Jefferson Digital Commons Quarterly Report: April-June 2020

Though our staff has been working from home since March, we have still been hard at work! This quarter saw us pass two major milestones - a total of 20,000 assets in the JDC and 5 million downloads. In this quarter alone we had an additional:

- 207,199 downloads
- 4,400 streams
- 424 works posted
- 207 countries visit the site
- 6,021 institutions access content

New Collection Alert: COVID-19 Papers, Posters, and Presentations

Jefferson faculty and researchers have been grappling with the science behind and public health implications of the novel coronavirus, and we've created a portal for you to find this growing collection at <https://jdc.jefferson.edu/covid-19/>. Highlights from this collection include the Jefferson College of Population Health's Spread the Science, NOT the Virus, a weekly seminar series that explores the role of public health in addressing the pandemic as well as working papers from the School of Continuing & Professional Studies and posters from the recent House Staff Quality Improvement and Patient Safety Conference. This collection is continuously growing so check back regularly for new content.
