

the evening 10th 1842

To Dear John O. Green Dear Son, —

By the politeness of Dr. Cuy who dines at Mr. Swinsons this day as the kind gentlemen informs me we have a private opportunity of writing a word to you, & saying we were all well. And now dependent on write on some occasion which will bring to the City, since his departure we have recd three letters for him, & I now enclose them to your care for him, & if he is on his way have again you will please forward them back to my care by private conveyance — I have been so hurried that I have had no time to write you all, as I would have wished, & And now went, so suddenly that I could not write by him — except my best wishes for your health & prosperity & the connection went Green & family, & sisters, & brothers I am as ever your father & friend Do write soon & forward your Journal

Mrs. E. Green

Ms Oliver wishes a ringlet sent on by the first opportunity
 I have just heard uncle Saml Green's widow is dead by the way of Cousin Friedrich's son —
 Mrs. E. Green

Letter from William Green to Doc[tor] John P. Green
November 10, 1847
[John P. Green Mss. – A.L.S.]

[Ms. illegible] Nov[embe]r 10th 1847

To Doc[to]r John P. Green

Dear Son, -

By the politeness of Dr. Cox who lives at Mr. [Ms. illegible] the day as the kind gentleman informs me we have a private opportunity of writing a word to you, & saying we [Ms. illegible], & are all well. Andrew departed in haste on some [Ms. illegible] which called him to the City, since his departure we have rec[eive]d three letters for him, & I now enclose them, to your care for him, & if he is on his way home again you will please forward them back to my care by private conveyance - I have been, so hurried that I have had no time to write you all, as I could have wished, & Andrew went, so suddenly that I could not write by him - accept my best wishes for your health & prosperity & the [Ms. illegible] Aunt Green & family, & sisters, & brothers I am as every your father & friend do write soon & forward your journal[.]

W[illia]m E. Green

[P.S.] Oliver wishes a [Ms. illegible] sent on by the first opportunity I have first heard uncle Sam[ue]l Green's widow is dead by the way of Cousin Frederick, son -

W[illia]m E. Green

Dear John P. Garrison

no fifth number

New York

N. Y.

[Addressed]: Doc[to]r John P. Green
no. 1 fifth avenue
New York
N. Y –

Transcribed by Emily S. Dunster