HOSPITAL AND SCHOOL OF NURSING REPORT

Dear Jefferson Alumnae:

The year of 1963-64 has marked further progress in the School of Nursing, both in its facilities, and in its educational program.

Through a generous gift of an anonymous donor, we have constructed a hobby room on the top floor of the residence. In this room are two sewing machines given to the students by the classes of 1960 and 1963, tables for cutting dress patterns, cabinets and work counters, easels for the painters, a typewriter and table for the newspaper club, and a small library of books concerning various arts and crafts. The room has been air-conditioned, and glass doors have been erected at its entrance. We hope this will stimulate interest in extracurricular activities among the students since it will give them more to do, at no cost, on their off duty time. We believe it will also foster better relationship between the classes when they work and play together.

The class of 1957 has purchased for the residence a beautiful silver punch bowl, and silver punch cups. The pattern is the same as that of the silver tea and coffee service purchased by the School of Nursing Department of the Women's Board, so that tables set with this silver, highlight the gracious living provided for our student nurses.

We have made forward strides also in the educational program. Some of the major problems in relation to the program have centered around limited classroom space, and in employing and maintaining a qualified faculty, sufficient in number for our large student body. According to the report of the Surgeon General's consultant group, by 1970, the nation will need a minimum of 680,000 nurses. This is an increase of 170,000 over the number available now. Jefferson Medical Center, as a large teaching institution has an obligation of helping to meet this need. Also, in looking ahead to an increased bed capacity, we must prepare more nurses for additional positions. Our goal for the class entering in September 1964 is 140 — 20 more than we usually accept for a class. This will mean that we must arrange an additional section for laboratory hours. A happy solution of this problem was found when another generous gift of $5,000 from the Scholler Foundation made possible the purchase of some basic closed circuit television equipment. Funds remaining from the construction of the Hobby Room have been added to purchase a second television camera, monitors, and a two-way communication system. Monitors and communications to the camera room will be in every classroom on the three floors of the school. With an instructor in each room, students will be able to see demonstrated, procedures performed in the laboratory, ask questions of instructors who will communicate with the instructor in charge, for the benefit of the entire class. As the school grows, however, we will need more and larger classrooms in the educational department and in the clinical areas. Television helps, but it isn't the only answer to the problem.

The School of Nursing has been conducting a television program on the University of the Air. In a seventeen week program, instructors have presented lectures using various visual aids on the subject, "Healthful Living in the Community." This has been an excellent program and our faculty deserves a great deal of credit for it.

The faculty in-service education program, conducted with funds contributed through the Marjorie Benton Haviland Memorial Fund, has continued to provide excellent teaching for the members of the faculty, strengthening their own skills and abilities and thus strengthening the educational program.

Student activities have been many and varied. In addition to those described in the students' report, two of our students made headline news. Miss Eileen Cancelli was elected President of Area #1 of the Student Nurses' Association of Pennsylvania (SNAP), and in this capacity participated in a number of public functions. Miss Eunice Kirner was named Miss Christmas Seal. She, too, was a much photographed young lady.

In the Hospital, we have seen further changes. This past year has seen the opening of the Rehabilitation Unit on the third floor of the Thompson Annex and the Main Building, and the Clinical Research Unit on the fifth floor of the Main Building. Visitors are always welcome, and we hope you will wish to see these new up-to-date facilities for patient care and for research.

In the opening of new units, we are always concerned about the nursing service coverage we can provide. Knowing of the additional staff we would need for these units, we increased the number of Exchange Visitor Nurses, held another refresher program for inactive nurses, and examined closely our personnel policies.

There are many hospitals in the Philadelphia area so that consciously and unconsciously, they compete with each other for nursing staff. In an effort to stabilize the nursing situation, groups of hospital administrators have tried to standardize salary policies to some extent. In September '63, Jefferson's nurses received a salary increase in line with salaries paid by hospitals in this area. However, since we can provide no parking facilities for our staff, and nurses who live in center city to be near Jefferson must pay higher rents than those living in the suburbs, the Hospital Director felt that our salaries did not compare favorably with those of some of the community hospitals. Upon the presentation of these factors, the Board of Trustees approved another general increase effective March 15. Our beginning salaries now compensate for lack of parking and higher rents. In addition, the policies provide for annual merit increments for a period of five years so that long term employees receive substantial salaries. This program is similar, but not identical to the Salary and Wage Program instituted for hospital employees last July.

In February, the Hospital Director entertained all of the staff nurses at either breakfast, or cocktails and dinner at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel. The purpose of the meetings was to describe the new development program for nurses at Jefferson. Mr. Coffee described the first steps to be taken—the salary increases, the upgrading of the head nurse position, the creating of an assistant head nurse position, and last, our contemplated proposal to the Board of Trustees to establish a new one-year program in nursing leading to licensure in practical nursing.

Recognizing the head nurse as the key nurse in patient care, it was felt that an educational program designed to give the head nurses the tools and skills they need for effective management of their units should be established. An advisory group to the Hospital Director was formed to discuss and arrange the program. We were especially fortunate in securing as advisor and lecturer, Miss Hazel Goff, R.N., who has had wide experience in nursing and who has been a lecturer in administrative processes in the graduate program at the University of Pennsylvania. The first class was held on April 28 and we look forward to its success. A substantial salary increase for the graduates of this program who have successfully passed the course will be given at its conclusion.

We are now in the process of planning for a course in practical nursing. This is not to be confused with the courses taught in the School of Nursing. Separate facilities and a separate faculty will be employed. The purpose of this program is to prepare a well-trained group of auxiliary personnel to support patient care and to allow the head nurse to perform her management functions.

This program must be approved by the State Board of Nurse Examiners. If approved, we hope to admit our first class by November 1964.

From this report you can see that the year has been a busy and a fruitful one. We have appreciated the interest many of you have shown in our problems, our plans, and our activities! We hope you will continue to participate as a member of the Jefferson family—in lending your support in our refresher programs and our recruitment efforts for faculty and nursing service staff, as well as continued participation in the Jefferson Nurses' Alumnae Association.

My best wishes to you for a happy and successful year to come.

Sincerely,

Mabel C. Prevost, Assistant Director

May 2, 1964.

STUDENTS ACTIVITIES

The introduction of the new school year was coupled by the welcoming of our new Residence Supervisor, Miss Florence Potts. She and the Freshman Class were officially initiated with the Big-Little Sister Party sponsored by the Junior Class.

With senior, Eileen Cancelli as President of Area #1 of SNAP and Judith Snyder as Second Vice-President, SNAP began the year by holding a Talent Contest. Jefferson was host to over four hundred student nurses for an evening of entertainment with the object of selecting an area member to represent Philadelphia at the State Convention in Pittsburgh. With a generous allotment from the Alumnae Association, Miss Linda Cowles, Miss Judith Snyder and Miss Eileen Cancelli spent three days in Pittsburgh as Jefferson's representatives.

On October 13th Miss Barbara Lenker and Miss Gail Ammons attended a Conference On Careers, sponsored by Friends' Neighborhood Guild. They explained the requirements and curriculum for nursing to interested high school students.

The Southeastern Pennsylvania Careers In Nursing sponsored a parade and discussion groups with the Future Nurse's Clubs on October 26th at the Haverford High School. Miss Patricia Micale, Miss Judith Kennett and Miss Barbara Lenker along with other students from the Philadelphia area hospitals joined in the activities.

In October practice began for the basketball season. The team practiced faithfully and ended the year with a 5-2 record. The Annual Team Banquet was held at Tarellos'. Coach, Miss Joan Barr; faculty advisors, Miss Heckenberger and Miss McClean; and cheerleaders as well as the players enjoyed this annual function which is sponsored by the School of Nursing Department of the Women's Board.

Student nurses participated in the city wide campaign to immunize against polio. Volunteers offered their time and services to round out the total effort.

In response to student request, the Senior Class was designated to sponsor the first mixer of the year. All aspects for the mixer were planned in conjunction with administrative approval to provide for a successful mixer.

Student Council formulated plans for a Christmas Party for the children of the neighborhood which would express our appreciation for the use of the facilities at Segar Recreation Center. Toys and clothing were donated by the student body, wrapped and taken to the center by a representative group. Further contributions led to the purchase of an eight-foot Christmas tree which was taken to the center and decorated by the children. The Freshman Chorus contributed to the Christmas spirit with singing at the Annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony and throughout the hospital. Their singing took them to the City Hall courtyard and Arch Street Methodist Church. The faculty sponsored a party for students in the recreation room which highpointed the spirit of the season.

Through an anonymous gift to the school from a member of the Women's Board, construction of a Hobby Room was begun in the Solarium. In an effort to provide the facilities for creative work, plans were drawn up to equip the room for student use. Thanks also must be given to the School of Nursing Department of the Women's Board for their generous contributions of tickets for the theatre and Academy of Music, high-fidelity albums, magazines for the residence, and attractive decorative effects for the Christmas and Easter seasons.

In an effort to express sympathy and get-well wishes to the residence staff, faculty and student body, a Sunshine Committee was formed with Miss Gail Ammons as chairman.

The Newspaper Staff, supplementing their quarterly publications of "Caps and Capes", sponsored for the third year, the Miss Jefferson Contest on March 18th, in McClellan Hall. They managed their contest which was judged by instructors, nursing service and medical staff of the hospital. Upon nomination by fellow students, thirteen contestants competed in categories of nursing, scholarship and talent. The selection was Miss Beth Reed, Miss Jefferson for 1964, followed by runners-up Miss Bonnie Sandt and Miss Barbara Ott, respectively.

Lengthy preparation for the Third Annual Show, "A Fair To Remember", was begun under the direction of Miss Judith High. The theme based on the New York World's Fair provides variety entertainment while strengthening bonds among the student body.

The Social Committee organized plans for the Dinner Dance to be held May 16th, at the Warwick Hotel. This is sponsored by the hospital.

To supplement income for Senior Yearbooks, it is customary for the classes to sponsor money making projects. Seniors engaged in the weekly sale of hoagies, a Spaghetti Dinner, and the sale of Christmas cards. The Junior Class sponsored a Valentine's Day Mixer in February, the sale of candy and Jefferson charms. Freshmen began the weekly sale of cake and milk.

Jefferson will send representatives to the National Student Nurses' Convention, held in Atlantic City in June. The four day convention stimulates communication between students having a common interest.

Interest was expressed among students and faculty for a combined picnic. Sports events, food and fun for all will be planned. This will terminate the year's activities.

Student Council*

JEFFERSON EXPANSION PROGRAM MOVES INTO "THE DOING STAGE"

Jefferson's Building Fund Program was announced some three years ago and since that time we have made significant strides in the development of our resources and facilities. To date, we have obtained nearly $23½ million from State and Federal agencies and from private individuals, corporations, and foundations. We have completed projects totaling $5,338,442 in addition to expenditures of $1,241,570 for modernization within the Hospital units.

I am impressed each day with the gigantic undertaking Jefferson has before her. We have spent within these past few years almost $6½ million to better our teaching, research, and patient care facilities. Within the next several years we will construct buildings and complete renovation at an additional cost of over $34 million. Even in today's world of billion-dollar budgets, the total expenditure of $41 million by any single institution is a significant occurrence. What Jefferson has done and plans to do with these funds is even more important in the overall picture of American medicine.

Of personal interest to our nurses is the realization of plans for a residence for graduate nurses and members of the House Staff. In fact, it can be said in all truth that it is the consideration and care of our nurses that helped in part to make such a plan possible. Last December, while the papers were filled with national crises of one sort or another, we were able to announce to the press that Jefferson's Building Fund had received a gift of $500,000 from a grateful patient. The Philadelphia Inquirer, in an editorial dated December 9, said:

Surely one of the most heartening news stories in recent days was that of the "windfall" $500,000 gift to Jefferson Hospital recounted in Sunday's Inquirer.

The donor was Louis B. Orlowitz, head of a plumbing supply house, an ordinary ward patient who received a routine appendectomy at Jefferson 50 years ago. Now, with "Jeff" in the middle of a $7 million building fund campaign, the operation turns out to have been possibly one of the most important ever carried out at the hospital. The patient recovered and has been grateful ever since; indeed more than that, has taken an almost proprietary interest in the hospital for half a century.

Mr. Orlowitz and his wife have been engaged in many other charitable works, notably the Variety Club's Camp for Handicapped Children, but this beneficence tops them all. It means—right away—a much needed residence hall for hospital personnel, and in the long run provides a new impetus and inspiration to the whole fund-raising effort, which must provide another $3 million by next June to qualify for State and Federal funds.

These are times when all of us wonder what kind of citizens we are developing here, what kind of community this old city will be in the future. Such thoughts often are gloomy—but then along comes a Louis Orlowitz to lift our sights and reconfirm our faith in the decency of man and the adequacy of our institutions.

For, while Jefferson Hospital's greatest gift received has been that fabulous $500,000, the gift it has given in return has been far more than half a century of selfless service to Philadelphians. Like most of the other institutions of its kind with which we are blessed in Delaware Valley, it has richly earned all the boosts it can get, monetary and otherwise.

Mr. Orlowitz recalled to President Bodine the wonderful care he had received at the hands of the late Dr. Francis Torrens Stewart and a host of nurses and aides who attended him back in 1913. For this reason he and his wife were specific: their contribution must be used for some project which would directly benefit the successors of those who had provided a Jefferson trademark, T.L.C. The $500,000 will be used toward the construction of the Louis B. and Ida K. Orlowitz Residence Hall located on Walnut Street next to the James R. Martin Student Nurses' Residence. Demolition of existing structures will begin in late 1964 or early 1965 and the builders are scheduled to move in during the following Summer.

The current projected plans call for the construction of a 14 story structure of a brick similar to that used for the Nurses' Residence and the Foerderer Pavilion. The 79,000 square foot building will include air conditioning, lobby and garden courts, a snack bar, recreation room, limited library facilities, and a beautiful roof garden. We expect that the total cost of the structure will be in the neighborhood of $2 million but more detailed planning will have to await the results of a questionnaire now being circulated among the staff nurses and members of the graduating class. We anticipate that dormitory accommodations will be minimal and that efficiency and one and two bedroom units will predominate.

Of importance to an even wider range of Jefferson personnel, will be the $13 million Basic Science-Student Commons Building to be constructed by the General State Authority on the south side of Locust between 10th and 11th Streets. This massive structure, the key to our entire Development Program, will house a basic medical scientific teaching program, research facilities allied with the educational aspect, and student commons areas . . . all integral components of a sound medical education. It will contain 382,000 square feet, provide office, research or educational facilities for 384 students, 240 faculty members, and 29 administrative assistants. The first floor of the Student Commons area will include a variety of meeting rooms, offices, waiting areas, a book store, post office, and a large food service section. Below the first floor will be basic physical education rooms with areas for squash, handball, basketball and swimming. Air-conditioned throughout, the building to be known as Jefferson Hall will be constructed of reinforced concrete with a masonry facing.

Jefferson will be enabled to increase its college enrollment by 10% when Jefferson Hall is completed in the Fall of 1966. The six Basic Science Departments will occupy the upper four floors of the structure resting upon and cantilevered out over the smaller three story Commons area. According to present plans for the Development Program, $3 million is earmarked for the renovation of the research areas in the College building when the Basic Science Departments are moved into the new structure. These renovated research areas will provide enlarged investigational programs for the clinical departments.

Of the $6½ million already spent on what might be termed accurately enough Jefferson's "face-lift", $2 million was expended for the construction and furnishing of the James R. Martin Student Nurses' Residence and another $500,000 on the construction of adequate facilities for the Cardeza Foundation Hematological Research Laboratories. More than $850,000 was required to renovate the third floor of the Main and Thompson Hospital Buildings to make way for the new Jefferson Rehabilitation Center.

This latter facility contains a 32-bed in-patient unit and physical and occupational therapy areas which can accommodate up to 150 persons a day. The Center expects to chalk up, in its first year of operation, in excess of 16,000 patient visits.

On the fifth floor of the Main Hospital Building, we just recently dedicated Jefferson's new $600,000 Clinical Research Center, one of 69 such centers in the United States. Perhaps its most scientifically exciting feature is the Electronic Data System which is capable of permanently registering and recording any bodily function or biological variable which can be converted into an electrical signal. The System works through outlets at the bedside and can deal with different and numerous variables in each of the 12 patients simultaneously.

Set against the backdrop of intensified clinical research across the country, the Center provides an excellent setting for our important educational activities in addition to our substantial research projects.

Over and above these notable projects, the Barton Memorial Hospital, Division for Diseases of the Chest, was opened last year on the second floor of the Main Building. Just a few months ago we were able to finish renovation of a 95-unit apartment-hotel on Walnut Street quite close to the Hospital. These units are being rented to students and personnel at reasonable rates.

For the moment, we have completed the "Cook's Tour" of Jefferson. All about us we see change, renovation and improvement. Shortly we will be able to acquire the large structure at the southwest corner of 10th and Walnut which will house an expanded Library and administrative offices. Other points in our program include additional research facilities, a soon-to-be-constructed Medical Student Residence below the Nurses' Residence on 11th Street, an Institute of Behavior, and a Medical Services Building atop a six-story parking garage at 11th and Sansom Streets.

The Nursing Alumnae come frequently to mind as we plan, for adequate office space is to be made available for this organization as soon as possible. We are particularly aware that it is not only this group's generous pledge to the Building Fund for which we are grateful, it is their constant and selfless attention to duty, as students or graduates, which generates the type of good will responsible for a gift such as Mr. Orlowitz' $500,000. For this very special type of "public relations" we are deeply grateful.

John R. Busick, Director of Development

STAFF NURSES

This year in January, 1964, the Nursing Service Staff Association was re-organized because of the difficulty in getting together for meetings. The Operating Room Nurses and the Department of Education Nurses formed their own organizations. The following members of the staff were elected as officers: Miss Constance Sierant, president; Miss Ruth Weiss, vice-president; Miss Pauline Shenk, treasurer; and Miss Roberta Eckert, secretary.

The nurses at Jefferson Medical College Hospital were guests of the Board of Trustees and of Mr. Maurice P. Coffee, Jr., Hospital Director, to cocktails and dinner or to breakfast at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel the week of February 17. The dinners and breakfasts were most enjoyable. The recommendations for nurses which were presented were also very welcome. Mr. Coffee announced that all nurses would receive a $25 a month increase starting in March. It was also announced that the graduates of the 1963 class and all the following classes would receive $300 at the end of a year's employment. Mr. Coffee presented many other things which he hoped would come about eventually.

The nursing service Inservice Education program has been having many interesting and helpful programs under the direction of Miss M. Summers. These will also be more helpful with the use of our new movie projector.

Unfortunately, we are still understaffed. In conjunction with this, Mrs. C. Masuda, administrative supervisor, Mr. G. Parsons of personnel and Misses A. Gryczko and D. Hoover, staff nurses, went to Scranton on two occasions where open houses were held in order to recruit nurses from that part of the state to come to work at Jefferson.

The staff nurses have been active in the Employees' Recreation Activities. We have participated in the annual hospital picnic, Christmas party, dance, and bowling league.

Respectfully,

Constance Sierant, President, N.S.S.A.

PRIVATE DUTY

The Private Duty Section has been again asked to report to the members in general.

The number of members in our section is gradually decreasing, probably because of the lack of appeal to this type of nursing and the "greener pastures" appearance of other registry rules. The demand for private duty nursing is still greater than the number of nurses eligible to be on call. But to those who are faithful to private duty and really give good nursing care of which we can be proud—much tribute is due. To uphold the standards of Jefferson's Private Duty Section is a challenge not always met by individuals. To those we say "Remember the patient, the hospital and your own reputation, as well as the monetary payment involved."

A new requirement in the process of being instituted is the compulsory complete physical examination required by the hospital and seconded by staff members, officers and members of this section.

Perhaps some of our fellow alumnae now in the inactive status would be interested in rejoining the ranks of nursing and particularly our section. Contact the chairman of the section or the registrar at the hospital, and see if details cannot be worked out to reactivate a few more Jefferson "grads" at Jefferson and for Jefferson.

Good luck to all and best wishes.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE REPORT — 1963

The Social Committee attempted to plan various functions which would appeal to all. It also hoped to make these affairs a meeting of old friends.

The Graduating class of 1963 were honored at a dinner on Tuesday, April 30, 1963 at the Sylvania Hotel. It was a pleasant evening for all.

The Alumnae Luncheon was held May 4, 1963 at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel. There was an attendance of 416.

A Christmas party and buffet supper were held on Wednesday, December 11, 1963 at the Nurses Residence. Santa Claus dropped in at this gathering and presented everyone with a gift.

Thanks to everyone who helped make a success of all these affairs.

E. Nancy Scott

SOCIAL COMMITTEE REPORT — 1964

The Social Committee has planned several functions for this year of 1964 which have been enjoyable and a social "get-together."

On April 1st, 1964, we had a very enjoyable Buffet Supper followed by an Auction Sale. The proceeds from the Auction Sale was $119.00 and this amount was placed in the Building Fund.

The highlight of the year was our Annual Alumnae Luncheon which was held on May 2nd, 1964, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel. We had received over 300 reservations but due to illness, there was only 284 that attended.

Chances were sold at the Luncheon and the proceeds which was $234.50 was placed in the Building Fund. We had six drawings and the prizes were as follows:

1st was an Afghan—won by Fay Dieter Groff—class of 1948

2nd was a $15.00 money corsage—won by Sally Baxter—class of 1933

3rd was a Jefferson Doll—won by Marjorie Whitehead Mitchell—class of 1943

4th was a $10.00 money corsage—won by Kathryn Fleck Saunders—class of 1928

5th was a $5.00 money corsage—won by Anna Jacoby Gehrke—class of 1934

6th was a Gardenia corsage—won by Mary Potter Wartenburg—class of 1942

The committee wishes to thank all the members for their continued support in attending these functions.

Betty Piersol, Chairman

PROGRAM

The officers and committees of your Alumnae Association would like to see a greater number of Alumnae attending our monthly meetings, and it is the responsibility of the Program Committee to present discussion interesting enough to warrant a good attendance at these meetings. However, we feel that we need your help in accomplishing this end. Just what kind of presentation would be interesting to you; what would you like to hear? We would appreciate having your suggestions and opinions in this regard, since we want to see you at our next meeting.

Louise Baxter, Chairman

SCHOLARSHIPS

BULLETIN COMMITTEE REPORT

At the February meeting the members present voted unanimously to change the By-Laws to read: The annual bulletin shall be edited and mailed in June of each year. The members felt the news published in The Bulletin would be more up to date if it was edited after the Annual Luncheon.

The format has been changed slightly and three pictures are included. We have brought you news of the Association, reports of the Hospital and the School of Nursing, an article about the Expansion Program, and more than 200 items of interest about the Alumnae.

Please send in news c/o Bulletin Committee. We will be back next year!

UNITS IN JEFFERSON'S EXPANSION PROGRAM

This site plan indicates the proposed projects to be undertaken in the vicinity of Jefferson's main building core at 11th and Walnut Streets. Jefferson is pleased to have provided impetus to the rehabilitation of the Washington Square West area, a downtown location occupied by the College since 1838. Appropriately, it is in this historic setting that Jefferson will inaugurate its own landscaped campus.

ANNUAL GIVING DRIVE — 1963

Dear Alumnae Members:

It is with pleasure that we can report a gain in the Annual Giving Drive of 1963 over that of 1962. In 1962 the contributions were: Annual Giving, $2216.10, Relief Fund $370.00, Scholarship Fund $25.00 and there were 56 cook books sold. In 1963 Annual Giving $2465.50, Relief Fund $153.00, Thomas A. Shallow Fund $5.00, Scholarship Fund $78.00 and there were 37 cook books sold. We still have some books on hand and feel sure you can think of someone who would appreciate one as a gift, and if you haven't purchased one for your own use you are missing something.

The largest contribution in 1963 was made by the Anniversary Class of September '48, as follows:

Relief Fund $72.00, Scholarship Fund $68.00, Building Fund $66.00, making a total of $206.00.

The February class of '48 contributed $20.00 to the Annual Giving Drive.

The Anniversary class of '28 was second with a contribution of $145.00 to the Annual Giving Drive.

The Anniversary class of '13 was third with a contribution of $112.00 to the Annual Giving Drive.

I and my untiring committee wish to thank all of you for your generous contributions. These monies serve many purposes and your support lessens the need to solicit funds to meet our obligations.

Sincerely,

Evelyn R. Curran, Chairman

REPORT OF WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

January 1st to May 15th, 1964

This committee was fully organized by February 1964, after our newly elected President, Mary Ann Stauffer, selected her committee chairman.

The big job facing our newly formed committee, was composing the Annual Giving letter. Then it went to the printer's, was returned to us, and the task to organize the committee to meet at a suitable time—with enough space to form an assembly line—was undertaken. Finally this was accomplished and by the end of March all envelopes were addressed, their contents inserted, and flaps sealed. By March 29, 1964, we had mailed 2581 pieces to graduates of our School of Nursing all over the world—nine pieces went out of the U.S.

Within 48 hours the response was heart warming, 100 responses were received by the end of the first week. After the first week, responses were slack, but the contributions were generous and eagerly accepted. As time progressed, the totals grew and by the time the Annual Luncheon rolled around in May, we had a fair showing for the work that went into getting the letters out to you.

I am sorry the Annual Giving letters arrived near or at the time you received the letters asking for donations for the Building Fund. This will be avoided hereafter. So—if we were a little demanding on you this year, please forgive us, as everything possible is being done to avoid having this happen again.

On behalf of my faithful committee, and myself, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you who have helped us, and perhaps those of you who could not see your way clear to make a contribution at this time can find the "little bit" that would certainly help our Alumnae Association, sometime before 1964 is ended.

In closing, I would like to pay special thanks to Nancy Hampton, who spent an entire afternoon with her mother, helping our committee to accomplish its goal. Deep appreciation goes also to Maureen Maguire, '63, for her help.

JEFFERSON BUILDING FUND

We have just finished the first year of our Jefferson Building Fund drive and are most pleased with your response. We sincerely hope that those who have not made their contribution will do as well. As we go to press we have $5,635.74 toward our pledge of $25,000.

We know your interest is not as keen as when we were campaigning for a new nurses residence, but we are sure you will feel differently when you learn that a residence, near the hospital, for our staff nurses as well as a much needed Alumnae Room, are in plans for the near future. Your contributions to this building fund are to be directed toward these projects.

This new building to be known as Louis B. and Ida K. Orlowitz Residence Hall will be completely air conditioned and will face the medical college on Walnut Street. A most convenient location for our staff nurses and members of the house staff.

Nearly 2600 letters were mailed to our graduates this spring. We have heard from less than 400. Your Alumnae Association needs your support and is counting on you. IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO MAIL YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE BUILDING FUND—The sooner we reach our goal the better.

Dear Mrs. Davis:

I have just received my alumnae bulletin and am very upset. On page 20 of the bulletin under new arrivals you have my name but you have my maiden name spelled wrong, you do not have my married name, you have the wrong year that I graduated and I did not have a girl but a boy.

It should have been —
