Greetings Fellow Alumni,

This past year we have been very busy creating the “Clinical Nursing Practice and Patient Outcomes Endowed Fund” (C.N.P. and P.O.E.F.). This entailed a great deal of consultations and editing, making this a rewarding, learning experience. The “C.N.P. and P.O.E.F.” appears in its entirety on page 10.

A new position, President-Elect, was established by the Board of Directors, which will enable a candidate time to learn the structural and operational functions of the Association. This position will be voted on May 1, 2004 and the elected candidate will assume the Presidency in May 2008. The Constitution and By Laws will be amended, to reflect these changes. Copies of the changes will be mailed with the January 2004 Annual Giving Letter and voted on at the Annual Meeting May 1, 2004. Any of our graduates who would like to run for this office, please send your information to the office c/o Carole F. Rosle, Nominating Chair.

Transferred the General Fund Monies to the TJU Hospital Finance Department. This means all of our monies will be under our control in one Finance Department, instead of two (2) Finance Departments.

We receive many items for the TJU Archives. Michael Angelo, University Archivist & Special Collections Librarian, is appreciative for all memorabilia that they receive. A picture was made from the “Jeff” pins, that were in the office, with name plates (shown below). Anyone one who wishes to have their pin displayed in this manner, please send it to the office.

The Applications, TJU Map and Hotels are tear out pages, for your convenience. Many thanks for your continued support and correspondence.

Sincerely,

Sally Wagner
President

To accomplish great things, we must not only dream; but also believe.

Recording Secretary
A Partnership for Excellence

The Jefferson Diploma School of Nursing Nurses' Alumni Association's (the "Donors") hereby establish the Clinical Nursing Practice and Patient Outcomes Endowed Fund (the "Fund") at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital (the "Hospital").

The Plan

The Nurses' Alumni Association of the Jefferson Hospital Diploma School of Nursing in its desire to support leadership in nursing practice, quality patient care, and the mentoring relationship between the expert nurse and the novice nurse within the nursing service at the hospital, will establish a Clinical Nursing Practice and Patient Outcomes Endowed Fund. Such a Fund would provide resources and visibility to the importance with which nursing expertise and leadership at Jefferson Hospital contributes to its reputation for overall quality of patient care, development of professional nurses, and the caring environment that the hospital and its nursing services promote.

A Model for the Country

The Fund, a gift from the Jefferson Hospital Diploma School of Nursing Nurses' Alumni Association, would become one of the first of its kind in the United States. Although common among academic institutions and schools, a clinical nursing practice and patient outcome focused fund in a hospital-based patient services is unique and will bring attention to the achievements of Jefferson, its administration, nursing staff, alumni, and the many nursing education programs with which it is associated. It will underscore the importance of nursing to Jefferson as a whole and its central contribution to its mission as an institution.

Importance of the Fund to Jefferson Hospital

The Fund represents the highest and best expression of monies. It carries exceptional significance for Jefferson Hospital and its nursing service. It will bring Jefferson prestige and will make it possible for the Hospital to retain and attract future clinical leaders of high caliber in unending succession. The Fund will give the institution a strategic advantage to insure the highest quality of clinical patient care and nursing innovation for decades to come as the complexity of patient care increases and the number of Nurses decreases. Therefore, it will have an enduring impact on Jefferson and its future support of Clinical Nursing Practice, Patient Outcomes and Nursing Education.

Over time, the greatest value will be its influence on preserving Jefferson's stature and position among other hospitals and enhancing its distinguished reputation for excellence in nursing care.

1. Purposes

The Fund will support the importance that Jefferson Hospital and the alumni of its Diploma School of Nursing place on excellence in patient care, concern for a growing vulnerable patient population and ongoing development, recruitment and retention of competent professional nurses. The Fund's purposes are to provide monies in order to:

- Acknowledge the importance of the contribution of nursing practice at Jefferson Hospital to the service mission of the institution by highlighting the critical role played by expert nurses in framing the environment of care, in supporting a value system that celebrates the direct care of patients, and in articulating the future vision of nursing practice and patient care.
- Emphasize the role of the clinical expert as a collaborator in the ongoing improvement of nursing care and nursing education.
- Acknowledge the central role of the expert nurse in mentoring new nursing school graduates and nursing students as they strive to incorporate the tenets of practice excellence and the key nursing values of care and compassion. Also supporting the clinical preparation of nursing students and novice nurses who are vital to meeting current and future health care challenges.
- Support the recruitment of nursing personnel of the highest caliber to develop and implement cutting-edge clinical practice strategies.
- Foster future development of a model site for the implementation of state of the art technology and supporting the work of the nurse and rendering care to patients.
- Underscore the role of nursing and the expert nurse clinician in fostering research and collaboration that will shape the evolving system of health care.

Extensive publicity would be afforded the gift and acknowledgment of the Jefferson Hospital Diploma School of Nursing Alumni Association.

Conclusion
Today, the challenges have never been greater for institutions like Jefferson that are dedicated to strengthening the country's position as a leader in the delivery of patient care, likewise, the opportunities have never been greater.

An award of one million dollars ($1,000,000) to establish the Jefferson Hospital Diploma School of Nursing Nurses'Alumni Association Clinical Nursing Practice and Patient Outcomes Endowed Fund is an exciting opportunity that will build on the historical foundation of nursing at Jefferson, while promoting and encouraging future developments in nursing care at Jefferson Hospital. Although no one can adequately predict the future, one thing is certain, the rich tradition of Jefferson will not only survive but will prosper. Through changing times, Jefferson Hospital and its nursing service will continue to be a beacon of quality in patient care. This Fund will thus serve to acknowledge and give visibility to the importance of nursing leadership and expertise at Jefferson Hospital - past, present and future.

Nurses Relief Fund Trust

Due to the Stock Market fluctuation, this past year, we evaluated the Fund's use as a Retirement or Relief Fund at a special meeting on April 3, 2003. The value of the investments, up $2,600.00 and dropped to $1,800,000.00. At the April meeting of the Board of Directors, it was decided and voted upon to review each recipient receiving a monthly stipend. These monies are no longer being used for the purpose for which they were intended. The purpose being to use in an emergency and not as a long term relief fund. We cannot continue to spend our Fund for long periods of time on a few people. Our nurses are getting older and we do expect to be receiving more requests in the future. From 1992 until now we have given out $55,550.00, to one person; $55,100.00 to another; $55,400.00 to another. From April 2002 until now $36,300.00 to one person. Total $173,100.00. Starting the beginning of our new fiscal year, July 1, 2003 four of the people will be cut back to $250.00 a month. This amount will continue until the Board of Directors meeting in March 2004 and at that time it will be discontinued. Monthly checks will be issued for 3 years and then discontinued. If they have any emergencies after that time they may contact us again.

Social

Our Annual Spring Luncheon held on Saturday, May 3, 2003 was a huge success. The day began with our May Alumni meeting. It was followed by a lively cocktail hour providing opportunity to catch up on news and to renew old friendships. As we approached the dining area the festive ambiance was captured in the “Spring Theme”. Jeannette Plasterer planned and presented this beautiful scene for all to enjoy.

In attendance were one hundred and ninety alumni. Our graduates ranged in class year from 1930 to 1982. Minnie Underkoffer Humphery, class of 1930, was our most senior honored guest. Catherine “Casey” Paine, class of 1933, one of our most faithful luncheon attendees, celebrated her 70th anniversary. She was presented with roses in recognition of her loyalty over the last 70 years, having attended every luncheon held since her graduation. Seventeen States were represented.

Thanks to the combined effort and support of so many loyal alumni this enjoyable day can take place each year. Our thanks to all who participated in making the day a success, especially to our president Sally Wagner who consistently goes above and beyond to oversee all of our Alumni activities including our annual luncheon. Thanks also to Chuck Mullin, our banquet manager, who did a superb job.

Hope to see you all next year. Save the date, May 1, 2004…the first Saturday in May as always.

True Riches
If all the world were yours to win
And all the wealth and land therein-
If coffers heaped with golden store
Would line your walls and gilt your door
If men would loudly sing your praise
And children would bedeck your ways,
You still would be a beggar lot
If honor somehow was forgot.
If you had not but daily bread,
A humble cot, a path which led
To where your friends and loved ones wait
With eager smile and open gate-
If none but friends e're hear your name
But if self respect is your creed,
You are a millionaire indeed.

Hello! Had an idea and am sending it on to you. The enclosed picture tells a story of love. Dorothy, Betty and Jean went to visit Gloria Becker Kovack (all class 1946) where she has been living since she had a stroke which affected R side and speech. Her husband died several years before the stroke occurred. Gloria is in Outlook Pointe Nursing Home, Apt-231, Harrisburg, PA 17110. We visited her twice this fall. Vivian Robert Harron read my note in the recent Alumni Bulletin (Fall 2002) and called from Miami to say hello! How wonderful to keep in touch. Your Alumni Bulletin does a great service to us all. Perhaps you can use the enclosed photo in your next Bulletin? Betty and husband Clyde live in Sugarloaf, PA. Jean Noffs Collector's husband died this past year. She lives at 32 Clubhouse Lane, Marlboro, NJ 77466. And I and my husband still live at 25, Forgudale Rd., Fleetwood, PA 19522.

Catherine Kitty Smulling Gair, Class of 1934

Passed away Sept. 13, 2002 at her home in Wasilla, Alaska. She worked as a Community Health Nurse in Pennsylvania and Kentucky where she rode a mule to make her rounds. She attended the University of Pennsylvania graduating in 1943 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education. In 1963, she attended Boston University and received her Master's degree in child psychiatric nursing. Catherine came to Alaska in 1943 on a wartime permit to enter the territory. She worked at the Anchorage Health Center for three years. In 1946, the Territorial Department of Health started a new service, with a ship named SS Hygiene, the goal for which was to deliver health services to coastal villages of Alaska, with emphasis on detection of Tuberculosis. She was the public health nurse assigned to this and served five years on the Hygiene. It was there she met and married Angus Gair, who was the chief engineer. She later co-authored a book "Alaska's Search for a Killer," about their experiences on the ship. In 1957 she became the school nurse in the Juneau school system, where she had found her niche, as she loved to work with children. During this time she was also involved with organizing the Alaska Nurses' Association, serving in different capacities including the presidency from 1950 to 1960. Later she served on numerous boards and commissions, both private and governmental.

Sandra Payne Kenton, Class of 1968

She was awarded the Annie Ingles Gold Coin for her many years of volunteer service to Inglis House, a specially nursing care facility for adults with physical disabilities.

1929 Alumna Helps Honor National Nurses Week

In the spring of 2002, a Thomas Jefferson alumna from the class of 1929 helped mark National Nurses Week at her retirement home outside of Elmsford, New York. Muriel (Stevens) Canis graduated from Jefferson in 1929 and has always cherished her affiliation with the school. At age 93 and in good health, Muriel Canis worked with the staff at her retirement home, Bethany Village and other residents who were retired nurses, to make the week in May 2002 special. The project was a great delight to her, the staff and the many other residents.

The retired nurses pulled out old uniforms, caps, pictures and memorabilia and organized them in the lounge of the retirement home for a special display. About a dozen women who had had nursing careers participated in the special doings, which culminated with a party at the end of that week.

Muriel had a treasure trove of memorabilia from Jefferson and she contributed all of it to the display. It included her diploma and large, framed class photos as well as special dolls that was dressed in a replica of the 1929 Jefferson uniform. She also added Florence Nighingale's framed credo to the display. All of these items were not pulled from a closet—they had always been on her walls and shelves in plain view and she was fond of relating her nursing experience to one and all. The colorful handkerchiefs she carried in the pockets of her nursing uniform in those days had been turned into a special wall hanging many years before.

Muriel Canis was a dedicated nurse until the very end and cherished her ties with Jefferson. She passed away from a stroke in September 2002 not long after celebrating her 94th birthday.

Betty Moyer Greenwood, Class of 1945

If it had not been for my Nursing Career, this article probably would not have been written. Because of circumstances that happened I had to return to Nursing to support my three children. We had a wonderful life together, the three children and myself and being alone I could dedicate my time to them. I did eventually remarry and we've been married now 40 years. I give thanks to Jefferson for my wonderful education.

Determined mother educates hearing-impaired children

A mother's determination to bring two of her children out of the silent world of the profoundly deaf has lead them to eminent positions in the hearing world where they can help others. Betty Greenwood, of Punta Gorda, spent most of her life teaching her son and a daughter that with work and determination anything might be achieved. Judging by their careers, she has succeeded. "I wanted them to live as normal a life as possible," she said. "I wanted them mainstreamed into the rest of society so that they could take their place in the hearing world."

Her daughter, Marsha Vance Northrup, 53, who has a master's degree, is manager of the National Clearing House of Information on the Rehabilitation of Traditionally Underserved Persons who are Deaf at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb, Ill. She is the deaf service coordinator for the Illinois Department of Children and Families. Her brother, William Vance, 50, is an electronics technician at NASA's Langley Research Center. He served for three years as head of the center's Satellite Committee for People with Disabilities. He is NASA's representative to the National Training Conference on Employment of Government Employees who are deaf or hard of hearing. Betty Vance Greenwood was an Air Force wife living in Panama when her first child, Sharon, was born in 1948. Marsha came along two years later and it was apparent that she had a hearing problem. She needed a hearing aid by age 2 1/2. When William, 8 months, did not respond to the loud clang of a dropped diaper pail, Greenwood cried for a week. I had an awful feeling in the pit of my stomach and wondered what I had done to deserve this. I finally decided that God had challenged me to take care of these children and my negative attitude turned positive," she said.

Her life was complicated by her illness, financial pressures for special schooling, and the stress of military life and frequent moves. But she persevered and went to work at age 12. She became a registered nurse and was working at the Army Redistribution Center in Atlantic City where she met and married Wiltiam Vance.

Services for deaf children were not as readily available as they are today and Greenwood had to improvise. "Early intervention is the key to learning," she said. "I wanted to teach her using an auditory/oral approach instead of teaching her sign language." This method trains a child not only to understand speech but also to communicate by speaking, using what was once termed lip reading, now called speech reading, and visual cues for context. It is difficult and time-consuming for the parents who are an integral part of the training. It is difficult and time-consuming for the parents who are an integral part of the training. Marsha, who had some residual hearing with the help of her hearing aid, was enrolled in day care where she was taught to speak and take his place in a hearing community.

Marsha Nothrup received her undergraduate degree from Colorado State University and with the help of others, established a degree in electromechanical technology. Her master's degree is from the University of Illinois. She is the mother of two hearing daughters. After graduating from high school with honors, Marsha Nothrup entered the National Institute for the Deaf in Rochester, NY, graduating with a degree in electromechanical technology. He's married and the father of two hearing daughters.

For three hours each evening after a full day at the hospital, Greenwood and Sharon worked with her using a mirror or a feather to demonstrate certain sounds. "I think I almost drove her crazy," said Greenwood. When Marsha did not show progress at age 5, she was transferred to the same public school that Sharon attended. "Before she started I would go into the classroom and show the children her hearing aid and explain what it was," Greenwood said.

William was fitted with a hearing aid when he was a year old. "We worked with objects, colors, pictures and sounds and I played a record that had the sounds of trains and boats. Then he could see the picture, feel the object and hear the sound. I wanted Bill to speak and take his place in a hearing world," said Greenwood. He learned to sign on the playground, played football and basketball and continues to be active in sports such as ice skating, sailing, scuba diving and skiing.

William Vance graduated from the Model Secondary School for the Deaf at Gallaudet College in Washington, DC. He began working for NASA during summer vacations. He then attended the National Institute for the Deaf in Rochester, NY, graduating with a degree in electromechanical technology. He's married and the father of two hearing daughters.

Memories

We had a great reunion here in San Diego last Feb when Betty Golden Cooper came to town. Though it was only a brief visit over dinner with family and friends, it was wonderful to see each other again and I don't think the other dinner got a word in edgewise!

Yes, I've continued to write though there is so much more to complete I sometime doubt I shall ever finish, but I'll keep at it.

Excerpts from the chapter on "Wyoming." On January 15, 1951, I became the Public Health Nurse on the Wind River Indian Reservation, headquartered at Fort Washakie, Wyoming.

I had hardly arrived at Fort Washakie when one morning I received a call to pick up an Indian woman in labor in the hospital. Apparently she was on her way to the hospital but her family had car trouble there and could get out further. I hadn't even been off the reservation yet, much less know how to get to Hudson, but I was aware that I passed through there coming from the Riverton airport. My first real call as a Public Health Nurse among the Indians and no one will ever know how many butterflies I had in my stomach as I packed my nurse's bag and got into my car, and left the agency compound. I had asked directions before I left and was told I couldn't miss Hudson. After I passed Lander I was told, that was 15 miles away, the next place, about ten miles further down the highway, was Hudson. There'd I find a gas station and two or three bars and that was it. It was snowing and the road was slippery but I made it without incident and found the young girl and her mother. They got on the back seat of the car and except for a slight grunt every once in a while, I would never have known there was anyone in the car with me. Just as we crossed the cattle-guard to the hospital entrance, the Shoshone census increased by one! I parked the car, got the scissors and hemostats from my bag, cut the cord and carried the new arrival to the hospital. Hudson attendance came for the mother. This was Natural childbirth, pure and simple. After a brief period of observation at the hospital, I learned it was time to conduct the annual immunization program against Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever. I had heard of Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever as a student in my Tropical Disease class at Jiff, but after the class was over, promptly forgot about it. But I was now living in an area where ticks were a problem and where immunization programs against Tick Fever were extremely important. So it was that in the early spring of 1951 I immunized 772 individuals primarily in field clinics in the ten reservation schools. (Still before the days of disposable needles and syringes). In the process, not only did I have to study and learn about the vaccine, but I had to find my way around the reservation. That alone was no easy feat as directions were given in reference to the number of miles south, north, east or west, or in reference to a ranch house or a big tree or some other landmark, no "specific street" address as was the case back home. It also meant to reach my destination I had to leave the one paved highway that crossed the reservation, get out of the car and open the barbed wire gate to a ranch, get back in the car and drive through the gate, stop, get out and hook up the gate as it was originally locked and then proceed. The procedure of course, was repeated as I returned home. I was lucky if there was only one gate to open before reaching my destination and if I managed to escape with only a scratch or two. During the "Tick Shot Season because we were interested in getting as many individuals immunized against the disease as possible, I had clinics in areas most accessible to the people. Such was the case one cold, cold and snowy morning when my dog, Mon-Yough, and I set out for the farm extension office near Crowheart Butte, about fifty miles or so north of the Fort. After we left the highway, we drove down a snow covered gravel road, seeing nothing but sage and grasses, and a few bushes and trees and more of the same. We passed one house but saw no sign of life around.

All I Really Need to Know

All I really need to know I learned from Noah's Ark:

1. Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark
2. Stay fit. When you're 600 years old, someone might ask to do something really big.
3. Don't listen to critics—do what has to be done.
4. Build on high ground.
5. For safety's sake, travel in pairs.
6. Two heads are better than one.
7. Speed isn't always an advantage. The cheetahs were on board, but so were the snails.
8. If you can't fight or flee—float!
9. Take care of your animals as if they were the last ones on earth.
10. Remember that the woodpeckers inside are often a bigger threat than the storm outside.
11. When the manure gets really deep, don't sit there and complain—shovel!!!
12. Stay below deck during the storm.
13. Remember that the Ark was built by amateurs and the Titanic was built by professionals.
14. If you have to start over, have a friend by your side.
15. Remember that the Attitude is more important than facts, than the past, than education, than money, than circumstances, than failures, than successes, than what other people think or say or do. It is more important than appearance, gifted or skill. It will make or break a country... a company... a church... a home.

The remarkable thing is we have a choice everyday regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day. We cannot change our past..., we cannot change the fact that people will act a certain way. We cannot change the inevitable. The only thing we can do is play on the one string we have, and that is our ATTITUDE.

Life is 10% of how you make it and 90% of how you take it. And so it is with you...

We are in charge of our ATTITUDE.

Along Life's Pathways

Happiness is like a crystal, Fair and exquisite and clear, Broken in a million pieces, Scattered far and near.

Now and then along life's pathway, Lo, some shining fragments fall, But there are so many pieces, No one ever finds them all.

You may find a bit of beauty, Or an honest share of wealth, While another just beside you Gathers honor, love or health.

Vain to choose or grasp unduly, Broken is the perfect ball, And there are so many pieces, No one ever finds them all.

Yet, the wise as on the journey, Treasure every fragment clear; Fit them as they may together, Imagining the shattered sphere, Learning ever to be thankful, Though their share of it be small, For it has so many pieces, No one ever finds them all.

On Friendship

It's love that makes the world go round,
And love is based on friendship sound;
If everyone would be a friend to everyone
Until the end, then fear and strife would
Hide away and harmony would rule the day.

 Choose Proverb
The Friend Who Just Stands By

When trouble comes your soul to try,
You love the friend who just stands by,
Perhaps there is nothing he can do;
The thing is strictly up to you,
For there are troubles all your own,
And path the soul must tread alone;
Times when love can't smooth the road,
Nor friendship to life the heavy load.

But just to feel you have a friend,
Who will stand by until the end;
Whose sympathy all endures,
Whose warm handclasp is always yours.
It help to pull you through,
Although there's nothing he can do;
And so with fervent heart we cry,
"God bless the friend who just stands by".
