The Students are also required after attending public worship, to recite a portion of the Scriptures on Sabbath evening. The several classes are to perform occasional exercises in Reading, Composition, Declaiming, and the Senior Class to pronounce Orations of their own composition.

Appropriations have been made for enlarging the Library and Philosophical Apparatus. In addition to the usual course by Professor MILLER; Professor GREEN, of the Medical School, Philadelphia, delivers a Course of Lectures on Chemistry, with Experiments, during the Summer Session.

Attached to the College is an Athenæum, in which is taken a number of valuable publications, Religious, Literary and Political.

It is contemplated to establish a Gymnasium in the ensuing spring.
