What People Are Saying About the JDC

How does one measure value in an online environment? Do you count downloads, hits, or page views? Quantitative data is helpful, but words still matter.

Genealogists, students, and historical and medical researchers have shared their thoughts on work authored by Jeffersonians and compiled by the Jefferson Digital Commons. Starting today, visitors can view the feedback received at JDC headquarters in one place. Take a moment from your busy day to check out our new page, What People are Saying about the JDC.

If you have used the JDC for content, and if the spirit moves you, provide your own feedback. To submit comments, look for the feedback link (below) or email comments or questions to the JDC editors directly (Dan.Kipnis@jefferson.edu or Kelsey.Duinkerken@jefferson.edu).
