From the Editor

Abby Thorne

Welcome to the final issue of SciTech News for 2011! I can hardly believe my first year as Editor is coming to an end!

As we rapidly approach the end of the year, I encourage you to consider several opportunities within SLA for 2012.

If you are not yet involved with your division or section, please consider volunteering to serve in some capacity. Your contributions and service helps SLA provide the excellent professional development, services, and networking opportunities that help you and your colleagues grow and flourish professionally.

I also ask you to consider submitting an article to the peer-reviewed section of SciTech News in 2012. More information and a call for articles is available on page 4. We would really love to see this section of the journal full of content in 2012, but we can only do that with your help and your articles! We are ready to help you get published!

On a final note as the end of the year approaches, I would like to thank Carol Lucke for her years of work on behalf of SciTech News and the Sci-Tech Division. This is her last issue as Advertising Manager and we will greatly miss her contributions to our publication.

I hope everyone has a safe and happy holiday season and a prosperous New Year! ❖
