JEFFERSON MEDICAL COLLEGE

Class Day

to honor the Class of 1964

McCLELLAN HALL

June 11, 1964

2 p.m.
I will hold in confidence all that my duty* confides to me.

I will maintain the honor and hope for reputation in the medical profession.

My confidence will be as my property.

I will not bear communication of facts, religious, national or political, or any other secrets of patients.

I will maintain the utmost respect for human life from the conception.

Even under stress I will not use my knowledge contrary to the laws of humanity.

These principles I make freely and openly my honor.
Oath of Hippocrates

Now being admitted to the profession of Medicine, I solemnly pledge to consecrate my life to the service of humanity.

I will give respect and gratitude to my deserving teachers.

I will practice medicine with conscience and dignity.

The health and life of my patients will be my first consideration.

I will hold in confidence all that my patient confides in me.

I will maintain the honor and noble traditions of the medical profession.

My colleagues will be as my brothers.

I will not permit consideration of race, religion, nationality, party politics or social standing to intervene between my duty and my patient.

I will maintain the utmost respect of human life from its conception.

Even under threat I will not use my knowledge contrary to the laws of humanity.

These promises I make freely and upon my honor.
