Library Collections

A wide variety of key resources, including databases, research tools, study aids, and pointers to the Library's collections are available on the Library's website, JEFFLINE: jeffline.jefferson.edu

Scott Library has a Collection Development Policy outlining the general guidelines used in selecting, evaluating and weeding print and electronic resources. Scott Memorial Library Collection Development Policy: jeffline.jefferson.edu/Collections/CD

Journals

Over 3,500 current full-text electronic journal subscriptions, as well as thousands of older or freely-available titles, are accessible to Jefferson users on JEFFLINE. Your Campus Key provides you with remote access to these titles. The Library also maintains an extensive collection of research literature in bound journal volumes located on the third floor. Search the Journals database: jeffline.jefferson.edu/Collections/Journals

Books

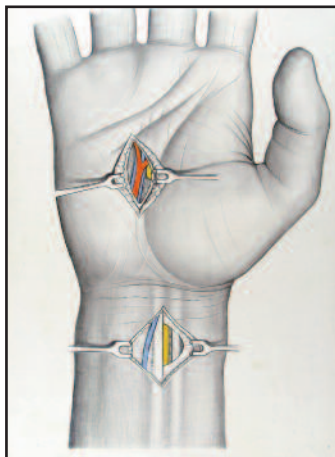

The Library's scholarly collection of more than 85,100 books is located on the 4th floor. There is also a leisure-reading collection of popular fiction and non-fiction located on the 1st floor. Both collections are accessible for use by Jeffersonians 24 hours a day. In addition, the Jefferson community has access to a growing collection of over 1,375 electronic books. Anatomical Drawing, Artist unknown, 40" x 30"

Colored pencil, gouache on linen-backed paper, 1930s-1950s

The Daniel Baugh Institute of Anatomy (1911-1968) at Jefferson Medical College was located at 11th and Clinton Streets. The DBI housed an auditorium, dissection rooms, and a pathology museum. It commissioned hundreds of oversized pedagogical drawings, like these, for easy viewing in the large lecture hall. Artists who produced these works included talented post-graduates or non-Jefferson art students who copied from textbook images and cadavers.

Another Great Year for the Jefferson Digital Commons

Hop on the bandwagon and join your Jefferson colleagues who have discovered the Jefferson Digital Commons. With over 7,800 assets and over 1,400,000 downloads, the digital archive for the University and Hospital continues to expand rapidly. Don't let your departmental efforts go to waste. Share them with a global audience, receive monthly statistics with download counts, and join your colleagues in steering the JDC towards 10,000 plus assets in 2014.

Additions to the collection this year include:

- Grand rounds for Otolaryngology and OB/GYN
- Hospital environmental newsletter: Jefferson Currents
- Student works including: Summer Training Program in Cancer Immunotherapy and Pathology Honors posters
- 21st Brucker lecture: Beyond Flexner: The Hunt for Medicine's Elusive Social Mission
- Monthly podcasts from the Jefferson School of Population Health
- William Potter lecture
- Conference posters from various departments
- Spinal Cord manual from Rehabilitation Medicine in English and Spanish

To view more examples, along with links to past quarterly reports, visit the JDC guide: <http://jefferson.libguides.com/jdc>

How to Participate

ALL Jefferson faculty and staff may deposit materials in the Commons. Students may post materials with faculty permission.

BrowZine Brings Scott Library Journals to Your iPad

Now you can create a personal bookshelf of your favorite Scott Library journals using BrowZine for iPad. Search journal collections by Subject or choose titles from the A-Z list. View journal tables of contents and use the button to add journals to your bookshelf.

You'll be able to:

- Easily read and save full-text scholarly journals in a format optimized for tablet devices
- Be alerted when new issues of journals are published
- Save articles to RefWorks, Zotero, Mendeley, Dropbox & other services

Scope

While the selection does not include every journal in our collection, titles from major journal publishers (including Elsevier, Springer, Wiley, Nature Group, JAMA and NJEM) are currently included. As new agreements are made with publishers, additional content will be added. Just be sure to register as a Jeffersonian to get access to SML-subscribed journals.

How can I get it?

- Download and install the free Browzine iPad app (available at the App Store)
- Under Choose Library select Thomas Jefferson University
- Enter your campus key and password to register

Technology Resources

The Scott Memorial Library offers public access computers and iMac & PC computer classrooms for use by Jefferson students, staff and faculty. Computers in classrooms are available for open use when the rooms are not reserved. There are two classrooms on the 3rd floor of the Library: one outfitted with PCs and one with iMacs.

The Learning Resources Center on the Mezzanine of Jefferson Alumni Hall (JAH LRC) provides access to two 40-seat PC computer classrooms which can be combined into one 80-seat room. Equipment, software and support for digital video editing and image editing, videoconferencing, webcasting, faxing, and printing are also available in the JAH-LRC. An additional classroom on the 3rd floor of Jefferson Alumni Hall is equipped with 27 iMac computers.

Productivity and specialized software available on the public and classroom computers includes: Anatomy visualization, SAS/SPSS, GIS applications, and the Microsoft Office Suite. SPSS can also be accessed from any computer on- or off-campus by those who have an active Jefferson campus key and password.

Wireless networking for mobile computing is available throughout the Library. Support for mobile computing on the library's 2nd floor includes: tables with large screen monitors, connection cables, wireless keyboards, chargers and floor and column power outlets. Stop by the Scott Library Service Desk for more information.

LIBRARY SPACE UPDATES

New Scott Library Service Desk Debuts

The new Scott Library single point of service desk is now open. In addition to improving the aesthetics of the second floor with an airy, brighter, modern design, we wanted to change our service to better meet the needs of today's library users.

This area replaces the old Circulation and Reference desks and serves as a central location for providing library services.

Visit the new Service Desk to:

- check out materials (books, models, reserves)
- borrow devices (ipads and laptops)
- ask reference questions
- receive assistance with software queries
- reserve study rooms

Scott 3rd Floor Study Rooms Renovated

Looking for quiet, cozy study space? The individual study rooms on the third floor of Scott Library have undergone a facelift and they're ready for use. Each room includes a work surface, shelf, and a whiteboard. While ideal for individual study, the rooms can also accommodate two people working together. Keys to these rooms are available at the Service Desk on the 2nd floor and they may be checked out for up to 4 hours.
