The President's Message

Dear Fellow Alumni,

On May 7th when I assumed office from Flossie Roche, I felt swed and honored as I looked across the sea of faces enjoying the annual luncheon and renewing friendships. I also realized at that time, that this was only a small gathering of the graduates of Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing. Generally speaking, these were mostly the reunion classes.

So how many members of the alumnae (a feminist at heart) are there? It was a real shock to learn that of over 3000 living Alumnae, only 779 are dues paying members. There are also 235 life members (those who have belonged to the association for 40 consecutive years.)

Because not all of the members live in the Philadelphia area, the work of running the organization, planning and executing the work falls on the shoulders of a few loyal and devoted members. To them we give thanks.

The annual meeting moved ahead smoothly and efficiently, and those alumnae who attended heard of the work which is being carried out in the name of all of the alumnae. There were 62 at the meeting. Many appeared impressed and pleased with the work which had been done, and that which was being planned.

The Satellite Group in New Jersey met several times last year and are continuing to plan for the future. A second group will be meeting in the Harrisburg area in August to develop an on going group, which will renew friendships and keep up with the Philadelphia group. Interest is astir in the Baltimore area, but it needs a little more nurturing to arrive as a viable group.

All these activities make for an exciting and interesting future for the alumnae of the School of Nursing of Jefferson Hospital. It also means that we need to expand the membership in the organization.

The younger members can seek funds for educational purposes. Nursing as a profession will only grow and evolve as we have prepared leaders who can move forward. As a past recipient of alumni scholarship fund, I am most grateful for the help I received while engaged in doctoral study.

More and more of our members are representative of the national population — getting older. Some of them will be in need of financial assistance from the relief fund. Fortunately, previous presidents and boards of directors have had sound financial advice, and both the Relief Fund Trust and the Scholarship Fund are secure at this time. However, we have no crystal ball, so do not know what the future will bring.

We do know that in 1992, the Alumni Association of Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing, (we have changed our name several times) will celebrate its 100th anniversary. The last class to graduate (1982) will celebrate its 10th anniversary. My class will celebrate its 50th anniversary. Will there be members to celebrate the 150th anniversary? Membership is not a big expense but it is a source of real pleasure to meet with friends and classmates several times a year, and have a voice in the progress of the nurses who shared the organdy cap, and black, blue and gold pin.

Warmest wishes to all,

Alice C. Boehret, Class of '42
President
The Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing Roll of Honor

The School of Nursing may be closed but many of its graduates have distinguished themselves and their school by their contributions to the field of nursing. It is a given fact that they went excellent bedside nurses who gave full measure in caring for those committed to their care. We are interested in compiling a record of those who gave and continue contributions and development of nursing.

Our successors, the graduates of the baccalaureate program, have no direct ties with the School of Nursing, so do not know of the contributions to nursing. Indeed, many of our alumnae sisters have no knowledge of the many contributions made by Jeff nurses. So, it is proposed that information be solicited and compiled into a permanent record for the edification of future nurses who will graduate from Thomas Jefferson University and give the graduates of the School of Nursing of Jefferson Hospital a source of pride in their accomplishments.

The criteria for selection of candidates for the Hall of Fame, Alumnae Bulletins were reviewed and a list of criteria was prepared. The number and variety of contributions was gratifying, however, it is believed that this is only the tip of the iceberg. The major problem the committee will face is the identification of those graduates who have made significant contributions to nursing and who have died. The committee, therefore, asks that you, the living graduates, identify those mothers, sisters, aunts, and acquaintances who were and are Jeff graduates. If the maiden name is given, and approximate year of graduation, our records will identify exactly the year of graduation.

The criteria identified are as follows:

- 1. Established a nursing education program
- 2. Served on state, regional, national or international committees
- 3. Wrote or edited books on nursing (articles)
- 4. Received honors or awards (nurse of the year)
- 5. Service to Government (not military)
- 6. Missionary in a foreign country
- 7. Served as officer in Nursing Organization(s) (Local, State, National)
- 8. Invented, designed or improved equipment

At the back of this Bulletin is a form for you to nominate any one who will meet one or more of the criteria. Please indicate in the space below the criterion how your candidate meets it. You may nominate any number of graduates. Please use a separate sheet of paper for each nurse you wish to nominate. Remember, we also wish to identify those nurses who are no longer with us.

It is not necessary for you to sign your name if you do not wish to.

When complete, please return to:

Glimpses From An Earlier Time

In 1931 the members of the class of '32 were completing their training at the Training School for Nurses of the Jefferson Medical College Hospital. Yes, it was called a "Training School" in those days. Now, we say we train nurses — we educate people. We..."

she entered nursing. A college degree was a rarity for nurses in those days, so Miss Melville soon tapped her for the nurs­ ing school office. However, not before Dottie made friends with all her co-workers. One such was Fred, the orderly in "her" clinic. Fred was quite a fisherman, and arranged deep sea fishing expeditions for us. Most of us had never been at sea, and we reacted violently. We were told to eat strawberry jam on the boat because it would taste as good coming up as going down. Those of us who were the sickest, caught the most fish, so apparently the fish liked it, too. Those who didn't get seasick got sunburned. But we sure had fun! Other class­ mates were always happy to go along.

Millie Smith (O’Connor), ’32, was called for G.I. clinic on the 6th floor, and Carolyn Jones (Transeau), ’32, for Orthopedic and Neurology. Millie worked with giants like Drs. McCrae, Beardley, Griffin, and Rifflous. The nurses here learned to do many procedures pertaining to the G.I. tract. Three times a week gall bladder drainage schedules were scheduled. Endless shots were given to arthritis patients for Dr. Cohen. Diabetic clinic was Saturday A.M. with Dr. Duncan. Elisa Hale (Baken), ’37, replaced Millie, and adds memories of Dr. Duncan. He was all austere, and in his English twined suits he would give the patients H lava . . . and tell them not to come back again unless they "brought their blood sugar down before next week!"

Millie and Elisa both speak of the wonderful experience of working with such outstanding doctors. Students nurses came to these clinics too, so Elisa and Millie were able to teach them, as well as the medical students, the various proce­ dures.

Caroline’s time was taken up very often in the cast room of Orthopedic clinic with Drs. Hugh, Martin, and Hand, Neu­ rology doctors were Drs. Burns and Gilpin, whom she helped with spinal drainings every Friday.

Caroline eloped, and Millie left to work in a doctor’s office. I think Elisa left to marry. Remember, married nurses were not permitted to continue working at the hospital.

Jo Fink, secretary in surgical clinic, recalls the special treat­ ment clinic for syphils. I do not remember which clinic this was — it was Dermatology or was it G.U.? Anyway, secretaries and nurses from other clinics helped.

The lines ran from the treatment room to the elevator, all waiting for their weekly injections of Bismuth or Neosalpen­ timine. The young secretaries were frightened about those "horrible" diseases. But the patients were treated well, and appreciated the care. Many times they brought gifts — tailor made wooden skirts, and millet workers brought silk stockings, etc.

I’ve already told you something about Ruth Ush. To con­ tinue, when the clinic was being staffed, Dr. Schenck (whom Ruth had worked in OB) asked Miss Melville to assign Ruth to Gyne clinic, fifth floor. Ruth was happy to accept the assignment, even though it was a cut in pay from O.B. At the time she was engaged to Nick who was a captain in the army. We girls knew about it, but our lips were sealed. She was in Gyne from November 1931 until April 1935. During her first week in the clinic, she heard two painters talking about the new building. "This is a white Elephant." We cer­ tainly refuted that statement over the next 40 odd years. Also on the fifth floor was Surgical clinic. Gay Arnold (Blue), ’32, was the nurse here. There was the general surgical clinic, Varicose Vein and Proctology clinics. Dr. Haskell was "her" proctology chief, Drs. Willisau and Walking, surgeons. Those of you who knew Dr. Willisau will appreciate this story. The older Italian women would come to have their varicose veins treated with injections to sclorose the vein. Some of the women would drive Dr. Willisau to distraction by wearing round elas­tic garters. He would take the garters, stretch them like sling­ shots, grab scissors and cut them to shreds. The women would come to Gay crying, not knowing how to get home with their stockings falling below their knees. Gay would make a knot on the top, fasten it with adhesive tape and admonish her to take it off the minute she got home, and not to come back until she had a garter belt.

Knocked, when we were on duty, but the clinics were closed, we would congregate in one of the surgical clinic treatment rooms, and prepare supplies for the following week.

Gay would have the supplies ready. Bolts of gauze would be cut to the proper sizes the day before in Central Supply. We would fold and wrap the dressings for sterilization. We made applications. We sharpened needles. There were no disposables then. No disposable nothing that I can remember. Needles and sy­ ringes were boiled, and ironed. We didn’t worry about AIDS, nor even hepatitis. I know of no case of infection being transmitted.

During this time we discussed love and life! Was it better to have loved and lost than to never have loved at all? The problem was never solved.

Gay led the singing made the choir less boring. Gay was (and is) a good vocalist. Gay Poor, even though I would sit next to her, she never was able to keep me in tune! Sometimes we were assigned to relieve in accident ward, or perhaps to sit with a patient recovering from emerg­ ency surgery, coming out of ether. I don’t remember that there was anything as relaxing as a recovery room. We didn’t much care for these assignments — only because we felt inade­ quate in strange surroundings.

Before patients came to the clinic they stopped on first floor, registered, told their complaint so the registrar could assign them to the appropriate clinic. They had to pay 50 cents, 25 cents for students. During clinic hours an operator ran the elevator. One day, a patient handed him a slip of paper that read “Pain in R ear.” Mistakenly, the patient was directed to proctology clinic instead of ear clinic. Imagine being told to take your pants down to have your ear looked at.

The clinic was officially opened with appropriate dedication ceremonies on December 17, 1931, and the portrait of Cyrus Curtis was unveiled. Of course, you realize that by this time we had all settled in, and were functioning well. I hope you also realize by now that I have not mentioned Children’s Clinic.

I was one of the lucky ones to receive the order to report to Miss Melville. I felt particularly grateful when she asked me (as I had to take Children’s Clinic. It is the one I would have chosen had I been given a choice.

The chief of the clinic was Dr. Norman Macnall, affect­ ingly, known to us as "Mac." I don’t remember knowing him before the clinic, but it didn’t take long to realize how fortunate I was. He was very easy to get to know and I knew in short order that he was a kind and caring man. This was borne out in the eight years I was in the clinic. He sailed in, in a hue of colors, red hair complementing his green suit, pink shirt, and tie of the color of "baby B.M. (his words.) This doesn’t sound as bizarre today as it was in the conservative era of the 30’s.

The clinics were open 11 AM to 1 PM, except on Saturday when they ran from 9 to 11. If we had to take the history, I would work on the 0:30 to 1, and Dr. Macnall would work 11 to 1. At the end of the clinic, he would tell us to go have lunch! We had to work an hour longer, and still be on our feet from the patient, and make sure the patient was new. The nurse then saw that each patient was screened as soon as it was in the conserv­ ative era of the 30’s.

Some students and staff alike sought his advice. Sometimes there weren’t enough patients for each two students. Sometimes there were too many. Mac said we were a weather clinic. "Whether they (the children) came or whether they didn’t, depended on the weather." So true. So the students prodded, trumped, listened, looked and con­ ferred with each other. Dr. Macnall would stand at the door of the examining room, 10 feet from the patient, and make an accurate diagnosis before the student had an inkling. He needed only his five senses, not the armada and sometimes inaccurate laboratory results which we often see today.

Dr. Macnall filled all over. Students and staff alike sought his advice. Sometimes there weren’t enough patients for each two students. Sometimes there were too many. He didn’t cotton to birth control. If the rest of us were wont to berate a poor struggling mother for having 10 children, his answer was: “God will take care of them.” Most of us knew that God’s initials were frequently “NMW.”

Again, he would be instructing a mother in infant feeding. She would ask if her three month old baby should have solid food. "Mother, if God wanted him to eat meat and vegetables accent the positive
Since my last article, some bad luck occurred. I asked myself, "Why would my fellow assistant be interested?" But since so many people continue to give me encouragement, I once again send along a report.
I've had people say, "Hang in there." "Things could always be worse." "Keep your chin up." And when kids today hear of problems, they say, ""That's nothing." The phrase that helps me the most is, "One day at a time." Now for an update on the bad luck.
In July 1987, during a pivotal transfer (necessary because I have multiple sclerosis). I was dropped. An X-ray showed that the right femur snapped, and I was sent to surgery for insertion of plates. No weight bearing allowed; therefore, no transfer.
However, thanks to Dr. Hoyar, who invented a canvas with hooks, chains and pump — the Hoyer Lift — I have been transported from bed to wheelchair and from wheelchair to bed via transportation.
Dr. Hoyar was used in the hospital in July 1987. And in July 1988, I am still swaying in this remarkable contraption because the fracture has not healed, although there has been considerable progress in the healing process.
The battle of the chains takes me back to high school literature when we studied Victor Hugo's Les Miserables. Jean Val Jean was in chains in prison for 19 years. So my one year must be accepted.
Recently I went for my "every second month" X-ray of the femur. Although the orthopedic surgeon is anxious to have me "restart" weight bearing and pivot, he hastens to add, "You have had to be retired for one year, so physical therapy must come first." Although I hope to get back to where I was one year ago (and even hope to start tutoring again) I am told that it is counterproductive because of no weight bearing.
It looks as though I am a sitting duck for another fracture.
Another obstacle that has cropped up at the worst time is a problem I am having with my left shoulder, relating to an arthroscopy eight years ago. It's slow going, and always gets back to "I'm 62 today." On a happier note, I am still able to "go places" by a Septa Paratransit van. To be picked up and returned home, I must call the service one week in advance of desired trip (allowed only within city limits). These outings allow me to keep doctors' appointments as well as enjoy trips to the grocery store or shopping malls, always with a Home Health Aide by my side. Several times a year, I make trips to my niece's home in Nantucket and my sister's home in Weymouth, ordering vans that provide services to the suburbs.
Every August, my sister, her daughters, sons-in-law, and their children spend a week at the New Jersey shore. There are five little ones now, ranging in age from three months to seven years — three boys and two girls. For my day's visit with them, I usually accept word-of-mouth referrals for my multiple sclerosis van which drives his own specially-equipped van from his wheelchair. My Home Health Aide accompanies me, and she and my friend "do the boardwalk" while I spend time with my family.
Vivian I. Moyer, '43
My family and I meet for a festive lunch in the lovely dining room of the Flanders Hotel in Ocean City. Then we walk the boards, giving me a chance to enjoy a look at the ocean. At the end of the day when I'm being put to bed with the help of (you guessed it) the Hoyer Lift, I'm happy to have the memory of a day at the shore.
My older niece's two little boys, age 4 and 7, come to my apartment for a weekly visit, making a bee-line to an A & P box covered with gift-wrap paper and filled with toys. We have a glorious play session.
I have been in the wheelchair for 12 years now, and "no bed sores." Jefferson training — take a bow!
Note: Miss Moyer was graduated from Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing in 1943. Her clinical experience from 1945 to 1953 was wide and varied. In addition, she served in the Army Nurse Corps, World War II, and spent 16 months in a General Hospital in England. In 1953 she received a B.S. in Nursing Education from the University of Pennsylvania, after which her teaching career began. Miss Moyer was president of the Jefferson Nurses Alumni Association, 1959, 1960, 1961.

Reaching a Cherished Goal

SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

As far back as I can remember (and that is a very long time) I wanted to be a nurse. I was inspired by a great-aunt, who lived in a rural area and spent her lifetime accompanying the local doctors to deliver babies in their homes, and caring for them and the mothers for two weeks, or until she received a call for another delivery. But in those days our parents guided our lives, and even until my graduation from high school, my parents never wavered from their decision that my major occupation was that of slavery, and no child of theirs should choose that profession. Therefore I trained in clinical work until I was twenty-one, and in the following year, in March 1924, I was accepted into Jefferson Hospital as a “probie,” determined to earn the respect and obedience that Miss Melville demanded of us. This was not difficult as I was accustomed to the life of my elders.

There were twelve of us in that class, assigned six to a room at 1012 Spruce Street, with Miss Virginia McCieavy presenting us with more rules and regulations. Our first encounter with the awesome counter with the awesome “Mr. Jones.” He seemed to me they are making the stairs steeper than in the hospital. After three months probation, we were given up running for the bus; it seems to me they are making the stairs steeper than in the hospital.

That first week I was employed and before I retired, we had one teen-age pregnancy. One morning a drunken high school student was sent to me to be taken home to his parents. These two events aroused a turmoil among the administration, being the first of the kind to happen. I was glad I did not have to make the decisions.

My first two months at the beginning of each term was spent “hunting” for head lice in the lower grades, and separating the culprits from the “clean” boys. I could give aspirin only on doctors’ orders, and prepared upsets tummy with “Roloids” and rest on a cot (which the patient looked forward to, especially if the next class was unpopular). As paper work increased, a secretarial position opened and before I retired, we had one teen-age pregnancy. One morning a drunken high school student was sent to me to be taken home to his parents. These two events aroused a turmoil among the administration, being the first of the kind to happen. I was glad I did not have to make the decisions.

On my first day as a student nurse, I was still one of the last students to arrive. I am amazed when I do volunteer work at the bloodmobile and find none of the nurses capped. When I ask them why they reply “too much trouble.” Do they not care about the distinction between aids and R.N.s? If they worked as hard as I did to get my cap, no one could take it away from them. Oh yes, I had to wear a complete uniform when I was a school nurse.

I am proud to be a “Jefferson” graduate. I will close my travels down memory lane by quoting the ending from the president’s message, “Thanks for the Memories.”

Sincerely,
Frances Baker-Anderson-Crossan, Class of 1927

“I Have Noticed”

Everything is further away than it used to be. It is even twice as far to the corner and they have added a hill. I have given up running for the bus; it leaves earlier than it used to. It seems to me they are making the stairs steeper than in the old days. And have you noticed the smaller print they use in the newspaper?

There is no sense in asking people to read anymore, as everybody speaks in such a low voice I can hardly hear them. The material in dresses is so skimpy now, especially around the hips and waist, it is almost impossible to reach one’s shoelaces — and the sizes don’t run the way they used to. The 12s and 14s are much smaller.

Even people are changing. They are so much younger than they used to be when I was their age. On the other hand, people my own age are so much older than I am.

I ran into an old classmate the other day and she has aged so much that she no longer recognizes me. I got to thinking much about the poor dear while I was combing my hair this morning and in so doing I glanced at my own reflection.

Really now, they don’t even make good mirrors like they used to.

From a column by Ann Landers

This year’s Alumni Achievement Award Winner, Sister Rose Kushbaumer, a member of the Medical Mission Sisters, has worked in developing African countries for the past 34 years. The Medical Mission Sisters are an order of Catholic nuns who provide medical care in developing countries around the world.

Jefferson and Utah in programs for maternal care and completed a certificate course in midwifery in New Mexico. She then returned to Holy Family Hospital in Ghana as director of nursing and became more involved in midwifery. The hospital had a school of midwifery which she supervised.

Sister Rose continues to be deeply committed to midwifery. “One of the big differences in nursing care in Africa versus America is in the area of child birth. In Africa, a midwife has complete responsibility for prenatal care and child birth. If a doctor is brought in it is at the referral of the midwife,” says Sister Rose.

Another way that midwifery is different is that in western medicine there is a great dependence on technology, but in Africa clinical expertise is relied upon.

“But there are few doctors and the sense of need is so great, nurses have more autonomy, they are given much more control in the care of patients,” says Sister Rose. “I also think there is more understanding of the demands made on a nurse’s time.”

After leaving Ghana in 1973, Sister Rose went to Zambia, then to Kenya and back to Malawi where she has been since 1980. Sister Rose has worked with the World Health Organization, the United States Peace Corps, the Malawi Ministry of Health, two hospitals and several major African universities.

Sister Rose says “Medical care has come a long way during the years I have been in Africa.” She says the Mission Sisters is to work our way out of a job, to teach locals to do what we do for them.

In almost all of the places I have worked that has been accomplished. In 1964 we had some doctors and almost no registered nurses, and no other allied health professionals. There were only a few nursing schools and they were staffed by Americans. The students I taught in Nairobi in the 1970s are now running that school, and I have worked with many of my former students as colleagues in nursing in Africa. It’s a rewarding feeling.”

In the early 1980s Sister Rose was working for the World Health Organization as an expert in family planning and education, and coordinator of their efforts to develop a school of nursing. Today the President and Dean of the University of the Kamuzu College of Nursing are Malawians. Many of the teachers are also Malawians. Other changes include a new school of allied health which has been opened in Malawi, offering seven programs including pharmacology and ophthalmology.

Sister Rose, who was in the United States for a brief visit in August, is back in Africa continuing her work with the Mission Sisters. She feels that midwifery in developing countries is extraordinary, as is her dedication to Jefferson.
When was the first nurse hired to work at Jefferson Medical College? Who was she? Where did she get her training? What were her duties? And knowing that, why did she choose to become a nurse? These are the classic five W’s, the questions which the University Archives strives to answer, or at least to explore. Our daily challenge is to answer hundreds of questions such as these about the University, its people, and its past. Sometimes, finding the answer is as easy as checking a catalog or an index. Sometimes, after every possible resource has been exhausted, the mystery remains.

The Archives, a department of the Library, has a five-fold mission. We identify, collect, organize and describe, preserve, and make accessible those materials that have archival value to the University, its staff, students and alumni. To determine whether an item should be kept in our permanent collection, we consider administrative, legal, fiscal, and historical values. Perhaps the item explains a policy decision, describes events from a special perspective, records operating costs and equipment purchases, or illustrates campus life. A walk through the Archives reveals Jefferson’s many facets.

If we are to provide answers, we must know where to look, so our first charge is to identify and collect those materials that hold the answers. The official records and publications of the University are our most important source of information. In recognition of this fact, the College of Allied Health Sciences has embarked on a systematic program to transfer its inactive records to the Archives. Many of the important records of the School of Nursing have also been transferred to the Archives. Miss Doris Bowman, alumna of the class of 1942, Emeritus Professor of Nursing, and Director of the School from 1958 to 1983, has been tireless in her efforts to preserve both documents and artifacts of the School.

The official records, of course, are only a beginning. The Archives also collects the personal papers and memorabilia of our faculty, staff and alumni. Textbooks and class notes, letters and diaries, programs of commencements and commencements and cap-gings, pins, invitations and souvenirs of events are all part of Jefferson’s history. One of the Archives’ top goals for the coming year is to increase its documentation of nursing staff and student life through adding the personal papers of alumni.

Once materials are acquired, our next task is to put them in order, arranging them in a way that accurately reflects why they were created and how they were used. As we organize collections, we also describe their contents, so that answers can be readily found. These descriptions may be in the form of an index or an inventory, called a finding aid, that can be used to assist researchers. In addition to printed finding aids, the Archives will soon be adding holdings data to the Library’s automated catalog, Jeffline. We will also be reporting our holdings of personal papers to the National Union Catalog of Manuscript Collections, maintained by the Library of Congress. Because only those materials that have enduring worth are chosen for inclusion in the Archives, our next concern is to ensure their permanent preservation. This would be easy if no one ever used them, but of course, we want to preserve them so that they can be used. This can be quite a dilemma! Simply by storing materials in protective containers made of acid-free paper, and keeping them in a climate controlled area, their useful lifespan is greatly increased. We also request all visitors to handle them with loving care. In rare instances, we must restrict access to fragile items. Stringent controls are also placed on access to confidential information.

While our primary clientele are University administrators, we serve the entire staff, affiliates, alumni and students. The Archives is also open to the public; we receive many telephone calls and letters each month, requesting information about the University and its alumni. Often, these questions come from people searching for their own family history. Academic scholars, too, find answers in the archives, as well as authors of fact and fiction. These collections support research in such fields as the history of nursing, social history, minority and women’s studies, history of education, health policy and hospital administration.

The Archives is a relative newcomer to Jefferson, having gotten its start in 1975. Who kept the institution’s archival records, dating from as early as 1824, before us? We are very fortunate that so many offices and individuals recognized the importance of Jefferson’s historical records over the years, carefully keeping them for posterity until the Archives could take up its charge. The Alumni Association of the School of Nursing is responsible for preserving much of that heritage. Since its beginnings in 1888, the Alumni Association has been a forward-looking organization, firmly rooted in the past and its traditions.

I began this brief excursion through the Archives with five W’s. There are five more important questions which should now be answered. Who does the Archives serve? You! What does it have that might interest you? A cape, a rose, a candle; a pillow, a ribbon, a cap; these and many more await you. Where can you find them? In Room 310, Scott Library Building. When can you see them? The Archives welcomes visitors from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Why visit the Archives? Perhaps, if you are like me, to look for answers to the first five questions. Come, satisfy your curiosity!

WE'RE LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEMORIES

The University Archives would like to hear from alumni of the School of Nursing. Every archive collects the publications and inactives of its parent institution. The Thomas Jefferson University Archives has more. Lots more! In addition to the dry-as-dust reports and memos, we collect art works, medical and academic memorabilia, as well as memories of Jefferson personnel and alumni. The Thomas Jefferson University Archives has more. Lots more! In addition to the dry-as-dust reports and memos, we collect art works, medical and academic memorabilia, and most importantly of all, the personal papers and reminiscences of Jefferson personnel and alumni. The Archives supports research in the history of nursing, minority and women's studies, hospital administration, and other fields. Personal papers round out the official record, and a vital human dimension to the corporate history of our institution. Researchers in many disciplines tell us these related collections are the most useful materials they have found. Your reminiscences of Jefferson and the School of Nursing can make a real contribution to the ongoing effort to document our history.

If you have class notes, photographs, and other memorabilia that you would like to donate to the Archives, or just some good memories to share, please let us know. You can reach the Archives at either of our telephone extension numbers: (215) 928-7769 or (215) 928-8097. Or, write to Judith Robins, University Archivist, Room 310, Scott Library Building, 1202 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19107. And, thanks, for the memories!

During 1987 the Nurses Relief Fund Trust was able to give financial assistance to 10 of our graduates.

As stated in the 1984 revised By-Laws "Any graduate of the Diploma School of Nursing and the White Haven School of Nursing may be considered for benefits from the Relief Fund Trust to help meet expenses incurred due to illness or other expenses for necessities."

A unanimous thank you was given to Florence Roche for an excellent job during her two terms as president of the association. A motion was made and seconded for the officers and board of directors to handle business as necessary, prior to the September meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Social Committee Report

On Saturday May 7, 1988 the Annual Luncheon was held at Jefferson Alumni Hall, 1202 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107. 326 members attended.

The Annual Alumni meeting proceeded the luncheon at 12:00 A.M., in the Solis Cohen Auditorium. This was an excellent opportunity for members who cannot attend the regular business meetings to catch up on the business of the Association. A cocktail hour followed the meeting, and was held in the court yard, thanks to the pleasant weather.

The oldest class member to attend was Mildred Kroupa Olinowski class of ‘25. She was presented with a corsage from the Alumni Association. Celebrating their 40th Anniversary, the class of 1948 had the largest attendance with 43 members present.

The class of 1938 celebrated their 50th Anniversary with 17 members present. Each member of the class was presented with a personalized mug, with the Jefferson logo and "Jefferson Nurses Alumni Association in blue, and Jefferson note pads were given to each one present as souvenirs. The floral basket center piece on each table was given to the oldest member at each table. As usual the day was a wonderful opportunity to renew the very special relationships. Jefferson Nurses have developed over the years. If you could not attend, we missed you and hope to see as many as possible next year. Please mark your calendar for our next luncheon, Saturday May 6, 1989. See you then.

Carole Rosso, '56
Nancy Scott, '56
1988 Social Chairman

(After Flossie Roche gave the Grace before the luncheon some of those present asked her for a copy because it was so touching. With Flossie's permission the following is the Grace given before the 1988 Annual Luncheon.)

"GRACE"

Lord, we thank you for this day and for letting each of us be a part of it. We thank you for the food we are about to partake. We thank you for the bringing together of our friends, some here for the first time in many years, for those who come every year, for allowing us to share our life experiences with our buddies from another time in our lives, a time of hard work, study, and a time of sharing and giving, a time of fun and joy, and, yes, some sadness. Three years of growing in the best atmosphere, to be proud of saying we are "Jeff Nurses". Lord—"Thanks for the Memories."

Amen.

Enjoy your lunch!

Scholarship Committee 1987-1988

The number of scholarships requested was considerably reduced this past year but the amount requested seems to have increased. Since the intent is to help as many graduates of the diploma program as possible, we hope to hear from more of you who are in need of assistance in pursuing a degree in nursing.

Awards were granted to the following:

Theresa Steinhagen Grace, 1974
Nancy Nevin McClees, 1969
Dorothy Wishney Lucas, 1965
Kathryn VanDyke Hayes, 1971
Susan Nufrro Bodman, 1976
Catherine Glavye Dowhy, 1978

Doris E. Bowman
Chairman

Nurses’ Scholarship Fund

The Clara Melville-Adelle Lewis Scholarship Fund continues to provide scholarships to diploma and White Haven graduates.

In May 1985 the scholarship committee took action to grant scholarships to part time, (as well as full time applicants) provided the applicant is enrolled in a program leading to a degree in nursing and enrolled for a minimum of six (6) credits. Scholarships will be available for summer, fall and spring semesters.

Each application received will be reviewed by the scholarship committee; preference will be given to the applicant who has been a member, who is most active in the Alumni Association, and who has most nearly completed requirements for a degree.

A scholarship application can be found in the back of the bulletin.

Bequests

We have received a number of questions concerning bequests to the Nurses Alumni Association. If you are thinking about such a bequest, we would suggest the following sample paragraph for your consideration:

I give to the Nurses Alumni Association of the School of Nursing, Diploma Program, College of Allied Health Sciences, Thomas Jefferson University, located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, or its successors, the sum of dollars (or identify the property, such as stock, or indicate a percentage of the estate, if appropriate), to be used for its general purposes.

This suggested clause is exclusively for the information of our alumni and friends. You should, of course, consult your own attorney as to the applicability of any item to your own situation.

Bulletin Committee

It is so interesting to get articles for the bulletin from graduates who remember what it was like when?? They are all different and very interesting. How about someone writing an article for the 1989 bulletin from the 50's, 60's, 70's and yes, the 80's. Tell us what you remember about your time at Jefferson. If we have misspelled your name, we ask your forgiveness, sometimes it is difficult to read your writing. Has anything interesting or exciting happened to you or your family? Don't be shy, share the news with the alumni. Believe it or not, we are interested in what our graduates are doing.

Margaret Summers
Chairman, Bulletin Committee

Volunteers Needed

Volunteering can be a fulfilling and pleasurable way of using some of your "spare" time. What better place to do volunteer work than at your own alma mater. You might be surprised at the number of people you meet who will remember you; there really are some old-timers still around.

Other departments in the University besides the hospital can use and would welcome volunteers.

If you are interested in being a Jefferson volunteer contact Ms. Linda Sauerwein, 215-982-6222 and tell her your interests or write to her at Thomas Jefferson University, Patient and Volunteer Services, Room 2020 New Hospital, 11th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19107.

The Original Coal Miners Daughter Remembers!

I am the original coal miners daughter, the show that was given on TV. I didn't know much about it. Who remembers the 1918 Asian flu? When five young girls from the spring class at Jefferson died. They sent for my mother who sat by my bed for three weeks while I was unconscious. Then I was sent home for six months to recuperate.

When I got home to the coal mine region, I found the flu still existed, and the nurse with only six months experience, sent home to recuperate, was called on to help care for the sick. I delivered a baby with the mother telling me what to do. When we were student nurses we would hang out windows and watch race riots on Sansom Street. We would run over the fire escapes to get on duty in the hospital. My life was always exciting, and it still is.

My family are mostly gone during the day, I have the company of two dogs and two cats, and they run my life, they are so much company for me and keep me busy. I do not have time to be lonely.

No use to mention the health side of my life. I have a doctor who manages to keep me active. So what will be will be, its not ours to see.

Katherine Fickinger Aagaard, Class of 1921

99th BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

May 23rd 1988 Frances E. Butler Pangburn, class of 1916 celebrated her 99th birthday. At 98th 1988 Frances "Mayme" Pangburn was given a surprise birthday luncheon by Alan Swan and his parents Peggie and Carl Swan in the Chicago Restaurant in the Pennsauken Country Club. They've been friends ever since. Alan had not seen Mrs. Pangburn for nearly two decades, but they quickly recognized each other. Swan considers her part of her family. She has three daughters of her own and recently became a great-great grandmother.

"A nurse who cares"

Congratulations to Marie Mengel MacKenzie, '82, 280 Hudson Court, Holland, PA 19046. Marie was recognized by Hospital News/Philadelphia August 1988 under P.R.O.F.I.L.E. as a nurse, who cares. Marie is assistant head nurse at Holy Redeemer Hospital, Philadelphia, PA. She has worked on Medical Center's 3 Central Nursing Station for two years. As a medical surgical nurse, working the 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. shift she sees it all. The unit gets its share of patients undergoing chemotherapy as well as those recovering from heart attacks. Marie and her staff of six nurses also care for a variety of surgical patients.

When Marie goes home at the end of her shift knowing she has helped someone, then she feels rewarded. In spite of the mounds of paper work involved, her greatest satisfaction comes from direct patient care, which she considers the most essential part of her position.

Although time away from her job is short, she enjoys cooking. Marie and her husband Kevin are busy preparing to move into an old stone farm house in Warminster, PA. The MacKenzies are both antique collectors and consider this move a dream come true. (Ed. note: The above item was taken from an article written by Marilyn Wetman-Feldman, and appeared in the publication Hospital News/Philadelphia August 1988.)

Nominee for the President's Volunteer Action Award

The following article appeared in the Richfield Life, Spring 1988 edition

Miss Emma Bahner, a resident at Ridgecrest Apartments, was recognized Friday, April 22 at the annual Volunteer Awards Luncheon at Hotel Roanoke. All nominees of the President’s Volunteer Action Award and/or the Governor’s Award for Volunteer Excellence were invited and presented with a plaque. The awards luncheon was hosted by the Council of Community Services in conjunction with the Junior League of the Roanoke Valley.

Miss Bahner was nominated for the President’s Volunteer Action Award by the Volunteer Department at Richfield Nursing Center. She was very instrumental in the success of the Christmas Laprobe Project in 1987. Miss Bahner was the dominant factor behind the formation of a crochet club at Ridgecrest called "Stitch and Chat." Their hard work and dedication inspired many other church and civic groups to become involved. Richfield Nursing Center has received over 400 laprobes since the project began last fall. CONGRATULATIONS EMMA—YOU'RE TERRIFIC.

Miss Bahner also received congratulations from President and Nancy Reagan, The White House, Washington, D.C.

Mary Robinson Godfrey class of 1909 celebrated her 102nd birthday January 25th, 1988. Mrs. Godfrey lives in Ligonier, PA with her daughter. Mary is an interesting and avid conversationalist and has many fond memories of her career in nursing. Mary is proud of her memories and loves to show them to anyone who is interested.

Her health is good, she uses a walker and can do most of the things she wants to do. Mrs. Godfrey remembers with great satisfaction her career as a U.S. Navy nurse.

In 1918 The S.S. Leviathan, a former German cruise ship was converted into a troop ship to transport American "doughboys" to France. It carried 100,000 men to the battlefields of Europe and returned almost as many to the United States in 1919. Mary Robinson Godfrey, '09, served as Chief Nurse. U.S.N. on several of this great ship's voyages.

Listed among her many accomplishments is the important role she played in assisting navy nurses attain the rank of Commissioned Officers.

The Butterfly
And The Caterpillar
A Fable Old Is Here Retold

A butterfly, one summer morn,
Sat on a spray of blossoming thorn.
And, as he sipped and drank his share
Of honey from the flowered air,
Banquet, around the garden wall,
A caterpillar chanced to crawl.
"Horrors!" the butterfly exclaimed,
"This must be stopped! I am ashamed
That such as I should have to be
In the same world with such as he."
Preserve me from such hideous things!
Disgusting shape! Where are his wings!
With colors that outrival yours.
Within a fortnight from today
You must be stopped!

One of our classmates, Rose Kershbaum is a Medical Mission Sister serving in Africa. Twenty-nine of us are now married, two widows, three are single, and three are divorced. Sixteen of our group are retired, four are about to retire, fourteen are still working in nursing, and four are working but not in nursing.
You will be pleased to hear five have received their BS degree and four have received Masters degrees. Fourteen have earned some college credits.
We have produced 99 children. Of that number, 63 are college graduates. We have one graduate of Jefferson Medical College, and 10 who are graduates of other medical schools. One is a graduate of Jefferson's nursing program, and 6 are graduates of other nursing programs. There are two graduates of the Jefferson College of Allied Health Sciences, one Medical Technician, and one Occupational Therapist.
We have eighty-five grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.
You, in your lofty so gay,
And all the gayly mills and mirths,
Are only dressed-up caterpillars.

The committee wishes to thank each one of you for your generous support and loyalty to your Alumni Association. The total contributions, matching grant, and memorial gifts for this year were $18,660.00. All contributions received after August 15, 1988 will be gratefully accepted and acknowledged. However, your name will not appear in the Bulletin as a contributor, since the Bulletin goes to press shortly after August 15.

Wendy to manage a 19 bed unit with 3 beds in the BSN program in May 1989—just 15 years since our graduation. But being a June of 1987.

Joanne Marie Magargal Wagner (K., Thomas M., D.), 31 Hidden Oaks Drive, East Brunswick, NJ 08844. We have built a new home and moved in freezing weather, but we enjoyed the experience of building, not moving. I would like to hear from June, Jennifer, and Calvin (Molly) McCleugh. I'm the business manager. My boys and I are living in beautiful little Grove, we have two children, Andrew 8, and Benjamin 5. I recently started a MSN program.

Not to be outdone, some of the class of '78 were already there. Karen Hoffman (Richard, M.D.), 853 Edge Park Drive, Phoenixville, PA 19460. We saved the best for last. I spent part of the summer in Japan for 3 years.

Joanne Stock (Bill), 1041 Lambert Street, Atco, NJ 08004. The Lord has been wonderful to us with a prosperous business. I still have to pinch myself sometimes that our 15th reunion is upon us.

Joan Willhite Reiner (Chip), 440-C Summerville Avenue, Franklinville, NJ 08322. I hope to the class of '78—happy 10 years. I'm still working in the ICU at JCAH. I can confirm my biorhythms and have admitted that I still have to pinch myself sometimes that our 15th reunion is upon us.

Regina Imogene Propps, 130 Congress Avenue, Oaklyn, NJ 08107. No accidents, no hospitalizations, no divorces this year. On those prestigious days, I hope to have a lot of laughs. It's the class of '78 and we're still rocking and rolling. We still have horses and various other pets. I enjoy my needlework, arts and crafts and still have fun time. We're still all together. I'm happy to be with our boys. Shawn is 8, and Kevin is 6. We recently adopted an 8 month old Yorkie. We've been busy with our dogs and are still remodeling. We like to work in our yard. We have a lot of laughs. My sister is getting married. My boys and I are in the wedding. I'm still working in the ICU at JCAH. I can confirm my biorhythms and have admitted that I still have to pinch myself sometimes that our 15th reunion is upon us.

Joanne Stock Petrello (Gene), 16 Washington Drive, Havertown, PA 19083. This summer we'll be moving to London, Japan for 3 years. Leslie Wilkinson Stidick (Linda), 546 Parkway Avenue, Pennellville, PA 04947. I can't believe it has been 10 years since we graduated from JCAH. (malady I feel like I've been a nurse forever) I don't know which end is up anymore. I've been the nurse case manager at the center for retired children and adults, and with a perpetual nursing shortage, you never know when you are called. Fifteen years of service at the Philadelphia Veterans Administration Hospital. I'll be moving to the center in Maryland within the next year. We have a beautiful little girl,always have to pinch myself sometimes that our 15th reunion is upon us.

She is the love of my life. We have taken off some time to be with Kate. After taking a trip down south for a month we will both be returning to work. My regrets to all my classmates.

Stacy Cassell Besh (Howard), 12209 Sag Harbor #2, West Palm Beach, FL 33414. Everyone! We've recently moved from Sandy Florida, but didn't winter a bit. My husband has opened his second hematology office. I keep busy with Rachel, now one year old, helping out in the office, and teaching at the local college. I love to be with friends.

Margaret O'Dante (Thomas), 20 Holmes Street, Edison, NJ 08817. What a busy year. Engaged, married, now a house, bought a house, and Tom and I are the proud parents of "Grace" and "Gordon" Newman.

Patricia O'Skeen-Barron (John C. R.N.), 39, Janesville Lane, Levittown, PA 19056. My wife has been blessed with a terrific husband, three adorable little boys, Matthew 3½, Adam 2½, and David 1½, and a laundry pile that gives new meaning to the word "laundry" for me. I'm fully keeping up in the PACU at Jefferson, and Jack remains as charge nurse at JFK's operating room. So, there's never a dull moment. Hello to all the "lost" members of '82. I think of you often.

Sandra Krebs D'Ameile (Linda), 371 Montgomery Drive, Branford, CT 06405. We're getting settled in CT where Lou has just started a fellowship at Yale. I'm enjoying being a full time mom for now with Nicholas, age two and baby #2 due in October. Hope everyone is well. See you next May.

Karen Tannen Frick (Bob), 59 Pinckney Street, Boston, MA 02114. Hi, everyone! I have been looking in Boston. I continue to work in ICU nursing. We expect to be moving back to the Philadelphia area in June. I look forward to renewing old friendships.

Deborah A. Cava, 79100 Ocean Road, Philadelphia, PA 19154. Hi everyone. 1988 has been a great year for me. I graduated this past June with my BSN from Jefferson and on November 5, 1987 I will become Mrs. Curtis Fine. I'll then be heading out to California. It is going to be very busy for everyone. Best wishes always.

Friendship—like music heard on the waters, Like pines when the wind passeth by, Like pearls in the depths of the ocean, Like stars that calmly shine the sky, Like June and the odor of roses, Like dew and the freshness of morning, Like sunshine that kisseth the clover, Like tesals of silk on the corn, Like mountains that arck the blue heavens, Like clouds when the sun dippeth low, Like songs of birds in the forest, Like brooks where the sweet waters flow, Like dreams of Arcadian pleasures, Like colors that gracefully blend, Like everything breathing of kindness— Like these is the love of a friend.
