Providing Medical Care to Native Americans: Working and Living on the Reservation

Drs. Howard Rabinowitz and Fred Markham, Department of Family & Community Medicine, will share their experiences working on 2 American Indian Reservations in the 1970s. Dr. Rabinowitz spent 2 years on the Pima Indian Reservation in southern Arizona; Dr. Markham spent a month during his residency on the Wind River Reservation in Lame Deer, Montana.

Opportunities for students and health professionals to spend time on a Native American Reservation during or post training will also be discussed.

Monday, November 26
12:00 pm
Room 207, Jefferson Alumni Hall
Please bring your lunch; a specialty dessert will be served.

For more information please contact the Activities Office
Jefferson Alumni Hall, Room B67
(215) 503-7743