The President's Message

Dear Fellow Alumni,

It does not seem possible that this is the third time I have put pen to paper to write a message to the membership of the School of Nursing Alumni Association. So much has happened in such a short three years, it would seem appropriate to recap some of the changes that have occurred.

Perhaps the most gratifying is the increased attendance at the Annual Meeting before the luncheon. It is here that the membership has the opportunity to hear, first hand, what has been done for the members. They have the opportunity to ask questions, to clarify the work which is reported by committee chairpersons, and to propose other activities which could result in improvements to the total membership.

Although Jefferson University subsidizes our office by providing space, postage, telephone, printing, and etc. It is our dues and annual giving which keeps us solvent. Yes, we are a wealthy organization when you look at the Relief Fund and Scholarship Fund monies, but, and that is a big BUT, those monies are restricted and can be used only for the purposes for which they are designated. So, the increase in paid membership in the past three years has helped us maintain our independence as an organization. We have a workable budget which you will find in the Treasurer's Report.

The Scholarship Fund was studied to see how we could benefit the greatest number of Alumni, and it was suggested that children, grandchildren, and nieces and nephews, should be able to utilize the money for nursing education. This past year the first of that level of aid was given.

The Relief Fund is more difficult to dispense. We really need to keep an eye out for our classmates and alumni sisters, and a few brothers. Many are reluctant to admit that they could use assistance. But even a small amount could help over a little hump and we would like to help. We are Nurses! So, if you know someone who has been having a hard time making ends meet, let the Relief Committee know.

The Satellite Committee has worked hard to help get groups started, but it takes someone at the location to do the work. As with any activity, it does take work. "The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak." The main problems to be overcome are: a meeting place and time, and what you want to accomplish. The Officers and Board in Philadelphia are eager to have suggestions from the membership which can be incorporated into the organization and views the satellite groups as a means to do the work. As with any activity, it does take work. As with any activity, it does take work. "The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak." The Officers and Board in Philadelphia are eager to have suggestions from the membership which can be incorporated into the organization and views the satellite groups as a means to do the work.

The By-Laws committee has reviewed the By-Laws and several amendments were approved by the membership at the Annual Meeting.

As you can see, these past three years have been busy ones. We are still in need of more people to help run the organization. We know that you who come back every five years for reunions have been renewing friendships and comparing notes on families, but your help is needed to make your day even better.

No longer is the hospital staffed with organly capped "pink and white" nurses. Many of our graduates have gone away to demonstrate the excellent education in nursing they got at Jefferson. Many graduates have small or teenage children and have problems getting free; but it can be done. Under discussion is a change of meeting times and number of meetings each year. A consensus has not been reached, so discussion goes on. As we hear from more of the membership changes are bound to evolve.

I have enjoyed my three years as President. It has been challenging and stimulating, and I feel progress has been made, and I look forward to further developments as our needs as an organization change.

Respectfully,
Alice C. Boehret, RN, EdD
President

History of the School of Nursing of
The Jefferson Medical College Hospital

In the middle of the 18th century a small private school under the auspices of St. Luke's Church was founded in Canonsburg, Washington County, Pennsylvania. This became in 1794 the first chartered Academy, west of the Allegheny Mountains. It was founded as Jefferson College in 1802, and on February 2, 1870 united with the Wash-ington College and became known as the Washington and Jefferson College.

Dr. George McClellan, desirous of teaching medicine in Philadelphia, enthusiastically supported by Dr. John Eberly, Dr. Joseph Koop and Jacob Green, Esq., was invited to the Jefferson College at Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, for the establishment of a medical department. The plan was accepted in 1825 and in 1826 Jefferson Medical College was incorpo-rated as the Medical Department of Jefferson College with the power of granting degrees.

The first course of Medical Lectures was delivered May 9, 1825, and the first operation was performed by Dr. George McClellan in the old Tivoli Theatre, 518 Locust Street.

In order to impart medical knowledge, and to demonstrate to students, it was necessary to have an infirmary where such bedside knowledge could be obtained; consequently the College organized what was called a "Teaching Infirmary" consisting of a clinical room for operations and lectures, one for general dispensary work, and two rooms, one for men and one for women, children, with about six beds in each room.

All patients, after operation, unless the operation was a serious one, were sent to their homes in carriages, where they were attended by the Clinical Assistant.

In 1843, as a first step in the establishment of a more modern infirmary, the infirmary building was made for twenty bed patients, and not until 1877 did the Jefferson Hospital have a home of its own, accommodating one hun-dred and twenty-five patients, located at 1000 Sansom Street.

In the earlier days there was no science of Bacteriology or attempt at surgical cleanliness, and no course of scientific training in male or female nursing.

The nursing of the famous trained and assigned to women, many of whom were not pleasing. Most of the male nurses had an unfortunate predilection for alcoholic liquors. The di-rections of physicians were often misunderstood because of ignorance, few nurses having had even the slightest knowl-edge of drugs, symptoms and signs of hemorrhage, or any other dangers. There was no real sense of responsibility, no comprehension of the dignity of the nurse's responsibility and little realization of the needs of humanity.

Patients were burned with hot poultries. Male pa-tients, at times, lay for hours with retention of urine, this disorder having been regarded by the nurse, unless the physi-cian was notified, as a mere irritating obstinacy on the part of the patient.

Intra-abdominal hemorrhage occurring after operation was apt to be missed until it was too late to save the patient, the nurses being unaware of the significance of restlessness, rapid pulse, etc., in head injuries it was seldom realized that coma was not sleep, and is different from sleep. The pulse was taken, but nothing was known of the significance of rapidity, weakening, tension, irregularity, etc. The presence of three signs, if un-derstood, would have led to calling the physician. It was al-ways necessary to detail a Clinical Assistant to sit by the patient's bedside during his or her emergence from ether in order to be certain that the patient was turned over properly during the attacks of vomiting. A number of unconscious or paralyzed patients were burned with hot water bags and hot cans because of callousness. It was extremely difficult in cases of spinal injury to have proper care of the skin, care imperatively necessary to prevent bedsores. The dressing of bedsores, unless done by the intern, was seldom carried out with care and regularity.

The nurse was not permitted to prepare or handle the instruments or the gauze dressings during surgical operations.

When the change to professional nursing began in the Jefferson Medical College Hospital in 1891, it was in a small way: only a few student nurses were entered on probation into the Training School under the Chief Nurse, Miss Ellis Benson. Many of the old type nurses were retained for a time. The old time physician and the modern physician dis-agreed and quarreled. In spite of the modest beginning there were members of the medical staff who opposed the entire movement and regarded it as the first step on the road to chaos and destruction. It was considered by them a new fangled notion fraught with infinite possibilities of evil, an un-due interference with the decisions of the physicians, and became known as the "Theory of Nursing".

The Directress of Nurses of the Training School was as-sisted in the teaching by lecturers who gave annual courses to the nurses on subjects relating to their profession. After the student nurse had attended lectures and classes on the subjects relative to nursing the various diseases and had some experience on the wards, she was sent out into the homes to care for the sick, the attending physician assuming the entire responsibility of the patient and the nurse. If the nurse proved satisfactory she was retained; if not, she was sent back to the hospital. A report concerning the nurse was submitted to the Directress of the Training School by the physician and patient, or members of the family, stating their opinions as to her adaptability, fitness, standing and future possibilities as a professional woman.

In the Fall of 1894 Miss Darlington resigned to be succeeded by Miss Susan C. Hearn, a graduate of the Training School of the Philadelphia General Hospital. Miss Hearn had ma-triculated under Miss Alice Fisher, Directress of Nurses of the Philadelphia General Hospital, or "Old Blockley", as it was commonly called. Miss Hearn was an English woman and had received her training under Florence Nightingale. She assumed charge of the Jefferson Medical College Hos-pital Training School with thirty student nurses and continued with a gradual increase in number.
1897. One nurse was detailed to make and sterilize all the dressings used in the Hospital.

In August 1898, the United States entered the Spanish-American War, in which the mortality among the American troops was high due to typhoid fever, and an inadequately trained nursing personnel to cope with the large number of patients. A special train was sent to a military hospital camp in Camp Fernandina, Florida, Misses Adelaole O’Laughlin and Katharine Baker were detailed to "train service". The typhoid epidemic returned to Philadelphia and New York in September, and in some hospitals, the death rate was very high, with one death during transportation. A number of graduates nurses gave their services for some time during the epidemic and were rewarded with the only compensation received by these nurses for their services.

During the Galveston flood of 1900 one of the leading Philadelphia newspapers sent Miss Katherine Rogers, a Jef­ferson graduate nurse, to render aid and assistance to the sick and injured.

In 1899 two commencement exercises for nurses were held, one in May and another in December. At this time it was decided to have one commencement each year during the month of May. As the Hospital continued to grow in service and the need for a building to take care of hospital care, it became necessary to plan toward a better, more modern and larger structure with better facilities. Conse­quently, in 1902 plans and specifications were drawn up for the erection of an eighty-story building. During erection, labor disturbances prevented its completion until 1907. The opening exercises were held on September 19, 1907.

With enlargement of the hospital, which entailed more cli­nics, additional operating rooms, larger patient accommodations, and an increased number of nurses, and with additional private rooms, it became necessary to increase the enrollment of the training school. Students had to be accepted no longer send directly to the school for the sick, but remained per­manently in the hospital during the entire three years course in nursing. The enrollment of the training school was increased in number from fifty to ninety students.

After the increase in the number of nurses the Nurses’ Home was inadequate to accommodate the student body, and efforts were made to adjust this condition. Upon evacuating the old hospital building of patient care, the space was re­vamped to accommodate the student body and efforts were made to adjust this condition.

The probationary hospital building of September 1897, was located on the second floor of the hospital building, as the wards had not been made for the accommodation of the students.

In October 1897, Miss Virginia McCieavy of Harrington, Delaware, a former student of the Jefferson Hospital, was elected director of the Training School. The city of Philadelphia, through her efforts, did much toward the advancement of the Nurses’ Training School and the future success. Miss Anna E. Hearle, a nurse of high personal qualifications, was elected a member of the Jefferson Hospital and the use of the second hospital building was elected a nurses’ dormitory en­trusted to her care, it became necessary to make and equip the building.

Student nurses were no longer sent directly to the graduating class by Dr. W. L. M. Coplin, as the personal gift of the Board of Trustees of the Hospital and each graduate nurse has received the pin at the time of their graduation.

The next day the ship "Satanas" passed through the locks of Liverpool and was ready for embarkation on the following evening, May 24th, 1918. No one was granted permission to leave the ship, the passengers were to disembark at six o’clock Saturday morning, but disembarkation did not take place until eight A.M. the following day. The nursing personnel of Base Hospital No. 36 was transported to Wiltson-on-the-Hill Station and welcomed to England in the name of King George. After this greeting a train was boarded for South­ampton. The next day, May 25th, after an uneventful crossing, was met by Army Officers, divided into smaller groups, and taken to hotels to await further orders. The next day, Sunday, May 26th, was set aside for rest. The ship was then about the light, speedy, hospital ship St. David, to cross the channel to France.

Increasing anxiety felt at this point, more than at any other time since leaving the United States. The night seemed long; few, if any, slept. After careful guidance through an unknown county, the nurses were taken to a more comfortable hotel, where they were to disembark at six o’clock on the following day, May 27th, 1918. Miss Virginia McCieavy of Harrington, Delaware, was appointed Chief Resident and was ready to receive instructions as issued. The entire trip was uneventful, and the nurses awaited orders for active duty.

The ship reached from Washington, D.C. to sign the muster roll, the nurses were to disembark at six o’clock on the following day, May 27th, 1918. After a short visit Miss Virginia McCieavy of Harrington, Delaware, was appointed Chief Resident and was ready to receive instructions as issued. The entire trip was uneventful, and the nurses awaited orders for active duty.

The next day they were visited by the surgeons, the personnel of the Jefferson Hospital, and the nurses were to disembark at six o’clock on the following day, May 27th, 1918. Miss Virginia McCieavy of Harrington, Delaware, was appointed Chief Resident and was ready to receive instructions as issued. The entire trip was uneventful, and the nurses awaited orders for active duty.

The next day they were visited by the surgeons, the personnel of the Jefferson Hospital, and the nurses were to disembark at six o’clock on the following day, May 27th, 1918. Miss Virginia McCieavy of Harrington, Delaware, was appointed Chief Resident and was ready to receive instructions as issued. The entire trip was uneventful, and the nurses awaited orders for active duty.
The nurses immediately reported for duty on the wards, assumed charge in the rooms, and the duty took them to the kitchen, the civilian employees in the office, and the necessary adjustment made to the new surroundings.

At this time the weather was quite warm, the enemy using deadly gases, with much bombarding and shelling. Consistently the hospital was bathed and wounded in the care of the nurses.

The nursing personnel of Base Hospital No. 11, arrived at their Base and some of its nurses were transferred to Base Hospital No. 10. This constant work was accomplished by the nurses during long hours of duty, with untiring devotion, always ready to meet the terrible suffering that beset their path. This excellent work continued until the Armistice was signed November 11, 1918.

Worn out from overwork, the Americans felt their work was completed and one endeavor was to return to the United States. Dissatisfaction arose because real work had ceased and the vast majority were awaiting orders to return home. To adjust conditions, orders were issued to recall, detach and evacuate as rapidly as conditions and facts permitted. Orders were returned to Base.

The sick and wounded who were able to travel, were transported rapidly to army hospitals in the United States. In March 1919, nurses were received for the nurses attached to Base Hospital No. 38 to be prepared to return to the United States.

Thirty-eight nurses left the Grand Blateau, Nantes, France, and proceeded to LeBoele, France, remaining there about a month, when they proceeded to Brest, France, and on the following morning embarked on the S.S. Harrisburg. After a rough voyage of ten days they landed in Hoboken, New Jersey, U.S.A.

The nurses were stationed in New York for about three days, and then were honorably discharged from the Army and returned to their respective homes.

During the absence of Clara Melville, Nora E. Shoemaker was elected Acting Director of Nursing, and Adele Noble and their personnel was accomplished amid very hard and strenuous conditions. The terrible ravages of the influenza epidemic caused the death of several nurses. Many of the nurses were off duty every day by reason of illness. It was almost impossible to secure adequate nursing care.

The epidemic, placing the entire country in a general chaotic condition.

Upon the return to the United States of those engaged in military services, Miss Melville again assumed her former position as Director of the Training School. Miss Shoemaker, Acting Director of Nurses, had been made a member of the Red Cross to do relief work in Siberia. Upon Miss Melville’s return, Miss Shoemaker resigned and proceeded to Siberia.

So many changes had taken place during the period of the war that considerable readjustment was necessary to return to former standards, which required much time and energy and a clearer vision than ever before to cope with and meet the existing situation. A feeling of unrest and dissatisfaction prevailed on every side and the reason offered was “Owing to the war the country can expect nothing other than prevailing conditions”. Finally, more normal conditions prevailed but people still again assumed their former responsibilities.

Business had taken on new aspects, and living conditions had changed. In place of houses, as formerly, apartments were in demand, and as a result hospitals in times of illness were in greater demand. More beds for ward patients, and an additional number of rooms for private patients were required. This problem of completing the building by thirty rooms, making a total of one hundred and twenty single rooms. This work, started in July 1926, was completed in May 1927.

Formerly the Directress of Nurses was responsible for and associated with the study of the epidemic. The trend of times and conditions necessitated changes in Schools of Nursing. It became necessary to secure an Education Director, Miss Melville left her positions of Base Hospital and as a result of the epidemic and acting Directress of Nurses during Miss Melville’s leave of absence on account of the World War I was appointed in September 1919 to be the first Director of Nurses in the School of Nursing of the Jefferson Hospital.

The formal opening exercises of the Samuel Gustine Thompson Annex were held in the Clinical Amphitheater of the Annex on October 30, 1924. The private floors of this new building were ready to receive patients on this date, with Miss Sarah J. Martin, a graduate of Jefferson, as chief instructor.

Following the commencement exercises of the School of Nursing on May 14, 1925, the guests were invited to inspect the first section of the new residence for the nurses which affords accommodations for one hundred and twenty nurses. The first section of the new residence was completed by Alumni Day, held May 29, 1925. The entire hospital and annex were opened to visitors. Friday morning the visitors were bused throughout the building the entire day. During the afternoon the Jefferson Nurses Alumni Association entertained visitors by serving tea on the roof garden of the Thompson Annex on the first floor.

Eleven months later, in June, 1926, the dedicatory exercises were held amid a large gathering of interested people.

The building, formerly the gymnasium on Spruce Street between Tenth and Eleventh Streets, was opened in October 1924, and was ready for occupancy May 15, 1925. The building has a capacity to accommodate all and running water in each room and with a large close. It was well equipped with comfortable beds, chairs, tables, dressers, reading lamps, etc., and every convenience to make the student comfortable. While this new section was under course of erection, houses at 1014 Spruce Street and 226 South Seventh Street were returned to the United States, and immediately east of Tenth Street, was proposed to use part of this building located for occupancy on September 15, 1926.

Finding that additional space was needed to house the student nurses, two additional floors, the seventh and the eighth, were added to the first wing of the recently constructed nurses’ residence. This capacity was increased by the addition of the building by thirty rooms, making a total of one hundred and twenty single rooms. This work, started in July 1926, was completed in May 1927.

The first section of the new residence was completed by Alumni Day, held May 29, 1925. The entire hospital and annex were opened to visitors. Friday morning the visitiors were bused throughout the building the entire day. During the afternoon the Jefferson Nurses Alumni Association entertained visitors by serving tea on the roof garden of the Thompson Annex.

Many of the older graduate nurses were present and assisted in receiving the guests. The occasion afforded an opportunity for many graduates to meet, after years of separation from their College and Hospital days and enjoy reminiscences of by-gone times. Everyone entered into the spirit of the day to make a “welcome home coming” which was an outstanding success, marking admirably the hundredth anniversary of Jefferson Hospital.

A smallpox scare raged in Philadelphia in the Spring of 1925. Miss Elizabeth Steward was nurse-in-charge of the Accident Ward, when many patients applied for vaccination that the space would not accommodate them and a temporary dispensary at 1029 Walnut Street was used. In about twenty days over forty thousand persons had been vaccinated.

The Bronchoscopy Department on the fourth floor of the School of Nursing was opened in June, 1924. Dr. J. Chevalier Jackson, Bronchoscopist, was opened to receive patients in September 1926. Miss Angela Pippinias, a Jef­ferson graduate, was appointed nurse-in-charge of the department.

In September 1928, an affiliation between the Pennsylvania Hospital for Nervous and Mental Diseases and the Jefferson Medical College Hospital School of Nursing for the training of nurses in psychiatry; the J.M.C. Hospital for a period of eleven months for practical work; three months of surgical, three months medicine, two months general surgery and one month obstetrics and one month gynecology. Three students were admitted to the course and a graduate nurse was appointed in charge of the general unit, with the private building and the ward of the male student nurses.

In September 1929, Miss Estelle Kunen was appointed a teacher in the Principles and Practice of Nursing and an assistant instructor.

After the years devoted and enthusiastic service, Miss Sana J. Martin, chief nurse, severed her connections with the Maternity Department in November 1930.

Early in the history of the School of Nursing, in order to further promote interest, awards had been made to nurses for excellence in their work. Because much dissatisfaction arose over these awards, the award of prizes was discontinued.

In May 1931, Mrs. Joseph Walker Wear in memory of her father, the late Hon. William Potter, a former President of the Board of Trustees of Jefferson Medical College for more than thirty-five years, established an award consisting of twenty-five dollars and a specially designed gold medal, bearing the head of Thomas Jefferson, to the member of the graduating class attending the school who should possess the highest qualifications. This award is presented each year and is known as the William Potter Memorial Prize.

The School of Nursing was equipped to provide care for all dis­ambulatory patients, the out-patient department having enough space allotted to it in the General Hospital building. This building three floors have been set aside to be used as classrooms for student nurses of the training school. In September, 1930 the School Building was occupied. On the twenty floor is the assembly room, having a seating capacity of one hundred and seventy-five, a motion picture projector, and all the usual equipment for gatherings. The lower floors are equipped with office, board and cabinets. The lighting arrangement is excellent, the day-light is seldom so dull as to require artificial lighting. Seats are arranged for all who might desire to attend meetings. The floor is very clean. An Anatomy and Physiology Laboratory is provided with excellent equipment in the way of models, charts, specimens, etc., in addition to the facilities already described.

On the eleventh floor is located the demonstration room containing beds, bedside tables, a desk, doll and infant, blackboards, screens for motion pictures, a model bathroom for practical work, a large and well equipped laboratory, containing all the various forms of treatment and also the linen necessary for the demonstrations. There is a closet containing a supply of rubber gloves and other surgical supplies to teach the stu­dent the necessary care required in the preservation of such supplies. Folding doors between classrooms and demonstra­tion rooms can be closed to provide a classroom only, or opened into one large demonstration room for instruction in the Principles and Practice of Nursing.

A splendid library is provided for study purposes. The library, used by the student nurses, blackboards, desks for instructor, sterilizers, in...
rubators are among the facilities found in the well-lighted laboratory.

Another classroom is located on the tenth floor and is used for the theoretical and practical teaching of Materna Medica to classes divided into sections. The equipment consists of a double blackboard, screen for motion pictures, and two large closets for the storage of drugs and supplies. Adjacent to this room is a skeletons laboratory equipped with combination desk and table with seat attached, a sink with hot and cold running water, two gas plates and a complete set of utensils for cooking meals for each of twenty students. A colony of four gas ovens serves the entire group. Other equipment consists of a blackboard, desk for instructor, colored nutrition charts, food models, specimens of foods, flavoring agents and other necessary household equipment.

The reference library and study room, with the instructor's office adjoining, is also located on the tenth floor. This office is equipped with desks, typewriters, filing cabinets, bulletin board, micrograph machine and all facilities required for a well-regulated office. The reference library and study room has been a boon to the students, in that there are found many books containing valuable information on the various subjects pertaining to nursing. Comfortable chairs and tables have been provided. A large magazine stand contains all the latest medical and professional magazines. Smaller cases are used to store magazines and periodicals to be kept in readiness to be bound and preserved for future use. A bulletin board contains class schedules and other important notices.

The needs of the student are amply provided for. There is a large closet with deep shelves where she can deposit her wraps and books during the hours she is attending classes. Lavatories on the tenth and eleventh floors and drinking fountains on the tenth, eleventh and twelfth floors are provided.

The classrooms are splendidly located and have good ventilation, sunshine and ample lighting facilities. Artificial lighting is required only on an exceptional day or in the very short winter season.

Through the interest of Dr. Ross V. Patterson, Dean of the School of Nursing, it was made possible for the School of Nursing to have experienced teaching faculty to a greater extent.

With the changes in the trend of nursing education, and the employment of an additional number of the graduate nurses as full or part-time instructors, a serious problem had to be met. In the Fall of 1931 the small remuneration allotted to each student per month was discontinued and this sum used to pay salaries to graduate nurses to supplement the student having charge of the wards; relieving the student of the responsibility of the ward and assuring her of the opportunity to attend classes. A twenty-eight dollar allowance was charged to the student to defray expenses of books, laboratory equipment, thermometers, breakage, etc. at this time. The amount whereby all books were furnished the student nurses and paid from the fund. This amount, however, did not meet the expenses and in September, 1931, the amount was raised from twenty-eight to fifty dollars.

In November, 1931, the Curtis Clinic was opened to receive patients three days before the graduating class of the Training School of the Jefferson Medical College Hospital was placed in charge of the nursing and housekeeping personnel, each clinic having a graduate nurse in charge.

The dedicatory exercises of the Curtis Clinic, the outpatient building, were held at 11 A.M. on Thursday, December 17, 1930. Mrs. William J. D'Worce, president, the portrait of Cyrus H. K. Curtis was presented to the hospital by Dr. P. Brodie Bland, Alba B. Johnson, President of the Board, and the portrait and Mr. Curtis. During the address expressing appreciation of the opportunity to contribute to such a worthy cause as the Curtis Clinic.

Through the kindness and generosity of a friend of Dr. Ross V. Patterson, Dean of the Jefferson Medical College Hospital, the Charlotte Curtis Oyler Fund was established. Other equipment with its furniture, was purchased in 1931 and presented to the hospital to be used as a residence for the staff nurses of the hospital. This residence has a large double reception room, beautifully furnished, a dining room, with a seating capacity of sixty, a spacious kitchen, and sleeping accommodations for about forty persons. Before possession of the property had been secured some of the furniture, especially in the reception room, was removed by the Charlotte Cushman Ladies Auxiliary, and its place is being replaced by that removed, by Mrs. John C. Martin. An entrance was made in the hallway between 1010 Spruce Street and 1012 Spruce Street, giving access to all buildings in the inside.

The Nurses' Commencement in 1932 brought an additional award of merit. The Jefferson Nurses' Alumnae Prize of twenty-five dollars was awarded to the nurse attaining the highest average during the entire three years' course in nursing. The Jefferson Nurses' Alumnae Association held a reunion of all the Jefferson graduates on April 21, 1933. A full program of educational and social events was scheduled to keep the alumni engaged in hospital buildings, Curtis Clinic, nurses' classrooms, which included special demonstrations in nursing procedures. In the morning were given classes by class k用餐s. A tea was served in the Nurses' Home, 1010 Spruce Street, in the afternoon where many of the alumnae assembled and reminisced. The reunion was concluded by a reception and dance, held in the assembly hall of the Jefferson Medical College.

The dedication exercises of the Curtis Clinic was opened to receive patients three days before the graduating class of the Training School of the Jefferson Medical College Hospital was placed in charge of the nursing and housekeeping personnel, each clinic having a graduate nurse in charge.
lege professors in the basic sciences would teach the incoming class. Although these professors were reluctant to teach high school graduates they agreed to help until a nurse instructor was employed. After teaching Anatomy, Physiology and Microbiology for a short-time, all of the School of Nursing representatives continued their teaching. They became strong supporters of the School of Nursing, participating in Faculty Meetings and in other activities. The faculty came to recognize Chemistry and Pharmacology. There was no objection, and two more College professors joined the Faculty. The professors joined the School to establish a more permanent staff for NLN accreditation.

The issue of NLN accreditation of the School was discussed in depth by the entire Faculty and it was unanimously agreed that an application for a review of the program would be submitted. All believed that the weaknesses of the program would negate approval and cited poor housing facilities, too few well prepared faculty members and the use of student service beyond the needs of the educational program.

Dr. Hamrick was acquainted with the educational evaluation and as such was refused accreditation. The Board of Trustees would not believe that Jefferson's School was not among the best in the Nation. He invited the Director to attend the next meeting of the Board. After discussing the educational program, its strengths and weaknesses with the Trustees, Miss Prevost and Dr. Hamrick decided to form a board of the student's living accommodations. Thudking up rights of stairs from the 1st to 4th floor of the residence on Spruce Street, the Trustees agreed to the building. The building was inadequate and unsatisfactory.

Permission was granted to submit a survey for a request of the School by the NLN. The first application for a review of the School of Nursing was submitted to the NLN in 1954. To relieve the crowding of students in the residence, some assigning 4-6 students in a room, the Quaker House at 15th and Cherry Streets was leased by Jefferson. This was to accommodate the preclinical student's activities would be provided for the transportation to and from the Hospital. This move allowed more space for the second and third year student and all 4th floor rooms were vacated. During this time plans were made for a new residence to be erected at 11th and Walnut Streets which was a large residence in the neighborhood. The name of the residence included Jefferson. The School of Nursing was opened in 1947. This was a popular recreation and was provided with a hobby room, taking in your name and fancy cards. The idea was to increase the number of students and the number of rooms. The Women's Board provided a Snack Bar with a refrigerator and stove. Nursing Education at Jefferson

"A Century of Excellence"

In March of 1990, Dr. Pamela Watson, Chairman of the Department of Nursing Education came to Jefferson with a meeting to plan for the one hundredth year of Nursing Education at Jefferson. Honorary Chairman for the Committee were Dr. Mary Anna McGinley, Asso- ciate Executive Director/Director of Nursing.

The responsibilities for chairing the committee was shared by the departmental Chair of Allied Health, and a nurse representative from the hospital. The total committee was comprised of sixteen members of which two were non-nurses. Five were from the Department of Allied Health, and a representative from the hospital.

Although the first meeting was expected to be exploratory, much was accomplished. The motto (slogan) was agreed upon: "A Century of Healthcare." The goal was to portray a distinguished image of Jefferson's Nursing. Each committee member was assigned a specific area and the goal was to complete an assignment of five pages each.

The Gala was to be held the Friday night before our lunch- hour which was to be the jewel in the crown. The gala committee brought together the entire group to brainstorm the event and everyone was asked to present their ideas in an organized manner.

As the guests left, each was given a poster, a fine book, a fine menu, and a fine program. The event was truly beautiful. There was a receiving line: Trina Price, Ada Abrams, at the entrance to the dining room were arches of flowers. At the entrance to the dining room were arches of flowers. The works of art were truly beautiful.

was jailed for some wrong doing. Today we have seen several of our children's mothers incarcerated. Children see enough violence in their lives. I wish television would have more comedy shows. Children need to laugh more. We've seen too many little ones in the health office with injuries they inflict upon each other. Twenty years ago when we registered children there was usually a mother and a father who were married. Today its common for our little ones to be registered with only a mother in the house — or a male in the home who is not the natural father. Schools are now not only permitted but are encouraged to teach the morals of family unity. They need to be better mothers, fathers, a child — make up a family.

Twenty years ago and many years before that, our ancestors came to America seeking a better life. They had large families, worked hard and often were very poor. Housing was often inadequate with not much furniture and maybe a woodstove for heat — or little or no heat at all. But families knew that with hard work (maybe two jobs) things would probably get better. The children knew not to ask Santa for toys because they just would not be there Christmas morning; but they shared what they did receive — a piece of fruit — a game or a puzzle — but they had the love of father and mother — the gift of a family life, which helped make up for their poverty.

Today society makes excuses for poverty. And I'm not talking about the working poor, I refer to the "deliberate" poor! Those who can work but won't. Many of our ancestors were poor but their children didn't break store windows running off with the goods. They were cold and poorly clothed but they didn't sell or use drugs. They were hungry but they didn't steal from others. They didn't want to give them an excuse to murder. What are we doing to our children? Why do we disrespect them with our lies???

We must be honest with them, we must tell them — that even if they are poor that:

- It's wrong to steal.
- It's wrong to sell or use drugs
- It's wrong to murder — no lifestyle gives us that excuse!
- It's wrong to make a baby without a married mother and father.
- It's wrong to use children and babies as the recept for a monthly check!

Twenty years ago I was a young wife and mother entering into an exciting new career — a job that was mine to develop and change. Today that same career is still challenging and still changing. But instead of the great hope I had for children, I find myself worrying about their future — and ultimately my own. When I saw the atrocities happening to the children in Rome,

Resumé of Minutes of Alumni Association Meetings

September 11, 1990 - 15 members present.
The minutes of the Annual Meeting in May were distributed, read and approved. The Treasurer’s report was distributed for reading and approved. Dot Cloud felt our funds were sufficient to carry us through the remainder of the year. Committee reports were given.

Satellite - The Harrisburg area group is functioning well with five meetings each year.

The College of Allied Health Sciences Alumni Coordinator, Moria Elfeath said they are establishing a Board of Directors and asked for representatives from our organization to serve on that Board. It was recommended that Dolores Heckenberger and Nancy Powell serve, since they have been active in that group. Both agreed to serve.

Correspondence was read to the group.

November 13, 1990 - 18 members present.
The minutes of the previous meeting were distributed, read and approved. The Treasurer’s report was distributed, read and approved. Additional names were added to the list to receive Christmas cards from the Alumni: Frances Grove, ’17, Mildred Snyder Francis, ’43 and Betty Metzger Shaw, ’43.

Committee reports were given.

Since our last meeting, birthday flowers and/or cards were sent to: Clara Brunner, ’23, Dorothy Dunmore Williams, ’32, Myrtle Stickler Lee, ’28, Claudiata Star Wiedlund, ’22, and Estelle Lewdrop Fleming, ’20.

Correspondence was read.

January 8, 1991 - 10 members present (snowstorm predicted).
The minutes from the previous meeting were distributed, read, and approved.

The Treasurer’s report was distributed, read and approved.

Committee reports were given.

Satellite - A new group in the Pittsburgh area met with five in attendance. Florence Roche and Carole Rosle have agreed to organize a group in the North East Philadelphia area.

Since our last meeting, birthday flowers and/or cards were sent to: Josephine Lucas, ’24.

The Centennial Committee asked if we would be willing to sponsor the “Rose Arch” at the gala on May 3, 1991. The motion passed unanimously. (The gala is being given to commemorate 100 years of nursing at Jefferson.)

Correspondence was read to the group.

March 12, 1991 - 13 members present.
The minutes of the previous meeting were distributed, read, and approved. The Treasurer’s report was distributed, read, and approved. The proposed budget for 1991 was distributed. Committee reports were given.

The Nominating Committee presented the following ballot:
First Vice President - Carole Rosle
Recording Secretary — Nancy Powell
Board of Directors — Janet Hindson (4 to be elected) Betty Pansol
Pauline Wall
Esther Kahn
Jeanette Plasterer

Satellite - Two groups are active at present. Since our last meeting birthday flowers and/or cards were sent to Mary R. Godfrey, ’09, (105 years old), Clara Gerber Hardy, ’27, Bonnie Browning, ’16, Katherine Aagaard, ’21, Martha E. Reiland, ’27, Blanche Metz Henderson, ’39, Pauline Wall, ’26 and Mildred Kroupa Okushii, ’25.

Correspondence was read to the group.

May 4, 1991 — ANNUAL MEETING — 83 members present.
The resumé of last years meetings (September, November, January, March and May) were read by the Recording Secretary and accepted by members present. Treasurer’s report—a copy of the report from May 1, 1990 to April 30, 1991 was passed out, read and accepted by all members present.

Committee reports were given.

Alumni Office Coordinators report — Since March birthday flowers have been sent to Ann Williams Candler, ’29, Lillian M. Mertz, ’29, Mary Staufler Malick, ’28, and Laura Carleton Short, ’28.

Execution results: First Vice President — Carole Rosle, Recording Secretary — Nancy Powell, Board of Directors (4 elected) — Janet Hindson, Paula Levine, Betty Pieser, and Jeanette Plasterer.

Permission was given to destroy the ballots.

New Business — A letter from Bloomburg College was read announcing a Memorial Fund established in the name of Eloise Huppensteil. Our Alumni Association will send a contribution, the amount will be decided at the June 11th board meeting.

Old Business — Joanne Andrews, a junior in Baccalaureate Nursing was granted a scholarship from the Nurses Decade Scholarship Fund. Mary Ann McGinley wrote a letter listing the research projects in the Nursing Department from the Decade Fund.

The Officers and Board of Directors were given permission to handle all business as necessary prior to the September meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Powell
Recording Secretary
Alumni Office News

As the saying goes "work goes on", this is so true for the Alumni Office. It is not unusual for us to be in the office more than Tuesday, especially from January through May, which is our busiest time.

Would you believe, over 14,000 pieces of mail goes out from this office each year?

BIRTHDAYS — flowers and/or cards were sent to 27 of our graduates this past year. One recipient was 105 in January and she wrote her own thank you note. If you know of any Jeff graduate 85 or over please send us the following: Name — first, maiden, married. Year of graduation, birthday

We will send you a copy as closing of the 1992 CAPS — is there approximately 50 caps remaining in the office, they are for sale at $0.00 each plus $1.00 handling and postage. Sorry, when this supply is gone a Jeff cap will no longer be available, unless you make your own.

MEMORABILIA POSTERS — JEFFERSON NURSING 1891 — 1991. We will have about 225 Jefferson Nursing Memorabilia (1891-1991) posters which will be for sale at the Annual Luncheon on Saturday, May 2nd, 1992. SORRY, MAIL ORDERS NOT ACCEPTED.

If you plan to stop in the office for a visit, please call first to be sure we are in.

Bulletin Committee

Many thanks to everyone who has contributed in any way to the 1991, "CENTENNIAL EDITION" of the Nurses' Alumni Bulletin. We hope they were of help. Honestly, we do edit the material carefully, but occasionally a misspelled word or punctuation mark escapes our alert eyes, maybe we try too hard, so please excuse all errors, believe me they are not intentional.

Now that the 1991 Bulletin is printed, we are looking for interesting news and articles for the 1992 edition. We are asking for your help, let us be the judge as to whether or not your news or articles are interesting.

Thanks again for all your help.

Peg Summers
Chairman, Bulletin Committee

Relief Fund

Jefferson Diploma Nurses, do you know we have a "Relief Fund Trust"? The purpose of this trust is to assist the graduates of the School of Nursing (Diploma Program) and the White Haven School of Nursing who are ill, disabled or in need of additional support or maintenance.

The preliminary application found in the back of the bulletin can be sent to the Alumni Association. A second application will be sent to the applicant by the committee. When completed and returned the committee will evaluate the request, and the applicant will be notified as soon as possible. All the information on the application is confidential.

This past year several of our graduates were granted assistance. Four are receiving monthly stipends and three received a one time gift.

The Relief Fund committee also sends monetary gifts at Christmas time to those graduates known to be home bound or in a nursing home. Birthday flowers are sent to our graduates who we know will be celebrating their 85th or over birthday.

Scholarship Committee Report

Clara Melville/Adele Lewis Scholarship Fund

Applications were reviewed and scholarships awarded to the following graduates of the School of Nursing:

Maureen (Brady) Fox — 1977
Jeanette (Capobosti) Clark — 1964
Susan Hoyt — 1965
Darlene (Ribanic) Rosendal — 1977
Patricia Pryor — 1977
Elizabeth (Holohan) Michael — 1976
Cheryl (Grimes) Allen — 1979
Rose (Yuhes) Dudas — 1957

Three applications for assistance were requested from rel­atives of graduates.

Two applications were completed and scholarships were granted to the daughter of a 1947 graduate, and the niece of a 1974 graduate.

We have been pleased to receive an increased number of applications for scholarships and hope that the trend will continue.

Doris E. Bowman
Chairman, Scholarship Committee

By-Laws Committee

By-Laws amendments to be made are:
1. Delete office of Second Vice President
2. Elect the President for a four (4) year term not to exceed two terms except where extenuating circumstances exist.
3. ARTICLE I Membership
   Section 1. (b) Life Members shall be those who have been members of the Alumni Association who have paid dues for forty (40) years. The word "consecutive" is deleted.

The above amendments were approved by the members at the Annual Meeting May 4, 1991.

The By-Laws Committee will periodically review, and recommend changes and amendments for the continuation of a viable association to the Board of Directors. The suggested changes when approved will be made by amendment.

Social Committee

On a beautiful May day, to be specific, May 4, 1991 the 58th annual alumni luncheon was held. On this day we celebrated 100 years of Nursing Education at Jefferson.

The annual meeting was held in the Sollis-Cohen auditorium at 10 A.M., with a cocktail hour following the meeting, in the Eakin lounge and the West courtyard.

There were 425 luncheon reservations, representing 27 states, including Hong Kong and England.

Three mother and daughter members were present: Ann Woodring Crockett, class of 1935 and her daughter Bonnie Jo Crockett, class of 1966; Elmor E. Brosious, class of 1936 and her daughter Joann R. Brosious, class of 1963; Frances Huson Rumberger, class of 1941 and her daughter Suzanne Rumberger Holden, class of 1962.

There were 2 members from the class of 1925. They were celebrating their 60th anniversary. Mildred Kroupa Okunishi and Marion Shirley Carey. Each of these graduates present.

The class of 1941 celebrated their 50th anniversary with 20 graduates present.

Betsy Paslcy and Peg Summers were each presented with a plaque expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation for the excellent job they are doing for the association.

Six students from the Baccalaureate Nursing program assisted us with the registration and remained to enjoy the luncheon. We do appreciate their help.

The memorabilia, which was on display, commemorating the Centennial of Nursing Education at Jefferson was enjoyed by all.

I wish to thank everyone who helped to make this Alumni Day special. Our next annual meeting and luncheon will be held on Saturday, May 2nd, 1992.

COME, RENEW THE JEFF CONNECTION!

We need greater participation from our graduates who would be willing to run for office.

A slate consisting of more names, would provide a better choice when you vote. GIVE IT YOUR SERIOUS CONSIDERATION.

My Dear Son:

Just a few lines to let you know I am still alive. I am writing this very slowly because I know you can’t read fast.

You simply won’t know the house when you come home— we’ve moved. It was a lot of trouble moving. The most difficult thing was the bed. The man couldn’t get it in the truck. It wouldn’t have been so bad if your father had not been sleeping it in at the time.

About your father. He has a new job with three hundred men under him. He cuts the grass in the cemetery.

Your sister got engaged. She gave her a beautiful ring with three diamonds missing.

Our neighbors— the Browns— have started to keep pigs.

We got full wind of it this morning.

Finally, I got my appendix out and a new washer put in.

The washing machine in this new place wasn’t working too good. Last week I put four shirts into the pulley, pulled the chain and they just disappeared.

Your sister, Mary, had a baby this morning. As yet I haven’t heard if it is a boy or a girl.

Uncle Dick has died. He drowned in a vat of whiskey in a Polish brewery. Four of his work mates dived in to rescue him but they forgot him off. We cremated him and it took three whole days to put out the fire.

Kate is now working in a factory. She has been working in the same shift since it started.

Your father has not had much to drink lately. At Christmas I put a bottle of cistus oil in his mug of beer and it has kept him going till New Year.

I went to the doctor on Thursday. Your father came with me. The doctor put a small glass tube in my mouth and told me to keep it there for ten minutes. Your father offered him a hundred dollars for it. Ridiculous! It ran only twice last week. First for three days and then for four.

Yesterday we had a letter from the undertaker. He claims the last installment is not paid immediately on your grandfather’s grave—he up to him.

Your loving Mother

P.S. I was going to enclose $10.00 but I had already sealed the envelope.

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT 1991

The Finance Committee wishes to thank each one of you for your generous giving, continued support and loyalty to our Alumni Association. All contributions received after the Bulletin goes to the printers will be gratefully accepted and acknowledged. However, your names will not be listed in the Bulletin as a contributor.

Myra (Clay) Snyder Dunkle, PO Box 501, Crescent City, FL 32112-0001. Times go by so fast. In September and October 1990 I had the pleasure of traveling in Turkey for three weeks. Then I went on a tour of the Panama Canal. Both places will I remember for a long time.

Lydia K. Yerkes, 300 Willow Valley Lake Drive, Apt. E-127, Willow Street, PA 17584. I am still living at the Laken. In February I returned from a trip to Spain and Portugal. I had a great time, and I am looking forward to many places of interest in Italy this summer.

Thelma Marks Saylor (Blair), 243 Calle de Madrid, Tucson, AZ 85711. Blair and I celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary in May. We are doing fine, so please keep the Brownian and I do volunteer work with church and the Holocaust.

Class of 1937
Dorothy Zukowski Johnson, 121 Union Street, Mt. Holly, NJ 08060. To spell the words of Titus—God bless us everyone!

Gertrude N. Nicholas Sessions, 12021 Longene Lane, San Antonio, TX 78238-4543. Nothing new.—Just hanging in there.

Caroline Hill Masulli, HCl, 13313 Ceder, Kirkly, FL 32562. Life here on the island is quiet and relaxing. Fishing and boating are the main attractions. After all these years it seems like yesterday when my mother was my grandmother. My son and daughter-in-law are expecting twins late this summer.

Alice Irene Leatherman Fairner (James) Lyn. 333 N. Oak Avenue, Clifton Heights, PA 19018. After my tumble a year ago I am obliged to use a cane, walking is this is new for me, I find it so helpful.

Jean Hein Arnold, 43 N. Sunset Drive, Camarillo, CA 93010. As I go along life is good and health is all right. I just hung in there during the hango in stage? 2. Have you succeeded in doing one day at a time?

Glady M. Welly Rember (Henry), 1500 Windom Drive, Clearwater, FL 33766. We sold our home in August 1990 and moved into a retirement home in February after back surgery. The new address is above.

Margaret C. (Brenda) Jones, 7th Avenue South, Clearwater, FL 33755. My brother Dr. Franky, who interned at Jefferson 29 to 31, died December 5, 1990. I'm still able to get out and around every day.

Vika F. Most, Washington Estates S-26, 1364 Fort Washington Avenue, Fort Washington, PA 19034. I have moved into a lively Lifecare Retirement Complex and it is wonderful.

Class of 1938
Mary K. Roddour Copeland, 8073 Sheridan Pike, Williamston, PA 17701. I was very pleased to receive my Life Membership card from the Alumni Association, hoping you very much. My best wishes to all my classmates and friends.

Lida Pardee Goodell, Route 1, Box 190, Pradams Point Road, Ches- ter, VA 23836. I wish I had my painting (George), 4626 Pennsylvania Avenue, Fort Washington, PA 19034. When you get a chance to look over the paper, I would be interested to hear from you.

Myra Z soberlund, 1501 S. E. Ford Road, Lawton, OK 73501. I am still hanging on here in Oklahoma. My best wishes to all. God Bless!

Willis Benno (Lucy) Jones, 6300 S W 17th, Oclea, CA 92123. I am still here and I am happy. I am very busy in my hometown, and welive at our Florida home.

Sara Kelly Little (Lester), 1629 Monroe Street, York, PA 17404. This has been a wonderful year. I am happy at being part of so many places of interest.

Margaret Briggs Bates (Water), 4980 State Road, Dresel Hill, PA 19369. I always enjoy news of Jefferson. This summer we had a wonderful trip to the Lake George, NY and Florida. Our son from California and our daughter from Ohio and their families.

Class of 1939
Grace E. Breeze Petersen, (Roger), PO Box 358, Whistler Flower, NJ 07725-0358. I hope you are doing well and that all your family is well. I would like to see more of you. Take care of yourself.

DipuMYUM, 1212 Park Drive Moon, Philadelphia, PA 19144. I still have my house at the shore, but I also spend some time in Alaska with my daughter as well as 2 months in March. I enjoy working at Jefferson's Thrift Shop.

Felicia Kathy Gunstler, Box 288, Plumsteadville, PA 18978-0298. I hope Jefferson has a good anniversary. Hello to everyone.

Class of 1940

Jollie Wren Moore, 4085 Mitchell Road, Kingsport, TN 37660. I am happy to be active. I live in Clearwater, FL and have my granddaughter, a junior in college and a grandson in high school. We are pretty well tied down.

Sara L. Wofford, 814 Lancaster Avenue, Apt. 4, Bryn Mawr, PA 19010. There is really nothing new with me. I am still enjoying retirement.

Eliza Erskine Meyer (Frederick), 570 Panoramic Highway, Mill Valley, CA 94941. I continue to live and to enjoy doing crafts.

Evelyn L. Wilburn (George), 50000 South Beach Road, Fort Walton, FL 32548. It is wonderful to be able to see all of my classmates.

Elenor Edzard Meyer (Frederick), 570 Panoramic Highway, Mill Valley, CA 94941. I continue to live in the Bay area of California. At present I'm involved in the production and direction of amateur dramatic presentations, as well as surgical presentations.

Ruth Ritter Halbrooke, 398 Penn Avenue, West Reading, PA 19611. I am keeping busy. I feel good and I am happy to be able to enjoy going to luncheon with all my classmates.

Margaret Kosty Sobiesk, 1404 James Road, Freeland, PA 19224. I spent 3 months in Corpus Christi visiting my son, I take trips to Florida, Connecticut, and Vermont — with my son Peter Joe, with whom I am making my home. On May 2nd I became a great grandmother.

Alice Fred More Moore (Jim), 816 Bushnell Street, Caldwell, ID 83605. My husband and I will be in Alaska for 2 months this summer. Summers in Florida are wonderful with temperatures in the 60's and 80's. And keep your address up to date.

Sara L. Wofford, 814 Lancaster Avenue, Apt. 4, Bryn Mawr, PA 19010. There is really nothing new with me. I am still enjoying retirement.

Josephine V. Bastian, 377 White Horse Pike, West Chester, PA 19073. I am still enjoying my time at school and doing crafts. I have three children and eight grandchildren in the New York area.

Class of 1975

Cathy Greve Dowdy (Deekey), 128 Lambert Street, Alto, NJ 08804. I am still working part time and plan to have a career in education. Our Lady of Loreto School of Nursing. I would like to see former classmates, so let's all meet at the luncheon the first Saturday in May at 9:30, BE THERE!

Patricia Dick Wash (Debin), 562 Grant Avenue, Collingswood, NJ 08108. We have three children; Korynn, Katrina, and Julianne, and 2. I work part time in a pediatric office. Barbara's practice is thriving. Harold is 13, Mark is 10 and Elizabeth is 7. I would love to hear from anyone who ever knew me.

June Matthews DeMoya (Jose), 685 Hilsclace Drive, Mayville, NY 14106. Life seems to go on so I believe we will all be starting kindergarten in the fall. Where does the time go? I am finally learning Spanish so I can converse somewhat with all of my Spanish family. Plans are for me to be teaching nursery school classes, of course, at Jefferson, just a hobby, which keeps things less stressful. New York State required 100 nursing hours class was three years ago and Tom was working in the ICU for a short war and a just peace.

Barbara Raymond Fish (Robert), 5131 NW 82nd Terrace, Coral Springs, FL 33065. I am currently working at Jefferson University Hospital. We have two daughters, 13 and 12. The little one is in school and the eldest son Jeff is 13 - a teenager. The little one, Justin is 6 and in 1st grade. This Spring I hope to receive the Carolyn B. Brown award at Jefferson University. I am also working part time on a med/surg unit at Holy Redeemer Hospital. My eldest son graduated in May and passed the board exams last month. Our youngest son, Rob, is working part time in home health.

Ruth (Robert), 525 Wain Road, Glenside, PA 19038. We have three children, Kathryn 6, Julianne 5, and a new addition, Justin who is 1. He was an automobile accident breaking his neck and back. He is a fighter and is on the road to recovery. He is working part time as a physical therapist and working on his degree. We both work at Osteopathic Medical Hospital on the night shift, also I am working part time in home health. I am another educated nurse.

Leslie Ann Wilkinson (Robert), 2518a Wolfe Road, Tortola Bay Lane, Las Vegas, NV 89128. Hello to all! I haven't been able to text these past months so here's a quick update. In September, Andrew joined Lissa 4, and Robbie 2. We haven't had time to breathe these past years. Between raising the kids and doing our own thing, my husband and best friend Bill. I wish you all a pleasant year.

Alice Leisch Guarte (Carl), 105 Oak Glen Drive, Malvern, PA 19355. We are all doing great! April 17th our son arrived, a girl, Karen Allison. Chris's six in June and Eric is two. Best wishes to everyone at Jefferson. Hello to my fellow classmates.

Linda L. Snowden Vanatta (Robert), 300 Willow West-Cliff Pk., Chadds Ford, PA 19317. Hi classmates! We have been blessed with a second child — our son, Matthew born April 11, 2010. C. J. is now 3 1/2 years! Between taking the "boys" and hoping to run our business, our days are full. I hope to attend the 92 luncheon. Hope to see you there.

Carol Miller Muller (Carl), 1024 Martha Blvd., Alto, NJ 08004. I am still working full time in labor and delivery at West Jersey Hospital — Voorhees, New Jersey 08240. We're very busy, we had 460 deliveries last year! Carl is busy with his construction business. Erica is 7 years old, enjoying school and swimming. We will be camping in Oregon and Wyoming this summer.

Teresa Frances Snel (John), 7005 Tortola Bay Lane, Las Vegas, NV 89128. Hello to all John and I were married in March 1968. After John completed residency in anesthesia at the University of Michigan, we moved to Las Vegas to fulfill a 3 year scholarship program from the Air Force. John is still at Nellis Air Force Base. Unfortunately, he did desert in Desert Storm for 4 months, but returned in April safe and sound. I am now a full time student at UNLV and will be enrolling in the Master's program this Fall. We are expecting our first child in February 2001.

Terry Keating Sandman (Bill), 1440 Back Rock Road, Swarthmore, PA 19010. I am currently working critical care every other weekend and private duty nursing on weekends. Our two daughters are all doing well. I hope to have one more child before '02 (tuck, tick, tick). I plan to return to BSN in January. Rolf is almost 12.

Rhonda Mote Pierce (Jeff), 321 Virginia Avenue, Phoeniex, AZ 85040. Hello to everyone! We are all well. Jeff is still a trainer with Marriott but is working less hours. Our daughter Kelly (4) and Lindsay (2) keep us busy. I hope to make it to the reunion.

Barbara Meguire Deen (Kreg), 1438 Rosedale Avenue, Coraopolis, PA 15105-3050. We live in Pittsburgh this year. I am working part time and going to school at Duquesne. Our son, Colin, will be 2 in September. We are all doing well. I hope you ever have a lawyer at Pittsburgh airport, give me a call (412/264- 2333) because I'm only 5 minutes from the airport. Pat Ward, Janet Haldie, Cool us.

Ernest Weatherly, O-515 Inernats Aps. Western, NV 89003. I am working full time at Presbyterian Hospital on the night shift, also working toward my BSN at UNLV. My children are doing poorly in school, really sadally miss my good friend Joseph Cimmarone "Who'd last died yesterday."

He was an excellent nurse and truly cared about his patients.
looking forward to buying a 4 bedroom house, is anyone interested in our condo?

Sandra Lee Wilson, 525 Sibley Creek Road, Fells Point City, MD 21224. I've been living in Utah since August 1980, and really like it in the west. I'll be back in school in the fall at the University of Utah's MSN program. Best wishes to all.

Karen DeSantis Rafa (Dominic), 1924 Bayonne Road, East Hanover, NJ 07936. Good to hear from you all. Keep in touch.

Deborah S. Dyer (Chad), 200 Independence Drive, Cochranville, PA 19330. I would love to hear from you all.

Theresa M. McGlynn (Charles P.), 5461 16th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19130. This was great seeing people at the reunion luncheon. It was a wonderful day. It's great to see old friends.

Tamra Lucas Goldsmith (Joe), 1352 Demond Road, Drexel Hill, PA 19090. Not a whole lot new to report except that my dad passed away July 4, 1990. I miss him. We live here in Drexel Hill. I continue to work 1-2 days a week at Delaware County Memorial Hospital. Joe's practice is coming along. Laura now lives in Pa. and is graduating in 1992.

Barbara Engel Kahler-Kelly (Charles), 2923 Bridgeport Road, Laurel Springs, NJ 08021-4083. I am currently employed as a certified nurse anesthetist with West Jersey Anesthesia Association.

Marsha K. McAdoo (Charles), 1296 South Main Street, Bible Hill, Brunswick, NJ 08012. Curt and I are expecting our first baby this July and can't wait for the new arrival. I am still working at Jeff on 5 West.

Karen O'Brien Shindle (John), 16 E. Wayne Terrace, Collingswood, NJ 08010. I am presently working part time on 9 West/North West at TJUH. We have three children who keep us very busy. John 5 years old, David 3 years old and Erin 20 weeks.

Susan E. Albrecht Curcio (Charles B.), 923 Crestwood Drive, Drexel Hill, PA 19090. The Curcio's are happy and healthy. Kyle (6) and Jamie (4) are becoming active 14 month olds.

Leila E. Lepsan (Charles B.), 861 Westminster Avenue, Lancaster, PA 17601. Hello class of '80! All 10 years older! Are anybody and all of you well? It's been a great deal of fun precepting new grads. We've also been in Kenya for the past 6 months. I was glad to see you at our tenth reunion marking our class of '81.

Ernie continues to do well, he is currently cardiac pain free. We visited our Trip to South America. It was great fun walking into the "Barco de Commercio" in Montevideo and seeing great, great grandfather of the founder of the bank, the hanging, on the wall. (Of course, in the form of a portrait). Hope everyone is well.

Syvia M. Speth-Brayton (Charles B.), 316 Blanchard Road, Drexel Hill, PA 19090. It was great seeing people at the reunion luncheon. I am working 14 months a year as a rehabilitation CNS doing work with traumatic brain injury survivors. It's very different and very satisfying in the corporate world. Chuck is at Methodist in Medical Records and loving every minute.

Agnieszka Maria Siwakowski (Robert), 79 High Street, Sharon Hill, PA 19079. Our baby girl, Diane was born March 29th, 1991. Lauren is going to be three.

Karen A. Kowalski (Bill), 205 Fairbanks road, Folsom, PA 19033. My sister Diane was born March 29th, 1991. Lauren is going to be three. We have three children who keep us very busy. John, who is now 1 year old, Beth, who is also newly married and Luke, who is also enjoying married life very well. We sometimes miss the North, but really enjoy the temperate weather in the South. I pray to our ten in '92.

Priscilla Politoski Martin (Bill), 550 Brookland Avenue, Chicago, IL 60615. We are the proud parents of Eric 21 and Tommy 6 months.

Alianna Mihalanas (James P.), 3300 Rodin Avenue, Arlington, VA 18103. I currently work part time at the Arlington Hospital's labor and delivery unit which keeps me very busy. Josh and I are really enjoying our 2 year old daughter, Beth, who also likes to keep us busy.

Maura K. Bilgass (Rob), 3208 Carow Hill, Franklinville, NJ 08322. The Curcio's are happy and healthy. Kyle (6) and Jamie Lynn (4) are becoming active 14 month olds.

Lisa Gordon Tucker (John), 5339 Lindsay Road, Atenton, PA 19603. I am currently working per diem at the Allentown Hospital's labor and delivery unit which keeps us very busy. Josh and I are really enjoying our 2 year old daughter, Beth, who also likes to keep us busy.

Mary E. Lepsan (Charles B.), 923 Crestwood Drive, Drexel Hill, PA 19090. All class of '80! 10 years older! Are anybody and all of you well? It's been a great deal of fun precepting new grads. We've also been in Kenya for the past 6 months. I was glad to see you at our tenth reunion marking our class of '81.

Einar L. R. Pilla (Charles), 134 Aspen Drive, Newark, DE 19711. Hello all. We have been in Delaware for the past 10 years. We have two sons, John (3) and Timmy (3).

Diane was born March 29th, 1991. Lauren is going to be three. We have three children who keep us very busy. The History of the Jefferson Cap

Jefferson graduated its first class of nurses in 1893. At that time the cap that was worn had a high crown and a wide brim with ruffle around the brim. It was made of a delicate material called "lawn", similar to material used to make handkerchiefs.
The cap resembled the Philadelphia General Cap, which at that time was made of a similar material.
In 1894, Susan Haarle, a graduate of Philadelphia General became Directress of Nurses at Jefferson. When she noticed the similarity between caps, Miss Haarle decided that Jefferson Nurses should have their own distinctive cap.
The crown was lowered, the ruffle was removed and the rim was narrowed, fastened and spread like wing tips, across the front of the cap. The material was changed to organza which gave the cap more body.
In 1932, the cap was worn with the brim starched and the wings made to stand out—that is the way we wear it today.
Initially, it was traditional to earn the cap by passing the six month probationary period. Now the cap is given to the student to wear as soon as she enters the school.
This was a great responsibility for the student, knowing that the Nurse's Cap originated historically from the veil worn by women who traditionally covered their heads in public, and the cap is a symbol of humility and service to mankind. A responsibility because the Jefferson Cap is recognized and respected the world over, being worn by more than 4500 graduates of the school; many of whom earned their cap and consider it an honor to wear it. (With the closing of the School of Nursing in June of 1982—the total number of graduates will be 5,078).
The student is entrusted with the cap and must wear it with dignity and respect for the tradition that is to be upheld.
(For the above article was presented at Capping Exercises for the Class of 1982, by Patricia Zarella '51, R.N., B.S.N., Instructor School of Nursing, September 1958 to July 1986).

RENEZVOUS
I cannot do my work today,
A butterfly is on the fence,
And though I try to concentrate,
I've given up the dull pretense.

Renezvous

How can I think of anything,
When skies are blue and clouds are white,
I
And crystal waters ripple so,
And little forest trails invite?

How can I've
With long-awaited spring this year.
Just waiting there for me to climb.
There is a sunny, windblown hill,
I
A little absent-minded, dear!

JUST A LITTLE BIT MIXED UP
Just a line to say I'm living.
That I'm not among the dead,
Tho' I'm getting more forgetful
And more mixed up in the head.
For sometimes I can't remember
When I stand at foot of stairs
I must go up for something,
Or I've just come down from there.
And before the frig, so often,
My poor mind is filled with doubt,
Have I just put food away,
or have I come to take some out.
And there's time when it is dark out,
With my nightcap on my head,
I
I don't know if I'm retiring,
Or just getting out of bed.
So, if it's time to write you,
I don't need of getting sore,
I may think I have written,
And don't want to be a bore.
So remember I do love you,
And wish that you were here,
But now it's nearly mail time,
I must say, "Goodbyes, Dear."
There I stand beside the mailbox,
With my face so very red.
Found! I didn't mail your letter,
I opened it instead!

Weather Lore

Whether it's cold or whether it's hot... We shall have weather, whether or not!

Evening red and morning gray speed the traveler on his way.
Evening gray and morning red bring down rain upon his head.

It rains as long as it takes rain to come.

Rain, rain go away... Come again another day.

When the dew is on the grass, rain will never come to pass.

When sea birds fly to land there truly is a storm at hand.

Year of snow... fruit will grow.

The chill is on, near and far, in all the months that have an "R":

Ice in November to walk a duck, the winter will be all rain and muck.

From twelve till two tells what the day will do.

Rain before seven will not be seen.

Rainbow at noon, rain will never come to pass.

The more rain, the more rest...

Evening grey and morning red tells what the day will do.

"R"...

Rain, rain go away... it means a shower is very near.

Rainbow in the east, sailors at peace.

Rainbow in the west, sailors in distress.

Rainbow at noon, shepherds take warning.

No weather is ill, if the wind is still.

The more rain, the more rest... fair weather's not always best.

A sunshiny shower won't last half an hour.

The sharper the blast, the sooner it's past.

News and weather... they travel together.

To talk of the weather is nothing folly; when it rains on the hill, it suns in the valley.

Yellow streaks in sunrise sky, wind and day-long rain is nigh.

The south wind brings wet weather; the north wind, wet and cold together; the west wind always brings us rain... the east wind blows it back again.

When the morning sun is red... ow and lamb go well to bed.

Onion skin is very thin, mild winter is coming in.

Onion skin is thick and tough, winter will be cold and rough.

Clear moon, frost soon.

The moon and the weather may change together, but change of the moon does not change the weather.

Pale moon doth rain, red moon doth blow, white moon doth neither rain nor snow.

When the stars begin to huddle the earth will soon begin to puddle.

According to old lore, rain is coming if:

1. Birds sit on telephone wires.
2. Cats sneeze.
3. Dogs refuse meat.
5. Bees stay in hives.
6. Pigeons fly slowly.
7. Tarantulas crawl in daytime.
8. Horses grin.

Whether it's cold or whether it's hot... We shall have weather, whether or not!
OUR YOUTH
How do I know my youth has been spent?
Because my getup and go, has got up and went!
But in spite of all that; I am able to grin.
When I think of where my getup has been;
Old age is golden, I have heard someone say.
And sometimes I wonder as I go to bed.
My ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup.
Ere sleep dims my eyes,
I say to myself;
Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf?
And I am happy to say as I close my door.
My friends are the same as in days of yore.
When I was young my slippers were red
I could kick my heels way over my head.
When I grew older my slippers were blue
But I could dance the whole night thru.
Now I am old, my slippers are black
I walk to the corner and puff my way back.
The reason I know my youth has been spent
My get up and go, has got up and went.
But I really don’t mind, when I think with a grin
Of the places my getup has been.
Since I have retired from life’s competition
I busy myself with complete repetition.
I get up each morning; dust off my wits
Pick up my paper and read the obits.
If my name is still missing, I’m sure I’m not dead
So I eat a good breakfast and go back to bed.

A POET’S PRAYER
Let me not lose the wonder of this earth
When I become enmeshed in daily toil.
Open my ears to Springtime’s joyous mirth,
My eyes behold the promise of the soil.
Let me remember quiet mountain heights,
Or dusk who folds her wings above the sea.
Awake to crystal dawn’s first refreshing lights,
These things made life so beautiful for me.
Give me the faith to see beyond all fears.
And wisdom for each trial that meets my day.
Teach me the words to halt my brother’s tears.
And find the courage in truth’s shining way.
Of all my prayers, Lord, grant me this one part.
The understanding of a loving heart.
