A Message From The President

Dear Fellow Alumni,

Well, another year has flown by and I would like to tell you—your Alumni is alive and well.

Although the number attending our Alumni Day luncheons each May varies only slightly, (350 plus or minus), our anniversary class attendance remains rather high. I personally feel, the older we get, the more memories we treasure and the more we want to share them and ourselves with our friends—Try it—you’ll like it!

Your Board of Directors, Committee Chairpersons, and those who actively participate in our meetings, do hear and respond to your suggestions. You may be happy to know that we are planning a change in our By-Laws. This proposed change is for your benefit—the annual meeting would be held on the day of the luncheon rather than on the second Tuesday in May. At this, the annual business meeting, you will have the opportunity to make yourself heard as well as find out the results of the election. You get the news on the spot!

Our Scholarship Fund and Relief Fund Committees have been more active this past year. We would be happy to hear from or about anyone who needs assistance.

I wish to thank my Board of Directors, Committee Chairpersons, their Committee members, and the active members of the Alumni, for all the help and support they have shown this past year. It is a privilege and an honor to serve you for a second term.

Fondest wishes,
Flossie Roche, R.N., CNOR

Nurses’ Relief Fund

The Nurses’ Relief Fund is available to all Diploma and White Haven graduates. The purpose of the Relief Fund is to provide financial assistance annually toward hospital bills and/or bills incurred at home due to an extended illness requiring the services of a physician.

The fund is also available for use in cases of adversity. Nursing Home cases will be given special consideration. All things being equal, first consideration will be given to Life and Active members. However, all applications received will be reviewed and given consideration.

All or a portion of the amount distributed to a recipient from the Relief Fund may have to be reported to the Internal Revenue Service as taxable income. Each recipient will receive a statement at the end of the year showing what portion of the distribution to her/him should be reported.

During 1985 we have been able to assist fifteen of our graduates from the Relief Fund. If you know of any JEFFERSON OR WHITE HAVEN GRADUATE IN NEED OF ASSISTANCE, PLEASE LET US KNOW ASAP AS POSSIBLE.

An application for Relief Fund benefits can be found in the back of the bulletin.

NURSES’ SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Clara Melville Adele Lewis Scholarship Fund continues to provide scholarships to Diploma and White Haven graduates. May 1985, the Scholarship Committee took action to grant scholarships to part time, as well as full time applicants. Provided the applicant is enrolled in a program allowing to a degree in nursing and enrolled for a minimum of six (6) credits. Scholarships will be available for summer, fall and spring semesters.

Each application received will be reviewed by the Scholarship Committee; preference will be given to the applicant who has been a member, who is most active in the Alumni Association, and who has most nearly completed requirements for a degree. A Scholarship application can be found in the back of the bulletin.

Surgery For The Unborn
A Nurse’s Own Story

BY PATRICIA DUNN, RN

On January 9, 1982, Patricia Dunn, RN, was admitted to Philadelphia’s Pennsylvania Hospital in premature labor. She was 26.5 weeks pregnant. Doctors controlled her contractions with uterine relaxants. But 3 days later, ultrasonography showed that the fetus had hydronephrosis and hydrourereter of the left kidney.

A cystic mass in the fetal kidney was causing fluid to accumulate, putting pressure on the fetus’s abdomen and chest. If this pressure increased, it could cause severe lung and kidney damage. Dunn knew this could be fatal to the fetus. And even if the fetus lived, the damage was likely to be irreparable.

On January 19, another ultrasound study showed that the renal mass, now measuring 6 x 8 cm, was creating pressure on the fetal thorax, elevating the diaphragm and causing hydronephrosis in the right kidney, too.

Pennsylvania Hospital obstetrician Stewart Weiner, MD, laid out three possibilities: First, if doctors didn’t intervene surgically, the fetus probably would be born with severe anomalies and die shortly after birth. Second, they might induce labor and deliver the 28-week-old fetus, who would have the expected problems of prematurity as well as life-threatening kidney problems. Third, they might perform percutaneous aspiration of the cystic mass, an experimental technique for treating fetal urinary tract obstructions. By decompressing the mass with a needle, doctors hoped the fetus’s lungs and right kidney would develop normally and lead to a full-term pregnancy.

Here’s what Patricia Dunn decided and what happened afterward.

It wasn’t an easy choice. I didn’t want to lose the baby that I could feel moving around inside of me. But I didn’t know if I could devote my life to a disabled child. My husband and I also had to consider the needs of our two other children.

The type of fetal surgery suggested by Dr. Weiner offered hope. But as an obstetric nurse, I knew the procedure was risky. Blood vessels or fetal organs might be ruptured accidentally. Also, there could be a premature rupture of the amniotic sac, as well as infection or premature delivery.

My husband and I talked late into the night about what we should do, but I never felt so isolated in my life. Only I could feel the baby’s movements. And somehow I thought the decision was mine more than anyone else’s. Mixed up by the fast-moving confusion, I felt deeply guilty, bitter, and angry. It didn’t seem fair: Both of us contributed the baby that I didn’t want to lose.

This initial procedure decompressed the mass, giving the fetal lungs and right kidney more space to develop. Ultrasound studies revealed that the mass continued to grow, however. Pressure on the lungs and right kidney from the cystic mass determined when the procedure must be repeated. During the next 6 weeks, the procedure was performed three times.

Each time, I went into premature labor and was given uterine relaxants. Because I was sedated during the procedures, I grew more and more concerned about the baby’s well-being. Afterward, I would anxiously listen for normal fetal heartbeats and wait for fetal movement to resume. I was also afraid of delivering the baby during that time because he might have respiratory depression from my being sedated. With time on my hands now, my feelings of guilt, bitterness, and anger surfaced again. I kept wondering if I’d done something wrong to precipitate the fetal problems, although I’d been careful with medication, caffeine, and so on. I wondered if a genetic factor was involved. I kept looking for answers, but I found none. And because I was hospitalized more than I was home, I was torn between who needed me more—the

A Pandora's Box Of Ethical Problems

From an ethical perspective, fetal treatment poses complex questions about when life begins and raises the issues of abortion and right to life.

If a fetus can be treated like any patient, does that make it a "person"? Or, can a doctor who neglects to insert a drainage catheter into the head of a hydrocephalic fetus be sued for medical malpractice? Can a mother who refuses fetal treatment be compelled by the courts to have it done? And, finally, if a mother refuses treatment and decides on an abortion—what are the legal and moral implications?

Bioethicists are pondering these questions—and raising some more. In an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association, Dr. John Fletcher of the National Institute of Health pointed out "the apparent inconsistency of encouraging fetal therapy on the one hand and respecting parental choice about abortion on the other. Should the moral status of the wanted fetus with a treatable defect outweigh that of an unwanted fetus with the same treatable defect?"

And in an article in Life magazine, ethicist, Richard McCormick of Georgetown University posed the hypothetical case of a woman who refuses a blood transfusion because her religion forbids it. Most courts would probably support her decision, even if she dies. But what if her unborn child needs the transfusion?

Today, doctors can determine if a fetus has any of more than 100 birth defects by using techniques such as ultrasound, fetoscopy, amniocentesis, amnioncentesis, and fluid collection from the fetus. Which fetuses should be treated and which shouldn't?

As the brave new world of fetal treatment unfolds, the debate will intensify.

FOUR PRENATAL TREATMENTS

1. Intrauterine blood transfusions

   - Needle
   - Plastic catheter
   - Teflon
   - Fetal abdomen
   - Bicor catheter

2. Intrauterine aspiration

3. Intrauterine catheterization (drainage tube insertion)

4. Intrauterine catheterization (fetoral short insertion)

The surgery performed on Patrick Dunn is one of four techniques used to treat fetal abnormalities. These formerly unthinkable medical advances can be done today for two reasons: Doctors can detect fetal disorders earlier in pregnancy using their sophisticated arsenal of techniques for prenatal diagnosis. And uterine relaxants introduced during the last 10 years keep the traumatized uterus from contracting during fetal treatments.

Here's a short description of each of these techniques:

1. Intrauterine blood transfusions. The first human intrauterine procedures were done in New Zealand in 1963. Fetuses with severe anemia because of Rh blood incompatibility were given transfusions directly through the abdomen. Since 1974, drugs have been administered to fetuses with vitamin deficiencies, dystrophies, respiratory distress syndromes, and thyroid dysfunction.

2. Intrauterine aspiration. The earliest attempts at surgical treatment were called "needlings"—draining fluid-filled areas of the fetal brain or thorax by inserting a needle. First performed in 1978 when doctors at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., drained cerebrospinal fluid from a fetus with hydrocephalus, the procedure is also used to treat urinary tract obstructions such as Patrick Dunn's, when insertion of a drainage catheter isn't required.

3. Intrauterine catheterization (drainage tube insertion into bladder). More invasive than needing, this form of intrauterine catheterization requires implanting a plastic catheter in the fetal bladder to drain excess fluid. The drainage catheter usually stays in place until birth, when more permanent surgical treatment is possible.

This procedure was first performed successfully in April, 1981, at the University of California, San Francisco, on a fetus (a twin) diagnosed with hydrophthalmia. A catheter was inserted into the fetal bladder, preventing a life-threatening urine build-up. The procedure worked: The twins are now 3 years old.

4. Intrauterine catheterization (brain shunt insertion). Another form of intrauterine catheterization is being used to treat hydrocephalus, in which a buildup of fluid in the fetal brain may develop because of nerve cell death, causing retardation or death. In this procedure, a "prenatal brain shunt"—developed by doctors at the University of Colorado, Denver—drains fluid into the amniotic sac.

At the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md., current experiments are paving the way for treating major birth defects such as congenital diaphragmatic hernia, spina bifida, and limb deformities. Someday, performing bone and organ transplants in utero may also be possible.
Further Remembrances

Last year when I wrote "Tempus Fugit" I hoped others would remember their "pink" days at Jeff and record them for a growing history of "Training at Jeff." But, it was not to be. Many of you wrote, called and said the article evoked memories—good and bad, many of which are funny in ret- rospect. I must say that it was a difficult paper to write be- cause it was no longer used. But, I worked it all out and now see the real humor and the results of the experience because I have done so many other results: As one of my classmates said, "It was the last one they ever expected to remain in nursing and earn a doctorate."

Because of your responses to last year's article, I have been asked to continue with my memories. I doubt they will be as amusing, second attempts rarely are. So here goes —

Our days as a Probie were busy. Each day began on the ward, sweeping the floors, counting the face towels and serv- ing trays. The patients got a bowl (really a crock) of hot tea with lots of sugar in it. We did not expect to remain in nursing and earn a doctorate. Joe ran the elevators, it was 12 hour duty until Dr. Vaux said the students needed time off too. Night duty was 7 to 7. I spent that time on Eleventh Floor—private. I don't remember how long it was, one or two weeks, but it was an interesting time. If there was to be a delivery, the patient had to be transported to the 14th via the freight elevator. The regular elevators didn't stop at 3, 4, 5 or 6. All I really remember about night duty were those thousands of gladioli. It must have been August and everyone's garden was loaded with gladioli. It was the night nurse's job to carry all bouquets out into the hall at night, and change the water and place the dead flowers in the morning. I dislike gladioli to this day! It was also on 11th Floor that I had the happy chore of catheterizing a lady and took out 1500 cc. She had been in the delivery by her obstetrician and he evidently hurt her because she did not want to do it again. But she had to be emptied. When I returned on duty the next evening, I was greeted with an "At last!" And had to cath her then and again before I left at 7 A.M.

But who can forget the "Jessie" cart on Mat? We really had that down to a routine and patients and who had to go in between were told to get out of the way. It was a long day, especially if you had put in two days on the same floor and the sedated patient (and we didn't strap them to the stretcher) until the ward was cleaned. There, you were supposed to be an assistant to the anesthetist. Sometimes you counted pulse, but most of the time you tried to stay out of the way. I think counting sponges was a favorito assignment while there. When surgery was completed, you helped get the patient back on the stretcher and then had to ride the back to the room.

There he was put in an."bed. Why we didn't lose patients from dehydration is beyond me. Our air conditioning plan was window boxes and other beds were made with wooden blankets—summer and winter. In addition, other boots were worn.

Spinal anesthesia was very new then and we students were taught to take blood pressure. (I later found out that Jeff was one of three or four hospitals that permitted the nurse to do this physician's chore.) For the spine, B.P. were q 15 minutes for three hours; q 1 hour for three hours; and q 3 hours for three hours. We also took TPR every three hours or as necessary. The TPR chart was a thing of beauty if the patient had a lot of things going on. All treatments were recorded there because we did not keep nurses' notes routinely. There were no specified hours on the TPR sheet. The nurse filled it in as she saw fit. Most of the chart was blank. There were enemata were the exception as I recall. (This is difficult to remember because I have not worked there in many a year."

Guanifaline, a mood drug, was charted above the temperature. That drug was given with equal doses of Sodas Bблок, but I am not sure I am remembering this. I only remembered many patients still had to use four Sulfa drugs that were introduced while we were students. Now, they are rarely, if ever, used. They were the miracle drugs of the day.

Maturity Ward was a happy—relatively—place to be. For some reason, never explained, it was 12 hour duty until Dr. Vaux said the students needed time off too. Night duty was 7 to 7. I spent that time on Eleventh Floor—private. I don't remember how long it was, one or two weeks, but it was an interesting time. If there was to be a delivery, the patient had to be transported to the 14th via the freight elevator. The regular elevators didn't stop at 3, 4, 5 or 6. All I really remember about night duty were those thousands of gladioli. It must have been August and everyone's garden was loaded with gladioli. It was the night nurse's job to carry all bouquets out into the hall at night, and change the water and place the dead flowers in the morning. I dislike gladioli to this day! She had been in the delivery by her obstetrician and he evidently hurt her because she did not want to do it again. But she had to be emptied. When I returned on duty the next evening, I was greeted with an "At last!" And had to cath her then and again before I left at 7 A.M. I could and did bowl out a student if I felt the need was there.

FROM THE TJU HISTORIAN

The 1907 Hospital ("Old Main")

The southeast corner of Tenth and Sansom Streets may be considered a "tough old spot" as far as the physical endurance of its buildings is concerned and as "holy ground" in terms of its benefit to mankind. Only two buildings have been located there. The first was "New Medical Hall" of Jefferson Medical College, erected on this corner in 1828 through the benefaction of the Reverend Ezra Stiles Elly, a member of the board of trustees. The original college building, from 1825 to 1826, was the renovated Twelfth Theatre at 518-20 Prune Street (now Locust).

Enlargements and modifications of the Tenth Street Jefferson Medical College in 1828, 1846, 1879 and 1881 changed its appearance from that of a church, to that of a Greek temple, and finally to a facade of florid Victorian style. In the renovation of 1879, two stories on the corner in which the upper floors had served as a connected mini-ward for 15 postsurgical patients were converted into a laboratory building.

About 1895, it became evident that a building program was necessary to provide Jefferson with a new medical school and a new hospital. In 1898, after 70 fruitful years at Tenth and Sansom, a new Jefferson Medical College was erected at the corner of Sansom and Walnut, where now stands the Curtis Building. The old hospice of Jefferson Medical College was now ready for demolition to accommodate the new Jefferson Medical College Hospital (the present "Old Main").

Was "Old Main (1907)" the first Jefferson Hospital?

Looking back to May 1825, dispensaries were available to the public at the old Twelfth Theatre site. (See Directions, October 1855). The first full-scale hospital was built in 1877 on Sansom Street between Tenth and Eleventh, where now stands the Thompson Building. It was the second teaching hospital in the country to be connected with a medical school, the first having been the University of Pennsylvania in 1874. It was a five-story building of Victorian Gothic style that contained a clinical amphitheater ("pit") seating 600 students. Many "gazes" of Jefferson operated and lectured there.

Over a period of thirty years (1877-1907), that hospital trained 5,000 doctors in its halls; cared for 2,000,000 patients in wards and dispensaries; treated nearly 50,000 accident cases; and graduated 148 nurses.

By the turn of the century the hospital was antiquated; 125 beds were insufficient for the demand; it was too small for the volume of work and not fire-proof. By 1902 it was possible to demolish the old medical school building at Tenth and Sansom and erect the new hospital ("Old Main"). The 1877 hospital was maintained for nurses' education and living quarters.

New Uses for "Old Main"

After becoming unsuitable for inpatient care, it functioned for a variety of outpatient, research and educational activities, housing the department of radiation therapy and nuclear medicine, the Hemophila Center, the Clinical Pharmacology Unit, educational facilities for the College of Allied Health Sciences and psychiatric outpatient care. A decision has been made to preserve this old but structurally sound building. Among other things, the building will house an imaging center with the latest equipment for diagnosis by ultrasound, CT scanning and nuclear magnetic resonance. There is a certain nostalgia for the preservation of the English Renaissance style achieved by the architects, James Windrim and Son. The new look restored by the outside cleaning process unvels the salmon bricks from their previous black, accentuates the pediments and pilasters, while attracting the admiring gaze of many passers-by. "Old Main" is starting a second life in keeping what was best of the old and adding the best of the new.

Fall Cleaning Revitalizes "Old Main"

The facelift performed on the Main Building this fall represented a dream-come-true for Gene E. Prouty, director of physical plant.

"It was just a very dirty building," said Mr. Prouty, explaining why he proposed that "Old Main" be cleaned by a special process. Michael J. Bradley, executive facilities director, agreed that the building was in dire need of a cleaning, and the project was forward.

The process, which involved the application of a special cleanser, then rinsing with high-pressure water, took only about eight weeks. During this time, some needed patching of the exterior and bird-proofing were also done.

In addition to revealing the original colors of the bricks and its interesting architectural features, the cleaning has unvelied the words, "Jefferson Medical College Hospital," on the front of the building and "Jefferson College Dispensary" on a side.

By Frederick B. Wagner, Jr., M.D.

JEFFERSON SURGICAL CENTER OPENS

The third floor. Among the procedures offered on this floor are: Ear, Nose and Throat Surgery; Hand Surgery; Hemie Repair; Breast Biopsy and Minor Gynecological Surgery; Ambulatory surgery enables the patient to arrive, undergo surgery and return home on the same day. Those patients are reunited more quickly with family members; lose less time from work; and enjoy financial savings because hospitaliza­tion is not necessary. The center also features special facilities for children, including a playroom for pediatric patients awaiting surgery. Parents can accompany their children throughout the experience, except while in the Operating Room. Last year, 38 percent of the surgical operations performed were ambulatory cases. By 1990, 50 percent of all surgical cases in the nation will be ambulatory in nature. Jefferson is ready.

Now newly reconstructed 7th and 8th floors of the Thompson and Main Buildings which house the new Ultra Sound Department opened in early July with the most modern Diagnostic equipment available.

The construction of the Bodine Center for Radiation Ther­ apy is proceeding on schedule, and is expected to be opened early in 1987. This Department is newly constructed where the parking area was located on the Street Level of the New Hospital, and was fully described in our Alumni Bulletin last year.

(A previous article was published in 1976 Bulletin)
It has occurred to me that my fellow Alumni may wonder whatever happened to Vivian Moyer. Unfortunately I cannot report I am hopping in and out of cabs, with the help of a doorman, as before. Now I am an active user of Septa Para-transit, which on short order sends a van with a wheelchair lift. This holds extra large waste basket lined with "hefty" bags. The wheels help me to resettle the table when necessary. Used Pampers are tossed into the waste basket. My evening aide prepares a light supper. She proceeds with back care and passive exercises to legs. Then on my left side beside the wall, she places Pampers, Kleenex box, towel, and the current book I am reading. (Pamper was a great discovery since I cannot walk to the bathroom. On my intangible is a telephone which allows me to reach the desk in the lobby of my apartment building twenty-four hours a day. I call the doorman at 10 p.m. to attend to the ventilation for the night. Visitors usually call me when they plan to arrive after 6 p.m. Lights-out are at 11:30 p.m., and I am alone until 7:30 a.m. At this time Angela arrives and we usually have ordered a van for 9 a.m., for example, to visit a shopping center.
I recently decided to better use the 12 noon to 3 p.m. free time and in an effort to try to contribute to society I have begun tutoring again. So you see, "Jeff" training has helped me in many ways.
Note: Miss Moyer was graduated from Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing in 1943. Her clinical experience from 1945 to 1953 was wide and varied. In addition, she served in the Army Nurse Corps, WW II, and spent 18 months in a General Hospital in England. In 1953 she received a BS in Nursing Education from the University of Pennsylvania, after which her teaching career began. She was president of the Jefferson Nurses' Alumni Association—1995, 1960, 1961.

Bulletin Committee

The Bulletin Committee wishes to thank everyone who helped in any way with the publication of the 1986 Bulletin.
We have endeavored to be as accurate as we could, so if any names are misspelled please forgive us, it was not intentional.
You will note in the treasurer's report for 1985 which appears in this bulletin, that the printing and mailing expenses for the 1985 bulletin was $36,850.00. This is one of the big reasons we need monies in our general fund.
If you have done or are doing anything interesting, please consider writing about it for the 1987 Bulletin, we are always on the lookout for ideas.

Margaret Summers '41
Chairman, Bulletin Committee
In September 1985, Betty Persiel and I were appointed by the president of the Alumni Association as the Alumni Office Coordinators. This was done on the resignation of Martha Riland — who held this position since January of 1989. Although Betty and I had frequently helped Martha, it was quite different when we assumed the full responsibility for the office. Quite frankly, I don’t know how Martha did it by herself. The Alumni coordination owes her a big thank you for her commitment to her Alumni and to this office.

October 1985, 2,944 copies of the alumni bulletin were mailed, this included the 11 overseas mailings.

A great deal of our time is spent in checking names, addresses, and trying to track down graduates who give us insufficient information. January 29, 1986 the alumni office moved from room 105 Edison to M-32 Jefferson Alumni Hall (this is only a temporary move). We like it much better being in Jeff Hall. During 1985 we undertook the tremendous task of getting the mailing list of all our graduates on the computer run. This information is a big help in identifying people. This year we are working on including the telephone numbers of our graduates.

Our older graduates, whose birthdays we know and who are over eighty, are sent a floral birthday arrangement from the Alumni Association. If you know of anyone having a birthday let us know the year, month, day, address and telephone number.

We wish to thank our volunteers, those so faithfully help us with stuffing and putting labels on the annual giving and luncheon letters. Without their help it would be nearly impossible to get the mailings out on time.

In April Francine Kates, Admissions Counselor, and Lita Ryan, Nurse Recruiter for the CAHS Alumni, met with Betty and I. They are trying to build up the CAHS Alumni, and are having a really tough job. Knowing that our association is so active and so well established they asked us for some pointers. They also talked about the Advanced Placement Program for Nurses at Jefferson, and the Scholarship Program for Nurses in Rehabilitation Nursing which starts the Fall of 1986.

The following are a few of the benefits we receive by being a part of the Jefferson Family: office space, telephone, routine printing, mailing (except the bulletin), xerography (within normal limits), monthly updated computer print-outs, labels for our mailings, someone to answer our telephone when we are not in the office, (our association is included in the Department of Development’s budget, and we do thank them for these benefits.)

Our address is — Nurses Alumni Association, Thomas Jefferson University, 11th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19107 (M-32 Jefferson Alumni Hall). The telephone number is 215-928-8881. We are usually in the office every Tuesday, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M., and occasionally on Wednesday.

When we are not in the office our calls will be answered and messages taken by the CAHS Alumni Office, Room M-6 Jefferson Alumni Hall, 1200 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107. Stop by and see us when you are in the vicinity, it would be wise to call first to be sure we are in the office.

Our office works closely with the CAHS Alumni Office, its staff, Eisa Lang and Carolyn Robinson have been a great help to us, we value their friendship and the good working relations between the two offices.

Thanks to your help we now have a copy of the commencement programs starting with the class of 1919 through the class of 1982.

Alumni Office Coordinators

Social Chairman Report
The Annual Luncheon was held May 3rd, 1986 at Jefferson Alumni Hall, 1020 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107. There were 314 members in attendance. A business meeting was held in the Solis-Cohen Auditorium prior to the luncheon. The anniversary class of 1961 had the largest number present for the luncheon. The class of 1936 celebrated their 50th anniversary and were guests of the Alumni Association, 15 members attended.

Frances Butler Pangburn from the class of 1916 was the oldest member present and celebrated her 75th anniversary, the Alumni Association presented her with a corsage. Twenty-three states were represented at the luncheon and one member came from Hong Kong for her 30th anniversary.

The Annual Luncheon for 1987 will be Saturday May 2nd, at Jefferson Alumni Hall, 1020 Locust Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

1986 Chairman

Bequests
We have received a number of questions concerning bequests to the Nurses Alumni Association. If you are thinking about such a bequest, we would suggest the following sample paragraph for your consideration:

I give to the Nurses Alumni Association of the School of Nursing, Diploma Program, College of Allied Health Sciences, Thomas Jefferson University, located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, or its successors, the sum of dollars (or identify the property, such as stock, or indicate a percentage of the estate, if appropriate), to be used for its general purposes.

This suggested clause is exclusively for the information of our alumni and friends. You should, of course, consult your own attorney as to the applicability of any item to your own situation.

Graduates Appreciate Alumni Scholarships
As we begin 1986, I would like to take the opportunity to thank you, and the scholarship committee, and the Alumni Association for the scholarship that I was granted for the summer of 1985. In August I graduated with my BSN from Gwynedd Mercy College. Thank you again for the scholarship.

Corrine R. Kurzen, ’62 writes — I again thank the committee for the scholarship which made this past semester possible, and will appreciate any consideration for the Fall, 1986 semester.

I continue to be pleased with the caliber of the program at the University of Washington. This past quarter has been the most challenging. Due to the scholarship committee’s generosity I will be able to complete my degree on schedule. YOU CAN BE SURE THAT WITH MY Master’s degree, I will do all that is in my power to support the rights of nurses and assure our patients of quality nursing care. Again, thank you for all your efforts on my behalf. Kate G. Felix, ’70.

Words cannot express my gratitude to you and the Alumni Association for the generous scholarship that has been awarded to me. The money will help me to fulfill my professional dream of my two loves — critical care nursing and teaching. I hope to serve the good tradition of Jefferson’s excellence for the rest of my career. Thank you again.

Susan M. Garthet, 77

Scholarship applications have continued to increase and we are pleased to identify the following grants.

Fall 1985
Karen (Chilandese) D’Azzoio, 1977
Corrine Kurzen, 1982
Audrey (Dalphy) McCash, 1970

Letters such as the following serve to exemplify the usefulness of our scholarship funds. See page 19.

Changes

The view of Corregidor was a bountiful tropical island. The sight of Bataan was a overwhelming scene to barren jagged rock. Fragments of the bombed out shrine the names of the men, including Philip Ricks, the colonel. The tourists have unique souvenirs.

Norma Z. Smith

May 17, 1985 was proclaimed as Norma Z. Smith Day by County Executive Donald P. Hutchinson, recognizing her outstanding service in the care of handicapped children. The commendation was presented to Mrs. Smith by Mr. Sherrard.

Mrs. Smith, a registered nurse for 45 years has been employed by the Health Department for the past 28 years. During that time she contributed greatly to advancements made in the public school system to accommodate physically and mentally handicapped children. In March 1979, she was chosen for the March of Dimes Nurse of the Year Award for the State of Maryland, in recognition of her service and dedication in this area. In 1985 Mrs. Smith retired and on May 17, was honored by a retirement dinner, given by friends and co-workers from the Baltimore County Health Department.

Since her retirement both she and her husband Woodward have started with Elderhostel and have enjoyed a lot of traveling. In March 1979, she was chosen for the March of Dimes Nurse of the Year Award for the State of Maryland, in recognition of her service and dedication in this area. Since her retirement both she and her husband Woodward have started with Elderhostel and have enjoyed a lot of traveling. In March 1979, she was chosen for the March of Dimes Nurse of the Year Award for the State of Maryland, in recognition of her service and dedication in this area.

Miss Werley is in demand to make presentations on the Nursing Minimum Data Set Conference at various professional and research conferences, and leads a very busy professional life.

Receives Master of Science Degree

Sandra Fox Wendel of Downingtown, Pa., received a Master of Science degree in Group Process and Group Psychotherapy from the Graduate School of Hahnemann University, Philadelphia. Ms. Wendel plans to enter private psychotherapy practice where she will be a business consultant. While a student at Hahnemann, she was a member of Sigma Alpha Omega, a student service organization.

The American Cemetery's white manicured lawns are circular walls overlooking the ocean. The view is unforgettable. The tourists have unique souvenirs.

HUMANITARIAN AWARD

Jane Black Guerin, class of 1947 Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing, has been awarded the Dr. Frist Humanitarian Award by the Hospital Corporation of America.

Jane has been employed at the J.C. Blair Hospital in Huntington, PA since 1947 in various positions and will retire in 1987 as head nurse in the recovery room.

DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR

Harriet H. Werley, PhD, Distinguished Professor School of Nursing, The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a 1941 graduate of Jefferson's School of Nursing, Diploma Program; remains very active as a full-time University professor and travels quite a lot in conjunction with her faculty position. In May 1986 she participated in an international nursing research conference in Canada.

In May 1985 Harriet conducted 'Nursing Minimum Data Set Conference', and said it is believed that the results of this work will have great import for nursing. In July 1986 there was a publication in Nursing Management, titled 'The Nursing Minimum Data Set Conference: Executive Summary'.

The Annual Review of Nursing Research (ARNR) was founded several years ago by Harriet; she was also founder and is past editor of Research in Nursing and Health.
The directory begins with the class of 1972 and ends with the class of 1981 for Diploma Nursing graduates.

Jefferson Graduate Celebrates Her 100th

On January 25, 1986 Mary Robinson Godfrey, class of 1909 celebrated her 100th birthday. Mrs. Godfrey resides at 22 McCollly Street, Ligonier, PA 15658.

In 1910 she was appointed a member of the U.S. Navy Nurse Corps, at that time in existence for only two years, and during World War I served at a naval hospital in Philadelphia.

November 1918, at the end of the war. Mary became the first nurse ever appointed to sea duty, and served aboard the US Leviathan until September 1919, aiding troops being transported home from the war. Mrs. Godfrey remembers that among the 100,000 brought back on the Leviathan were Gen. George Pershing and Gen. Douglas McKnight.

Mary resides with her daughter Patricia Gerard, she has a granddaughter Pandora McNatt of Panama. Congratulations Mary, from the Alumni Association.

Class of '34
Grace Ellis Neuman, 319 Westview Terrace, Norwalk, CT 06851. Because of poor health I moved to Norwalk, CT to be with my daughter.

Class of 1929
Zelda Rose Moner, Menno Haven Inc. 2075 Scottdale Avenue, Westmoreland, PA 15601. Hi Bai, I enjoyed your note and was glad to see you. I am doing well and thought of coming for a visit, but I had to stay home because of my back. I am still getting along well.

Hazel Beackeck Beach (Justice H.), 756 C Menno Village, Chambersburg, PA 17201. My husband and I live very much at Menno Village. We have a nice view.

Class of 1930
Annette Mofield Whitehead (Tate), 106 Chilsey Lane, Philadelphia, PA 19118. I give your note to my husband for his 90th birthday. I was too ill to attend the luncheon in May, 1993. I think I have missed spring this year. I am glad we have the chance to keep in touch. Ruth Sellers Johnson (Charlton), P.O. Box 8369, Sarasota City Mobile Park, Sarasota, FL 34276. My husband passed away April 2, 1994. He was 70 years old. I am looking forward to being with you at the Alumni luncheon.

Class of 1931
Elizabeth Youngwood Gaul, 2148 Cherry Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103. My oldest granddaughter visited me in January 1996.

Emma M. Bahner, Ridgecrest Apartment 617, 28 Ninth Road, Salem, VA 22433. I am in touch with all the alumni members. Sorry to miss the 55th anniversary luncheon at the hotel. I enjoyed the Retired Resident Constitution.

Dorothy T. Peterson, Paul’s Restaurant, 42399, 9996 Budweiser Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19015, I was sorry I could not attend our 55th anniversary this year. I am not physically able to cope with transportation problems.

Helen Walp Hubbard, 126 Montgomery Street, Highland Park, NJ 08106. I am busy doing volunteer work for our church. I am retaining my job as the volunteer who prepares dinner for 12 children each month, bookkeeping, and general office work.

Robert Newland, 739 Wieland Avenue, Chicago, IL 60625, I am doing well and enjoying my family. We have 10 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild. We had a wonderful time in the West in April. I was at the hotel, and I visited all the sights. I am saving your messages for my memories.

Martha M. Langener (Carlyle K.), 229 Northaven Avenue, Nashville, TN 37210, I am busy this year with all the activities of the Women’s Board of T.T.H. We have many people for the hospital. We spend our days and evenings with music and art.

 Introduced to me as a friend.

Evelyn Reserir Arnold (Walter), 2521 N.W. 44th Terrace, Coconut Creek, FL 33066. I am busy doing volunteer work for our church. We have 10 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild. We spent our days and evenings with music and art.

pillows,

19369. Fifty years have passed by so very rapidly. Today I find the experience and education of that long ago time has had a solid and enduring imprint on my life. I wonder how many others of you feel the same.

My summer address is Everett, PA 15537. In our recreational vehicle to the Great Northwest, camping is a gift of our Colorado family. Since 1983, it has been an enjoyable time to "touch base" with those far away. Rebecca Thornton husband is retired from the Navy . We have a daughter, two sons, and two grandchildren, ages 5 and 7. We have traveled to Alaska, and are looking forward to the care and services of the Alaskan wilderness.

Class of 1936

I am proud to report that my 8 grandchildren and 1 great granddaughter are all healthy, attractive and talented children, ranging in age from 2 to 22. The parents are extremely proud and happy to have them. In spite of the fact that there is not a nurse or doctor in the group. Any of you take a Cameron House Boccie Team. I'm still playing and looking forward to seeing them at our Alumni Association.

There are several things I'm doing differently these days. I'm lost my garden. I was unable to get flowers on my farm. My garden was simply a hobby. I'm interested in a social event for our Alumni Association . I'm still a good gardener but, as usual, I must praise Jeanne, our hostess, for her delicious meal at the Alumni luncheon.

In spite of arthritis, my husband and I am living with a son who is a priest. We have 5 grandchildren ages 5 to 17. We had a wonderful Thanksgiving, until March 18th. I'm sorry I didn't get to the movie. My best to all.

Gladly I've read White, 313 Rocky Court West, Chatham, N.J., 07928. I'm still travelling and I'm looking forward to seeing them at our Alumni Association.

Ruth A. M. Berg (Weble) (J. Roland) , 3 Delaware Rim Drive, Yardley, PA 19062. On May 14, 1986, my husband, Paul, was presented with the American Chemical Society Award in the Chemistry of Consumer Products at the American Chemical Society's National Meeting in New York City.

Lena baked (Andrew), 1328 W. 15th Avenue, Denver, CO 80204. I'm interested in a social event for our Alumni Association. I'm still a good gardener but, as usual, I must praise Jeanne, our hostess, for her delicious meal at the Alumni luncheon. However, it was disappointing to hear her news. I still have my printing business in the Valley Forge Shopping Center. My son and daughter and I will be there to meet with you.

Rhode Island, N.J. 08069. I'm interested in a social event for our Alumni Association. I'm still a good gardener but, as usual, I must praise Jeanne, our hostess, for her delicious meal at the Alumni luncheon.

Charlotte Cooper Phillips (Emert), 201 South Sierra Way, Auburn, CA 95603. Emert and I thank you for having "high and dry" during this spring's flooding. Our old Auburn was built over the reservoir where gold was discovered in 1849 and parts of this area were flooded badly. We enjoy our 3 grandchildren, Leslie 12, 6 2/3, and have been going to many of our friends. Our kids are all grown and away from home — at last, and we thoroughly enjoy our 5 grandchildren, 3 males and 2 females. We're still keeping busy with our travel, bus, and sitting, and travel.

Mary Louise Moors Broughton (Simon C.) 1,737 Central Avenue, Leonia, NJ 07605. I'm so excited. I'm 26, and my first daughter is due in July, my second daughter is due in September, and my third daughter is due in January. I'm retired and plan to be home full time. My husband and I are working on our farm, and we are looking forward to retirement.

Shirley Darling (McKean), 14005 Minnesota Road, Basking Ridge, NJ 07920. I bought a motor home, and have been traveling for several months.

Shirley Belsett Garrett, Rt. 2, #2, 182 Boulevard, East Palatka, FL 32131. I hope to retire soon and be able to travel more. I've been retired for 9 years, and I'm looking forward to retirement. My husband and I have been traveling for several months.

Doris A. Burke (George), (r), 65, 262, Waverly, Utica, NY 13570. I thank God I was a nursing career by my mother in New York City. I'm a part-time nurse and a part-time nurse sitting for my sister's grandchildren. I've had a few years of experience in nursing, and I'm looking forward to retirement. My husband and I have a part-time job sitting for my sister's grandchildren. I've been traveling for several months, and I'm looking forward to retirement. My son is my first child and December 1995. I continue to work part time in the ICU-CCU unit.

I really love working in the ICU-CCU unit. I'm still enjoying it very much. It's a great place to work and I'm looking forward to an exciting career.

With love,

Lauren Congemi (Ten), 29407. I'm working as an orthopedic nurse and assistant head nurse. I became the coordinator for the hospital's sclerosis program in 1969 and am currently working full time. I love it. I do a lot of patient teaching and counseling along with speaking to groups of school nurses and orthopedic nurses, including presenting workshops for the National Association of Orthoplastic Nurses. In the past year, I co-authored an article published in Critical Care Nurse Magazine.

Karen Weaver (Kei), 1506 Windsor Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19804.

All goes well with my hand surgery. I'm looking forward to my 3rd year in the program.

I love working in labor and delivery at Philadelphia General Hospital. I'm also working towards a masters in nursing. We've had a great year.

Leslie, our 10th grade. I'm also working part time in the hospital. I'm going to continue on to the next year of motherhood with Christopher, who was 1 year old in June. Judith L. Troutman, 1032 Westbrook Drive, Springfield, PA 19064. In May I completed my B.S. in Bible and Medical Mission at the Philadelphia College of Bible. I hope to go overseas to work and teach nursing. I often think of all of you, hopefully we can have a reunion one of these years.

Susan Albrecht Gursin (Joseph), 6910 Cherryvieve Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19142. Joe and I are doing fine. Kyle will be 2 in December, and he is the greatest. I can't wait for another bundle of joy. I'll have to finish my B.S.N. first! I'm still working on 3 East as a Clinical III, permanent nights, so I can spend more time with my little guy. I hope everyone from the class of '80 is as happy and fulfilled as I am. Hello to all!

Mary Ann Mullin Rogers (Louis), 110 Wessex Place, Mariton, NJ 08053. In June we moved into our new home. We expect our 2nd child in July. Our son Louis Michael was 2 years old July 19th.

Debbie Schiefer Bevridge (Aramis), 812 Second Avenue, Boston, MA 02107. September 21, 1985, James and I were married. I'm working full-time for an oral surgeon.

Pamela Weipert Goldberg (Raymond), 404 Fairview Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19141. I'm assistant head nurse at Jefferson Hospital ICU. I just received my CCOR certification in critical care.

Patricia A. Dwyer Cappello (Louis), 7045 Parkview Road, Upper Darby, PA 19082. We just had our third child, a little girl (finally) July 31st, 1986. Now we are a happy family of 5. After a maternity leave, about 6 months, I will return to part-time work in ICU at Lankenau Hospital where I have been since graduating. Hello to everyone!

Sylvia M. Spazh Brayton (Charles), 824 South Avenue, P6, Seaville, PA 19018. My wedding occurred on October 5, 1985 in Philadelphia. I am very pleased to say that I'm getting along very well with my classmates made the occasion very special. Thanks to Angela Stilin for participating and to Barb Fecht for attending. I'm also seeing the light at the end of the tunnel for my B.S.N. I'll be graduating in December if all goes well, from Jefferson's APIN program. I'm still at The Hospital of University of Pennsylvania in the OR. I've gotten over my P.0. and I'm starting to work on a research project with some other nurses on jaundice and breast feeding.

Leota E. Lee Krespan (Charles), 164 Winding Hill Road, Lancaster, PA 17601. Charles finished his residency and we have moved to Lancaster, PA. We had our 1st baby February 5, 1986, a beautiful little girl named Carly Elizabeth. She is a lot of work, so nursing is on hold for now. Please write.

Christine Kopistansky, 1023 Spruce Street, Apt. 106, Philadelphia, PA, 19107. I continue to work at TJH in the MRICU, I have worked there for 3 years. I recently received my CCOR.

Class of 1982
Frances L. Pollock, 251 South Otis Blvd. D-62, Fairless Hills, PA 19030. I'm working in the emergency room at Lower Bucks Hospital. I'm also taking courses towards my B.S.N., and I'm still with the rescue squad.

Karen Tanner Frick (Bob), 1531 South West Blvd., Apt. D-13-K, Tulsa, OK 74120. Bob and I have been happily married for 3 years. I am still enjoying my job in ICU.

Margaret M. Jackson
Margaret M. Jackson, age 89, died April 19, 1986. She was a native Philadelphian who was born and raised in the Roxborough area, and lived in the city most of her life.

Miss Jackson had a distinguished nursing career that spanned nearly 50 years, and more than 4000 young women graduated to become nurses under her supervision.

She was a member of the original committee to develop Blue Cross and Blue Shield, initiated the ward clerk program for nurses, and developed the concept of operating room technicians.

In her 60's she learned to drive a car, and at 60 she took up golf, and the pride of her life was a hole in one at the age of 64.

Miss Jackson was assistant director of nurses from 1943-1945, and director of nursing at Jefferson from 1945-1947. After her retirement in 1963 she had been living in Camden, Maine, until last year when she moved to Bedford, Pennsylvania.

Many of our graduates will remember Margaret Jackson as a gentle woman in the true sense of the word, she stimulated those she came in contact with to go the extra mile.
