yours with esteem. W^m B. Swan

Cumberland June 16th 1798

Dear Brother

I have received your letters by Meller this morning in Providence & am now at Cumberland in persuit [sic] of the old dun who has made her escape from the pasture night before last. I am now twelve miles from Providence & have heard nothing of her[.] [I]f she comes to Worcester you will send us word the first opportunity for I am in the figets [sic] & sister likewise. I shall make all search for her & send you word when I find her if I do – you will not suppose she could have gotten far from home without seeing her. All friends are well.

Yours with esteem. W[illia]m E. Green
