James L. Holtz $30

and I believe another mate I dont know how much these I suppose are but samples of more 'a coming — I only want to use you to be on your guard — I must close up at present & open again before the vessel sails. I intend to write you over-land — There is nothing new about Adams' note & I fear it will never be got. Burnett is travelling in England & has been for a long time making quite a noise there.

I send you two cases by this vessel marked to your address case of Wemy's Olybiant No. Nos 1 & 2, containing your traps &c. Nothing new. You will receive a lot of 1/2 gross papers &c.
I also send herewith an ~~good~~ invoice of the traps. the mittens cost me $1. for 6 pairs that is 50cts for pair. about 2/3 what they are worth I got
