Black Heritage Month Lecture Series

The History and Service of Black Soldiers: Civil War Re-enactors of the 3rd Regiment Infantry

The participation in African American soldiers in the American Civil War 1861–1865 will be presented during this interactive session. Presenters will appear in 19th century Civil War uniforms with authentic reproduction equipment. The presentation uses an array of techniques to tell their story: lecture, activity, demonstration, music and poetry.

The goal of this program is to inform the Jefferson Community of the history and service of African American soldiers in the Civil War, and instill a feeling of pride and awareness of the contributions that African American have made in the history of the United States.

All members of the Jefferson Community are welcome to attend. Light refreshments will be served.
