Who Helps Our Helpers?: Poster at Scott Library

Visit the 2nd floor gallery area of Scott Library this summer to view a 9-foot poster entitled Who Helps Our Helpers? Rediscovering Joy in Medicine by Addressing Secondary Trauma. Authored by SKMC faculty member, Donald Friedman, MD, the poster was presented at the International Conference on Physician Health held last September in Boston. It is based on the film Portraits of Professional Caregivers – Their Passion, Their Pain, a documentary on secondary trauma and burnout that was made here in Philadelphia by Vic Compher, who was also the co-creator of the poster.

To learn more, view a document highlighting additional resources on this important topic that Dr. Friedman created for the Boston Conference attendees. Download a copy of the poster from the Jefferson Digital Commons.

Stay tuned. The Humanities Department is trying to arrange a University-wide screening of the film with Vic Compher in attendance.
