Library Collections
A wide variety of key resources, including databases, research tools, study aids, and pointers to the Library’s collections are available on the Library’s website, JEFFLINE: http://jeffline.jefferson.edu

Electronic Books and Journals
More than 5,000 full-text electronic journals and 300 electronic books are accessible to Jefferson users on JEFFLINE. Your Campus Key provides you with remote access to these titles. Use the Journals database to find journals: http://jeffline.jefferson.edu/collections/journals

Books
The Library's collection of more than 82,000 books is located on the 4th floor in the Scott Building. The books are accessible for use by Jeffersonians 24 hours a day. Find books in the library's catalog on JEFFLINE: http://jeffline.jefferson.edu

Books may be checked out for three weeks and renewed for two 3-week intervals. Additional book resources include:

- Circulating Book Collection, located on the 4th floor of the Scott Building, is available for use by Jeffersonians 24 hours a day. Books may be checked out for three weeks and renewed for two 3-week intervals.
- Leisure Reading Collection, located on the 1st floor, includes current and popular books and magazines.
- Reserves Collection, located behind the Circulation Desk on the 2nd floor, includes print books and documents requested for course reserve. These items are available for a limited checkout of 2 hours.
- Reference and Clinical Reference Collections is located near the Reference Desk on the 2nd Floor.
- New Books Shelf, near the Reference Desk, holds the Library's most recent book acquisitions.

Print Journals
The Library maintains an extensive collection of research literature in bound journal volumes. The most recent print journals can be found on the 2nd floor; earlier journal volumes prior to 1995 are shelved on the 3rd floor. Journals are organized alphabetically by title. Bound journals may be checked out for one day. Use the Journals database to find journals: http://jeffline.jefferson.edu/collections/journals

University Archives and Special Collections
These non-circulating collections are located in Room 401.

- The University Archives acquires and preserves important TJU records and departmental publications, manuscripts and personal papers of TJU faculty and students, memorabilia, photographs, historical artifacts, and other historical material.
- The Special Collections include approximately 3,700 books recording the history of health sciences; some are quite rare and date back to the 15th century. Books authored by Jeffersonians are included here. For more information: http://jeffline.jefferson.edu/SML/archives

Jefferson Digital Commons
The Jefferson Digital Commons is a showcase for Jefferson books and journals, peer-reviewed scholarly publications, unique historical collections from the University Archives, and teaching tools: http://jdc.jefferson.edu

AISR staff and the Jefferson Digital Commons support faculty publishing and teaching with:

- Copyright and fair use advice
- Self-archiving of journal articles
- Hosting original publications
- Personal researcher pages
- NIH deposit support

Library Services and Policies

Library Staff
One of our most-prized resources is our staff. Visit the Reference Desk and the Circulation Desk on the 2nd floor for research and library assistance. Visit the Learning Resources Center on the 3rd floor for educational support materials and software, or attend one of our Library workshops to improve your research skills.

Information Services
The Reference staff offer Jefferson faculty, staff, and students free personalized expert assistance in finding information and in using library resources:
• Friendly, timely reference answers
• Individual orientations and training
• Consulting for in-depth research needs
• Identifying grand funding opportunities
• Help using RefWorks bibliographic software
• Connecting to JEFFLINE resources

Our expert searchers also perform database searches for a modest fee. In addition to getting help at the 2nd floor Reference Desk, reference staff library workshops to improve your research skills.
