Faculty Days 2023

Mark your calendars for Faculty Days 2023! This year, Faculty Days will be hosted on the East Falls campus on Tuesday, June 6th and virtually on Wednesday, June 7th. The theme, Creating Equitable Learning, will celebrate and encourage diversity, equity, and inclusion in teaching practices across the institution. This is a great opportunity to reflect on the 2022-2023 academic year and plan for an even more inclusive 2023-2024.

PUBLICATION SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Ginah Nightingale published her paper “The role of oncology pharmacists and comprehensive medication reconciliation in informing treatment plans for older adults with cancer and downstream outcomes” in Current Opinion in Supportive and Palliative Care. Congratulations, Dr. Nightingale!

REMINDERS

Summer is nearly here! This can be an excellent time to start a new project or make progress on a project that's been collecting dust. The OPWPC remains open for the summer—with some occasional time off—so please reach out for assistance. We will respond to all inquiries as soon as we can.
