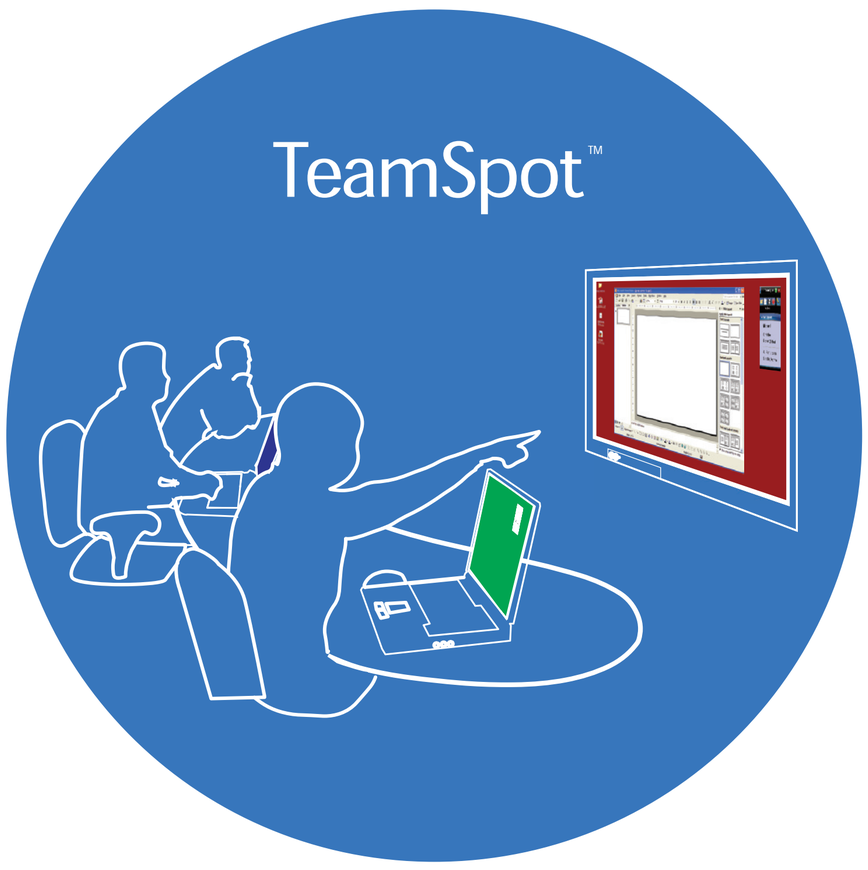
Second Floor Pilot for Group Learning Tools

Two new resources are available for you to use in your group study sessions. These tools are being piloted until the end of December.

High Tech



Low Tech

For questions, or help using the tools, ask a staff member at the Reference or Circulation Desk.

We welcome your feedback.

Please take a minute to fill out a Focus on Collaborative Learning Tools Survey each time you use one of these resources. It will help us to know what you find useful.
