Do you need some “me time” for your scholarly writing? Join us any first Friday of the month this spring (from January through May) at our writing retreats devoted to supporting your writing.

You'll get quiet time to research literature, write, and get answers to questions as you work on your writing. A writing consultant and librarian will be available to help you find materials, discuss your journal choice, answer questions, or read what you have so far. The retreats are in half-day segments to accommodate varying schedules, but you are welcome to join for any part of the day.

Attend as many sessions as you like. We have created a registration for each session.
