Join us for our final First Friday writing retreat of the semester!

Do you need some “me time” for your scholarly writing? You’ll get quiet time to research literature, write, and get answers to questions as you work on your writing. We’ll have a writing consultant and librarian available to help you find materials, discuss your journal choice, answer questions, or just read what you have so far. We’ve scheduled the retreats into half-day segments to accommodate varying schedules, but you are welcome to join for any part of the day.
