JEFFERSON NURSES’ ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
MEETING CALENDAR

Regular meetings of the Alumni Association will be held on the following dates:

- September 9, 1986
- November 11, 1986
- January 13, 1987
- March 10, 1987
- May 2, 1987 (Annual Meeting)

The meetings will be held at Jefferson Alumni Hall, 10th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia. Meetings will begin at 4:30 P.M., except the Annual Meeting which will begin at 10:00 A.M. Room number will be posted in the lobby.

A Message From The President

Dear Fellow Alumni,

Well, another year has flown by and I would like to tell you — your Alumni is alive and well.

Although the number attending our Alumni Day luncheons each May varies only slightly, (350 plus or minus), our anniversary class attendance remains rather high. I personally feel, the older we get, the more memories we treasure and the more we want to share them and ourselves with our friends—Try it—you’ll like it!

Your Board of Directors, Committee Chairpersons, and those who actively participate in our meetings, do hear and respond to your suggestions. You may be happy to know that we are planning a change in our By-Laws. This proposed change is for your benefit—the annual meeting would be held on the day of the luncheon rather than on the second Tuesday in May. At this, the annual business meeting, you will have the opportunity to make yourself heard as well as find out the results of the election. You get the news on the spot!

Our Scholarship Fund and Relief Fund Committees have been more active this past year. We would be happy to hear from or about anyone who needs assistance.

I wish to thank my Board of Directors, Committee Chairpersons, their Committee members, and the active members of the Alumni, for all the help and support they have shown this past year. It is a privilege and an honor to serve you for a second term.

Fondest wishes,
Flossie Roche, R.N., CNOR

NURSES’ RELIEF FUND

The Nurses' Relief Fund is available to all Diploma and White Haven graduates. The purpose of the Relief Fund is to provide financial assistance annually toward hospital bills and/or bills incurred at home due to an emergency illness requiring the services of a physician.

The fund is also available for use in cases of adversity. Nursing Home cases will be given special consideration.

All things being equal, first consideration will be given to Life and Active members. However, all applications received will be reviewed and given consideration.

All or a portion of the amount distributed to a recipient from the Relief Fund may have to be reported to the Internal Revenue Service as taxable income. Each recipient will receive a statement at the end of the year showing what portion of the distribution to her/him should be reported.

During 1985 we have been able to assist fifteen of our graduates from the Relief Fund. IF YOU KNOW OF ANY JEFFERSON OR WHITE HAVEN GRADUATE IN NEED OF ASSISTANCE, PLEASE LET US KNOW AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

An application for Relief Fund benefits can be found in the back of the bulletin.

NURSES’ SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Clara Melville-Adole Lewis Scholarship Fund continues to provide scholarships to Diploma and White Haven graduates.

May 1985, the Scholarship Committee took action to grant scholarships to part time, as well as full time applicants. Provided the applicant is enrolled in a program leading to a degree in nursing and enrolled for a minimum of six (6) credits. Scholars will be available for summer, fall and spring semesters.

Each application received will be reviewed by the Scholarship Committee; preference will be given to the applicant who has been a member, who is most active in the Alumni Association, and who has most nearly completed requirements for a degree.

A Scholarship application can be found in the back of the bulletin.

Surgery For The Unborn

A Nurse’s Own Story

BY PATRICIA DUNN, RN

On January 9, 1982, Patricia Dunn, RN, was admitted to Philadelphia’s Pennsylvania Hospital in premature labor. She was 29.6 weeks pregnant. Doctors controlled her contractions with uterine relaxants. But 3 days later, ultrasonography showed that the fetus had hydronephrosis and hydroureretol of the left kidney.

A cystic mass in the fetal kidney was causing fluid to accumulate, putting pressure on the fetus’s abdomen and chest. If this pressure increased, it could cause severe lung and kidney damage. Dunn knew this could be fatal to the fetus. And even if the fetus lived, the damage was likely to be irreparable.

On January 19, another ultrasound study showed that the renal mass, now measuring 6 x 8 cm, was creating pressure on the fetal thorax, elevating the diaphragm and causing hydronephrosis in the right kidney, too.

Pennsylvania Hospital obstetrician Stewart Weiner, MD, laid out three possibilities: First, if doctors didn’t intervene surgically, the fetus probably would be born with severe anomalies and die shortly after birth. Second, they might induce labor and deliver the 28-week-old fetus, who would have the expected problems of prematurity as well as life-threatening kidney problems. Third, they might perform percutaneous aspiration of the cystic mass, an experimental technique for treating fetal urinary-tract obstructions. By decompressing the mass with a needle, doctors hoped the fetus’s lungs and right kidney would develop normally and lead to a full-term pregnancy.

Here’s what Patricia Dunn decided and what happened afterward.

It wasn’t an easy choice. I didn’t want to lose the baby that I could feel moving around inside of me. But I didn’t know if I could devote my life to a disabled child. My husband and I also had to consider the needs of our two other children.

The type of fetal surgery suggested by Dr. Weiner offered hope. But as an obstetric nurse, I knew the procedure was risky. Blood vessels or fetal organs might be ruptured accidentally. Also, there could be a premature rupture of the amniotic sac, as well as infection or premature delivery.

My husband and I talked late into the night about what we should do, but I never felt so isolated in my life. Only I could feel the baby’s movements. And somehow I thought the decision was more mine than anyone else’s. Mixed up by the fast-moving confusion, I felt deeply guilty, bitter, and angry. It didn’t seem fair. Both of us love children so much. Why did we have to make such a critical decision? What if we made the wrong decision? For the rest of that night, we got very little sleep.

The next morning, we told Dr. Weiner: We wanted him to try in utero corrective surgery. That afternoon, he performed the first needle aspiration of the cystic mass. It took about 30 minutes.

This initial procedure decompressed the mass, giving the fetal lungs and right kidney more space to develop. Ultrasound studies revealed that the mass continued to grow, however. Pressure on the lungs and right kidney from the cystic mass determined when the procedure must be repeated. During the next 6 weeks, the procedure was performed three times.

Each time, I went into premature labor and was given uterine relaxants. Because I was sedated during the procedures, I grew more and more concerned about the baby’s well-being. Afterward, I would anxiously listen for normal fetal heartbeats and wait for fetal movement to resume. I was also afraid of delivering the baby during that time because he might have respiratory depression from being sedated.

With time on my hands now, my feelings of guilt, bitterness, and anger surfaced again. I kept wondering if I’d done something wrong to precipitate the fetal problems, although I’d been careful with medication, caffeine, and so on. I wondered if a genetic factor was involved. I kept looking for answers, but I found none. And because I was hospitalized more than I was home, I was torn between who needed me—-the the outcome of this tors had decided that doing more intrauterine aspirations he 's have any birth defects . After an 8-hour endanger the fetus , so he recovered un­eventually .

If you could see Patrick playing with his sister and brother now , you 'd never guess that he 's actually a medical history , a technologic and medical wonder . To our family , he 's a healthy , happy , very special 2-year-old who adores his Cabbage Patch Kid and blowing bubbles .

At 34 weeks, the mass had reaccumulated to 3 x 4 cm, once again putting pressure on the fetus and is there for her .

A Pandora's Box Of Ethical Problems

From an ethical perspective, fetal treatment poses complex questions about when life begins and raises the issues of abortion and right to life .

If a fetus can be treated like any patient, does that make it a "person"? If so, can a doctor who neglects to insert a drainage catheter into the head of a hydrocephalic fetus be sued for medical malpractice? Can a mother who refuses fetal treatment be compelled by the courts to have it done? And , finally, if a mother refuses treatment and decides on an abortion—what are the legal and moral implications?

Bioethicists are pondering these questions — and raising some more. In an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association, Dr. John Fletcher of the National Insti­tutes of Health pointed out "the apparent inconsistency of encouraging fetal therapy on the one hand and respecting parental choice about abortion on the other . Should the moral status of the wanted fetus with a treatable defect outweigh that of an unwanted fetus with the same treatable defect?"

And in an article in Life magazine, ethicist Richard McCormick of Georgetown University posed the hypothetical case of a woman who refuses a blood transfusion because her religion forbids it . Most courts would probably support her decision, even if she dies . But what if her unborn child needs the transfusion?

Today , doctors can determine if a fetus has any of more than 100 birth defects by using techniques such as ultrasound, fetoscopy, amniocentesis, amniography, and fluid collection from the fetus . Which fetuses should be treated and which shouldn't?

As the brave new world of fetal treatment unfolds, the debate will intensify .

The surgery performed on Patrick Dunn is one of four techniques used to treat fetal abnormalities. These formerly unthinkable medical advances can be done today for two reasons: Doctors can detect fetal disorders earlier in the preg­nancy using their sophisticated arsenal of techniques for pre­natal diagnosis . And uterine relaxants introduced during the last 10 years keep the traumatized uterus from contracting during fetal treatments.

Here 's a short description of each of these techniques:

1. Intrauterine blood transfusions. The first human intra­uterine procedures were done in New Zealand in 1963: Fetuses with severe anemia because of Rh incompat­ibility were given transfusions directly through the abdomen. Since 1974, drugs have been administered to fetuses with vitamin deficiencies, dyshymeness , respiratory distress syn­drome, and thyroid malfunction .

2. Intratertiary aspiration . The earliest attempts at surgical treatment were called "needlings"—draining fluid-filled areas of the fetal brain or thorax by inserting a needle. First performed in 1978 by doctors at Harvard University, Cam­bridge, Mass., drained cerebrospinal fluid from a fetus with hydrocephalus, the procedure is also used to treat urinary tract obstructions such as Patrick Dunn's, when insertion of a drainage catheter isn't required.

3. Intratertiary catheterization (drainage tube insertion into bladder). More invasive than needling, this form of intra­uterine catheterization requires implanting a plastic catheter in the fetal bladder to drain excess fluid. The drainage catheter usually stays in place until birth, when more permanent surgical treatment is possible.

This procedure was first performed successfully in April, 1981, at the University of California, San Francisco, on a fetus (a twin) diagnosed with hydrocephrosis . A catheter was inserted into the fetal bladder, preventing a life-threatening urine buildup. The procedure worked: The twins are now 3 years old.

4. Intratertiary catheterization (brain shunt insertion) . Another form of intratertiary catheterization is being used to treat hydrocephalus, in which a buildup of fluid in the fetal brain causes devascularization of brain cells, causing re­tardation or death. In this procedure, a "prenatal brain shunt" — developed by doctors at the University of Colorado, Den­ver—drains fluid into the amniotic sac .

At the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md, cur­rent experiments are paving the way for treating major birth defects such as congenital diaphragmatic hernia, spina bifida, and limb deformities. Someday, performing bone and organ transplants in utero may also be possible .

HOW YOU CAN HELP AS A NURSE

If you 're caring for a woman who 's undergoing fetal treatment, here are some helpful things to remember:

Before the procedure

- Examine your own attitude about fetal treatment — your active support of her decision is vital. If you can't do it, then ask your head nurse to reassigned the patient to a nurse who can.

- Don't assign her to the same room as a mother whose baby rooms in or visits for meals. Because the outcome of your pregnancy's uncertain, she may feel even more isolated and depressed at seeing another patient's baby .

- Offer yourself — be there and listen. Realize that her feelings of guilt, bitterness, anger, or denial are normal and similar to those experienced during the grieving process. Encourage her to express those feelings to you or to a psychiatric nurse-consultant.

- Help her explain the procedure to her children, words, drawings, or teaching aids (such as dolls) appropriate to their ages.

- Avoid using such expressions as "God (or Nature) will take care of it." — the outcome for this patient's pregnancy is uncertain.

During the procedure

- Reach out. Holding her hand helps her cope with pain and keep still. And it shows that someone cares for her .

- Keep her informed of the health of the fetus by checking the fetal monitor continually. She may fear the worst if she's not sure.

After the procedure

- Understand that she may feel isolated and alone. Putting her in touch with other mothers who experienced fetal treatment may help.

- Allow her husband or another supportive person to stay with her if she desires .

- Let her know that mothers with high-risk pregnancies usually suffer more severe postpartum depressions.

baby whom I didn't know would live or my children at home. My nurses comforted me by giving me a little extra attention, and by just listening to me.

At 34 weeks, the renal mass had reaccumulated to 3 x 4 cm, once again putting pressure on the fetal diaphragm. Doc­tors had decided that prenatal aspirations would endanger the fetus, so labor was induced. During delivery, I wondered if the baby would live and if he did live, what his renal status would be . And like every parent, I wondered if he 's have any birth defects. After an 8-hour labor, I delivered

A baby boy, with good Apgar scores, weighing 5 pounds, 12 ounces. We named him Patrick .

Because of postnatal respiratory problems, Patrick had to be intubated. But after a few days, he was breathing well on his own. An ultrasound study confirmed he had a multicystic left kidney. But his right kidney functioned normally, and his urine output was adequate. His BUN and creatinine remained within normal limits, too. That was good news to my husband and me.

When Patrick was 10 weeks old, a left nephrectomy and inguinal herniorrhaphy were performed. He recovered un­eventfully .
Long after you wrote "Tempus Fidgetis" I hoped others would remember their "pink" days at Jeff and recall them for a growing history of "Training at Jeff." But, it was not to be. Many of you wrote, called and said the article was recalled—good and bad, many of which are funny in retrospect. I must say that it was a difficult paper to write because so much was used. But, I worked it all out and now see the real humor and the results of the experience as I have done new things. If any one of my classmates is the last one we expected to remain in nursing and earn a doctorate.

Because of your responses to last year's article, I have been asked to continue with my memories. I doubt they will be as amusing, second attempts rarely are. So here goes.

Our days as a Probie were busy. Each day began on the ward, sweeping the floors, counting the face towels and serving dinner (and we got a real zonk) of hot tea with lots of sugar in it. We did not serve milk or cream because this produced gas which led to troubles for both patient and nurse. Prostigmine was introduced while we were students and that was some help for both patient and nurse.

We were taught to take blood pressure. Our favorite assignment while there. When surgery was counted pulse, but most of the time you tried to stay out of it because it protected the patient from unnecessary danger. Patients were sedated patient (and we didn't strap them to the stretcher) and the patient was coming out of ether. Sometimes you posed to be an assistant to the anesthetist. Sometimes you ran the patient was sick. We were students and that was some help for both patient and nurse.

Other memories pop-up but I can't find much of a logical sequence for them. Saturday afternoon on 10th Floor we had to replenish the toilet paper in all bathrooms, and look for the toilet paper rolls that Miss Gillespie had bought in previous years. Folding linen in the basement for the OR, then riding down the ramp in an empty ladder truck. It was the basement of the Annex and the ramp ran from Main Building down, probably a full story.

Others remember as Miss Gillespie, to take the stained or ripped linens into the rooms of burned and operated patients, to apologize profusely for it, but that was all we had. We soon had new linen. It was a scheme which has come in handy over the years.

Now, please, someone else give us your memories. Our days at Jeff were hard and thank God they are gone, but they are good for laughs and they are very impressive on the young students of today who would not tolerate such treatment. We didn't know any better. We did turn out well despite it all.

Alcia B. Boehret, R.N., E.D.D. Class of '42

Directress of Nurses, Martha came on staff and worked in the nursing office as assistant to the directress and was in charge of the personnel office. She also worked in the nursing office during Miss Margaret Jackson's tenure as Directress of Nursing.

January 1969, the president of the Nurse's Alumni Association asked Martha to accept the position of Alumni Office Coordinator on an part time basis. Martha accepted and retired in September 1985.

In career work you wonder whether or not an alumni office coordinator does... well, it is really difficult to put into words, but one of the main responsibilities is to keep the address files current. We have nearly 3000 addresses, and this can be a very involved and time consuming, as nurses are constantly on the move. She was also responsible for getting all the addresses on the computer, and she would get off the addresses into the computer machine. Other positions Martha held in the Alumni Association were president, vice president, member board of directors, chairman of various committees, as well as being a member of committees.

Ever since she first came to Jefferson in 1923 Martha has been a loyal and dedicated supporter not only of the Alumni Association, but Jefferson as well, and during these years many lasting friendships were made.

Martha was, and is a friend to many people, her opinions and ideas are valuable not only because of her varied work experience, but also, due to the interesting travels she has taken in the past. Her work as alumni coordinator is outstanding, and I'm certain I speak for everyone when I say thank you for a job well done. Martha, we love you.

The 1907 Hospital ("Old Main")

The southwest corner of Tenth and Sansom Streets may be considered a "tough old spot" as far as the physical endurance of its buildings is concerned and as "hotly ground" in terms of its benefit to mankind. Only two buildings have been located there. The first was "New Medical Hall" of Jefferson Medical College, erected on this corner in 1828 through the benefaction of the Reverend Ezra Sils Ey, a member of the board of trustees. The original college building, from 1825 to 1826, was the renovated Twolo Theater at 516-20 Prune Street (now Locust).

Enlargements and modifications of the Tenth Street Jefferson Medical College in 1838, 1846, 1879 and 1881 changed its appearance from that of a church, to that of a Greek temple, and finally to a facade of florid Victorian style. In the renovation of 1879, two stories on the corner in which the upper floors had served as a connected mini-ward for 15 post-surgical patients were converted into a laboratory building.

About 1895, it became evident that a building program was necessary to provide Jefferson with a new medical school and a new hospital. In 1898, after 70 fruitful years at Tenth and Sansom, a new Jefferson Medical College was erected at the corner of Walnut and Tenth, where now stands the Curtis Building. The old hodgepodge of Jefferson Medical College was now ready for demolition to accommodate the new Jefferson Medical College Hospital (the present "Old Main").

Was "Old Main (1907)" the first Jefferson Hospital?

Looking back to May 1825, dispenspaires were available to the public at the old Twolo Theater site. (See Directions, October 1985). The first full-scale hospital was built in 1877 on the second floor of the Tenth and Eleventh, where now stands the Thompson Building. It was the second teaching hospital in the country to be connected with a medical school, the former being the University of Pennsylvania in 1874. It was a five-story building of Victorian Gothic style that contained a clinical amphitheater ("pit") seating 600 students. Many "greats" of Jefferson operated and lectured there.

Over a period of thirty years (1877-1907), that hospital trained 5,000 doctors in its halls; cared for 2,000,000 patients in wards and dispensaries; treated nearly 50,000 accident cases; and graduated 148 nurses.

By the turn of the century the hospital was antiquated; 125 beds were insufficient for the demand; it was too small for the volume of work and not fire-proof. By 1902 it was possible to demolish the old medical school building at Tenth and Sansom and erect the new hospital ("Old Main"). The 1877 hospital was maintained for nurses' education and living quarters.

Frederick B. Wagner, Jr., M.D.

and the clinical amphitheater continued to be used for surgery and teaching until the Thompson Building replaced it in 1904.

"Old Main's" Past and Future

With planning for the latest feature essential to the comfort and scientific care of the sick, construction of "Old Main" was started in 1902. This was made possible by private and public benefaction and by placing a large mortgage on the property. The building was opened on June 8, 1907, at a ceremony attended by Board President, the Honorable William Potter, with a rousing address by Dr. John Chalmers DeCosta. Eight stories tall, with ground floor and basement; built of steel, concrete, brick and terra cotta; floored with tile or other non-flammable material; provided with natural light by three streets; supplied with interior electric lighting; steam heated from an outside plant; cleaned by a vacuum system; and ventilated by a noiseless exhaust system, this ample hospital was more than 300 beds embolded the most modern advances in institutional construction. On June 24, 1907, the patients at that time in the "Old Jefferson Hospital" were removed to the new institution.

"Old Main" served Jefferson patients, faculty, staff and students well for more than seven decades. On March 1, 1974, the ward services were discontinued and all patients were assigned to individual attending physicians instead of ward chiefs. "Old Main" continued to house pediatric inpatients until 1983.

New Uses for "Old Main"

After becoming unsuitable for inpatient care, it functioned for a variety of outpatient, research and educational activities, housing the department of radiation therapy and nuclear medicine, the Hemophilia Center, the Clinical Pharmacology Unit, educational facilities for the College of Allied Health Sciences and psychiatric outpatient care.

A decision has been made to preserve this old but structurally sound building. Among other things, the building will house an imaging center with the latest equipment for diagnosis by ultrasound, CT scanning and nuclear magnetic resonance. There is a certain nostalgia to the preservation of old care center, and will house the Jefferson Surgical Center on}

The original college building, from 1825 to 1826, was the renovated Twolo Theater at 516-20 Prune Street (now Locust).

Enlargements and modifications of the Tenth Street Jefferson Medical College in 1838, 1846, 1879 and 1881 changed its appearance from that of a church, to that of a Greek temple, and finally to a facade of florid Victorian style. In the renovation of 1879, two stories on the corner in which the upper floors had served as a connected mini-ward for 15 post-surgical patients were converted into a laboratory building.

About 1895, it became evident that a building program was necessary to provide Jefferson with a new medical school and a new hospital. In 1898, after 70 fruitful years at Tenth and Sansom, a new Jefferson Medical College was erected at the corner of Walnut and Tenth, where now stands the Curtis Building. The old hodgepodge of Jefferson Medical College was now ready for demolition to accommodate the new Jefferson Medical College Hospital (the present "Old Main").

Was "Old Main (1907)" the first Jefferson Hospital?

Looking back to May 1825, dispenspaires were available to the public at the old Twolo Theater site. (See Directions, October 1985). The first full-scale hospital was built in 1877 on the second floor of the Tenth and Eleventh, where now stands the Thompson Building. It was the second teaching hospital in the country to be connected with a medical school, the former being the University of Pennsylvania in 1874. It was a five-story building of Victorian Gothic style that contained a clinical amphitheater ("pit") seating 600 students. Many "greats" of Jefferson operated and lectured there.

Over a period of thirty years (1877-1907), that hospital trained 5,000 doctors in its halls; cared for 2,000,000 patients in wards and dispensaries; treated nearly 50,000 accident cases; and graduated 148 nurses.

By the turn of the century the hospital was antiquated; 125 beds were insufficient for the demand; it was too small for the volume of work and not fire-proof. By 1902 it was possible to demolish the old medical school building at Tenth and Sansom and erect the new hospital ("Old Main"). The 1877 hospital was maintained for nurses' education and living quarters.

Frederick B. Wagner, Jr., M.D.

and the clinical amphitheater continued to be used for surgery and teaching until the Thompson Building replaced it in 1904.

"Old Main's" Past and Future

With planning for the latest feature essential to the comfort and scientific care of the sick, construction of "Old Main" was started in 1902. This was made possible by private and public benefaction and by placing a large mortgage on the property. The building was opened on June 8, 1907, at a ceremony attended by Board President, the Honorable William Potter, with a rousing address by Dr. John Chalmers DeCosta. Eight stories tall, with ground floor and basement; built of steel, concrete, brick and terra cotta; floored with tile or other non-flammable material; provided with natural light by three streets; supplied with interior electric lighting; steam heated from an outside plant; cleaned by a vacuum system; and ventilated by a noiseless exhaust system, this ample hospital was more than 300 beds embolded the most modern advances in institutional construction. On June 24, 1907, the patients at that time in the "Old Jefferson Hospital" were removed to the new institution.

"Old Main" served Jefferson patients, faculty, staff and students well for more than seven decades. On March 1, 1974, the ward services were discontinued and all patients were assigned to individual attending physicians instead of ward chiefs. "Old Main" continued to house pediatric inpatients until 1983.

New Uses for "Old Main"

After becoming unsuitable for inpatient care, it functioned for a variety of outpatient, research and educational activities, housing the department of radiation therapy and nuclear medicine, the Hemophilia Center, the Clinical Pharmacology Unit, educational facilities for the College of Allied Health Sciences and psychiatric outpatient care.

A decision has been made to preserve this old but structurally sound building. Among other things, the building will house an imaging center with the latest equipment for diagnosis by ultrasound, CT scanning and nuclear magnetic resonance. There is a certain nostalgia to the preservation of old care center, and will house the Jefferson Surgical Center on or down; bed up or down. Several feet below the bed is a t.v. and of course remote control. On the wall I arranged for switches—one turns the air conditioner on or off; the other turns a heater on or off. Beside the bed is a quite large bedside cabinet with a formica top. It contains three drawers and a cabinet. I arranged for the carpenter to put wheels on this cabinet and affixed a platform to the side. This holds extra large waste basket lined with "heelty" bags. The wheels help me to readjust the table when necessary. Used Pampers are tossed into the waste basket. My evening aide prepares a light supper. She proceeds with baths and passive exercises to legs. Then on my left side beside the wall, she places Pampers, Kleenex box, towel, and the current book I am reading. (Pampers were a great discovery since I cannot walk to the bathroom. On my infatuous table is a telephone which allows me to reach the desk in the lobby of my apartment building twenty-four hours a day. I call the doorman at 10 p.m. to assist with ventilation for the night. Visitors usually call me when they plan to arrive after 6 p.m. Lights-out are at 11:30 p.m., and I am alone until 7:30 a.m. At this time Angela arrives and we usually have ordered a van for 9 a.m., for example, to visit a shopping center.

I recently decided to better use the 12 noon to 3 p.m. free time and in an effort to try to contribute to society I have begun tutoring again.

So you see, "Jeff" training has helped me in many ways.

Note: Miss Moyer was graduated from Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing in 1943. Her clinical experience from 1945 to 1953 was broad and varied. In addition, she served in the Army Nurse Corps, WWII, and spent 18 months in a General Hospital in England. In 1953 she received a BS in Nursing Education from the University of Pennsylvania, after which her teaching career began.

She was president of the Jefferson Nurses Alumni Association—1955, 1960, 1961.

Bulletin Committee
The Bulletin Committee wishes to thank everyone who helped in any way with the publication of the 1986 Bulletin. We have endeavored to be as accurate as we could, so if any names are misspelled please forgive us, it was not intentional.
You will note in the treasurer's report for 1985 which appears in this bulletin, that the printing and mailing expenses for the 1985 bulletin was $8,850.00. This is one of the big reasons we need monies in our general fund.
If you have done or are doing anything interesting, please consider writing about it for the 1987 Bulletin, we are always on the look-out for ideas.

Respectfully submitted,
Betty Piersol
Recording Secretary

Alumni Office News

In September 1985, Betty Peterson and I were appointed by the president of the Alumni Association as the Alumni Office Coordinators. This was done on the resignation of Martha Roland — who held this position since January of 1986. Although Betty and I had frequently helped Martha, it was quite different when we assumed the full responsibility for the office. Quite frankly, I don’t know how Martha did it by herself. The Alumni Association owes her a big thank you for her commitment to her Alumni and to this office.

October 1985, 2,944 copies of the alumni bulletin were mailed, this included the 11 overseas mailings.

A great deal of our time is spent in checking names, addresses and trying to track down graduates who give us insufficient information.

January 29, 1986 the alumni office moved from room 105 Edison to M-32 Jefferson Alumni Hall (this is only a temporary move). We like it much better being in Jeff Hall.

During 1985 we undertook the tremendous task of getting the names of all our graduates on the computer run. This information is a big help in identifying people. This year we are working on including the telephone numbers of our graduates.

Our older graduates, whose birthdays we know and who are over eighty, are sent a floral birthday arrangement from the Alumni Association. If you know of anyone having a birthday let us know the year, month, day, address and telephone number.

We wish to thank our volunteers, who so faithfully help us with stuffing and putting labels on the annual giving and luncheon letters. Without their help it would be nearly impossible to get the mailings out on time.

In April Francine Kates, Admissions Counselor, and Lisa Ryan, Nurse Recruiter for the CAHS, met with Betty and I. They are trying to build up the CAHS Alumni, and are having a really tough job. Knowing that our association is so active and so well established they asked us for some pointers. They also talked about the Advanced Placement Program for Nurses at Jefferson, and the scholarship program for Nurses in Rehabilitation Nursing which starts the Fall of 1986.

The following are a few of the benefits we receive by being a part of the Jefferson Family: office space, telephone, routine printing, mailing (except the bulletin), xerographing (within normal limits), monthly updated computer print-outs, labels for our mailings, someone to answer our telephone when we are not in the office, (our association is included in the Department of Development’s budget, and we do thank them for those benefits.)

Our address is Nurses Alumni Association, Thomas Jefferson University, 11th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19107. The telephone number is 215-928-8881. We are usually in the office every Tuesday, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M., and occasionally on Wednesday. When we are not in the office our calls will be answered and messages taken by the CAHS Alumni Office, Room M-6 Jefferson Alumni Hall, 1020 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107. Stop by and see us when you are in the vicinity. It would be wise to call first to be sure we are in the office.

Our office works closely with the CAHS Alumni Office, its staff, Elisa Lang and Carolyn Robinson have been a great help to us, we value their friendship and the good working relations between the two offices.

Thanks to your help we now have a copy of the commencement program starting with the class of 1919 through the class of 1982.

Social Chairman Report

The Annual Luncheon was held May 3rd, 1986 at Jefferson Alumni Hall, 1020 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107. There were 314 members in attendance. A business meeting was held in the Solis-Cohen Auditorium prior to the luncheon.

The anniversary class of 1961 had the largest number present for the luncheon. The class of 1936 celebrated their 50th anniversary and were guests of the Alumni Association, 15 members attended.

Frances Butler Pangburn from the class of 1916 was the oldest member present and celebrated her 75th anniversary, the Alumni Association presented her with a corsage.

Twenty-three states were represented at the luncheon and one member came from Hong Kong for her 30th anniversary.

The Annual Luncheon for 1987 will be Saturday May 2nd, at Jefferson Alumni Hall, 1020 Locust Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Scholarship Committee Report 1985-1986

Scholarship applications have continued to increase and we are pleased to identify the following grants.

Fall 1985
Patricia (Appel) Dunn, 1971
Elizabeth (Holohan) Michael, 1976
Diane (Wolms) Hinkel, 1979
Linda (Lottet) Romano, 1977

Spring 1986
Corrine Kurzen, 1962
Kate Felix, 1970
Susan Gallagher, 1977
Susan (O’Donnell) Hagen, 1979

Graduates Appreciate Alumni Scholarships

As we begin 1986, I would like to take the opportunity to thank you, and the scholarship committee, and the Alumni Association for the scholarship that I was granted for the summer of 1985. In August I graduated with my BSN from Gwynedd Mercy College. Thank you again for the scholarship. Alen I. MacMillan, ’76.

Corrine R. Kurzen, ’62 writes—I again thank the committee for the scholarship which made this past semester possible, and will appreciate any consideration for the Fall, 1986 semester.

I continue to be pleased with the caliber of the program at the University of Washington. This past quarter has been the most challenging. Due to the scholarship committee’s generosity I will be able to complete my degree on schedule. YOU CAN BE SURE THAT WITH MY MASTER’S DEGREE, I will do all that is in my power to support the rights of nurses and assure our patients of quality nursing care. Again, thank you for all your efforts on my behalf. Kate G. Felix, ’70.

Words cannot express my gratitude to you and the Alumni Association for the generous scholarship that has been awarded to me. The money will help me to fulfill my professional dream of my two loves—critically care nursing and teaching. I hope to serve the proud tradition of Jefferson’s excellence throughout my career. Thank you again. Susan M. Galagher, ’77.

Bequests

We have received a number of questions concerning bequests to the Nurses Alumni Association. If you are thinking about such a bequest, we would suggest the following sample paragraph for your consideration:

I give to the Nurses Alumni Association of the School of Nursing, Diploma Program, College of Allied Health Sciences, Thomas Jefferson University, located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, or its successors, the sum of dollars (or identify the property, such as stock, or indicate a percentage of the estate, if appropriate), to be used for its general purposes.

This suggested clause is exclusively for the information of our alumni and friends. You should, of course, consult your own attorney as to the applicability of any item to your own situation.
Congratulations To Our Graduates

The Alumni Association is proud of the accomplishments of our graduates, we extend to you our congratulations!

(Please let us know of your accomplishments, we would love to share them with your fellow graduates.)

Changes

The view of Corregidor was a beautiful tropical island. The sight of Batan was a breathtaking scene to barren jagged rock. Fragments of the bombed out Topside barely visible.

Norma Z. Smith

May 17, 1985 was proclaimed as Norma Z. Smith Day by County Executive Donald P. Hutchinson, recognizing her outstanding service in the care of handicapped children. The commendation was presented to Mrs. Smith by Mr. Sherrard.

Mrs. Smith, a registered nurse for 45 years has been employed by the Health Department for the past 28 years. During that time she contributed greatly to advancements made in the public school system to accommodate physically and mentally handicapped children. In March 1979, she was chosen for the March of Dimes Nurse of the Year Award for the State of Maryland, in recognition of her service and dedication in this area.

In 1985 Mrs. Smith retired and on May 17, was honored by a retirement dinner, given by friends and co-workers from the Baltimore County Health Department. Since her retirement both she and her husband Woodward "Red", have started a Bed and Breakfast and have enjoyed a bicycle trip to Nantucket, the Everglades in Florida, and the past May they went to Savannah.

Norma's Jefferson friends will remember her as Norma Zigler, class of 1940.

HUMANITARIAN AWARD

Jane Black Guerin, class of 1947 Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing, has been awarded the Dr. First Humanitarian Award by the Hospital Corporation of America.

Jane has been employed at the J.C. Blair Hospital in Huntington, PA since 1947 in various positions and will retire in 1987 as head nurse in the recovery room.

DIstinguished Professor

Harriet H. Werley, PhD, Distinguished Professor School of Nursing, The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, is a 1941 graduate of Jefferson's School of Nursing. Diploma Program, is a retired Army lieutenant colonel. As a young lieutenant, she was one of the nurses taken into captivity when the Philippines fell to the Japanese in World War II. In 1985, Madeline Ullom received a salutatorian and a Bronze Star from Col. Edward Frey.

Miss Werley is in demand to make presentations on the Nursing Minimum Data Set Conference at various professional and research conferences, and leads a very busy professional life.

Receives Master of Science Degree

Sandra Fox Wendel of Downingtown, Pa., received a Master of Science degree specializing in Group Process and Group Psychotherapy from the Graduate School of Hahnemann University, Philadelphia. Ms. Wendel plans to enter private psychotherapy practice where she will be a business consultant. While a student at Hahnemann, she was a member of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. In 1983 Ms. Wendel graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from West Chester State University, West Chester, Pa. where she was selected to Psi Chi, Phi Kappa Phi, Gamma Mu Honor Societies. She is a 1969 graduate of Thomas Jefferson University, where she received a diploma as a Registered Nurse. She is a 1966 graduate of Middle Township High School of Cape May Court House, N.J. She has two children, Julie and Laura.

Special Achievement Award

Barbara Schneider, Ph.D., R.N., a 1965 graduate of the Thomas Jefferson University Diploma Program in Nursing and a member of the University's College of Allied Health Sciences nursing faculty, was the recipient of the 1986 College of Allied Health Sciences' Alumni Special Achievement Award for her dedicated dedication to nursing education, research, and to professional excellence.

Jefferson's Advanced Placement Program

Dear Prospective Student:

As the new Nurse Recruiter for the College of Allied Health Sciences of Thomas Jefferson University, I would like to take this opportunity to tell you about some of our new and exciting programs.

For people who are already an RN, we offer an advanced placement program that will lead to your BSN. You can obtain your BSN either on a full or part-time basis. We offer our classes at convenient times — day or evening. The program can be completed in one year, a year and a half or two years. We try to be as flexible as possible to accommodate everyone's needs. We think our program is exciting with many of the clinical rotations designed especially for the experienced professional.

Beginning in September, we will be starting a Masters program in Rehabilitation Nursing. This is the first masters program in the College. The admissions requirements include a BSN from an NLN accredited school or Registered Nurses who are graduate of NLN accredited associate degree or diploma programs. We do provide a direct route to the masters program for the registered nurse. You can be admitted to the advanced placement program and earn your BSN and then continue right on for your masters. The classes will be offered in the late afternoon and the program can be completed either on a full or part-time basis.

If you would like to obtain more information about our programs you can call the Admissions Office at (215) 928-8890 or write:

Jefferson Graduate
Celebrates Her 100th
In 1910 she was appointed a member of the U.S. Navy Nurse Corps, at that time in existence for only two years, and during World War I served at a naval hospital in Philadelphia. November 1918, at the end of the war, Mary became the first nurse ever appointed to sea duty, and served aboard the USL Leviathan until September 1919, aiding troops being transported home from the war. Mrs. Godfrey remembers that among the 100,000 brought back on the Leviathan were Gen. George Pershing and Gen. Douglas McArthur.

Class of 1916

Eileen Suller Pangborn, 39 South 4th Street, Lewistown, PA 17042. I am glad to see you all this evening. I spent the winter of 1982/83 in Cherry Hill, NJ and managed to get around quite a bit. I could attend the Alumni Luncheon, its 70th anniversary. It was just beautiful to be with all of you.

Florence (Brownie) Browning, 2531 SW Spring, Garden Portland, OR 97219. I am enjoying being in the West, people live out of doors so one can’t get to the library as easily, nor can one visit with friends too often.

Class of 1921

Jennie E. Kutz, 5869 Springfield Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19143. In my retirement years I like to look back to when “Jeff” was a hospital with wide open wards and nurses were in caps and uniforms instead of “white coat laborers.”

My daughter in Cherry Hill, Florence, is with wide open wards and nurses were in caps and uniforms instead of “white coat laborers.” My husband of 47 years (who was a graduate of Jefferson) died of a heart attack, and I am sure you would like to hear about his career.

Marjorie Workinger, 35 Terra Drive, Lancaster, PA 17601. A few of our class still keep in touch with each other, even though we mostly live in west and east coasts, except for a few in between.

Over Center after many radiation treatments. Living here more.

I'm still very active in the church.

Erma Foulk Hill, 25 South 4th Street, Lewistown, PA 17042. I had 2 knee implants and hip replacement.

I'm facing eye surgery in the near future.

What a year!

Class of 1925

Mildred Eppich Peterson, 2129 Belport Road, Altoona, PA 16603. I will be 95 years old next month, which is why I could not attend the Alumni Luncheon.

Ellen H. Foulk of 1927 had 2 knee implants and had a very active year. My husband died of a heart attack.

Joy, June 1985 my husband died.

December 1985 my husband died. I tend to the garden and write in my poetry, and I have many wonderful friends.

Class of 1930

Mildred German Jeffers of 1930, 35 Terra Drive, Lancaster, PA 17601. My husband and I live it very much at Menno Haven.

Dick and I possibly will go down. My friend Peg (Howard) came down.

I'm enjoying semi retirement this year. Who said you only go to work for each one.

Ellen Holman Miller, 2129 Box 13-1119, Lopata, AK 99821. I am trying to live up the loose ends of life.

Dorothy K. Rausch, 110 South Pearl, West Lebanon, NH 03784. I am still traveling as much as I possibly can.

Class of 1935

Esther Patton Weber (Paul), 2013 Ridge Road, Box 242, Perkinsville, VT 05149. I am feeling well and my husband’s health has improved dramatically. We are planning a Caribbean cruise this fall.

Theodore R. McCracken, 2129 S.W. 8th Avenue, Apt. 503, Miami, FL 33139. I am enjoying life here in S.W. Miami. I live in the most of the tropical fruit. I visited my granddaughter in San Francisco and spent Thanksgiving with my nephew in Texas. I am singing in two choirs, a non-profit women’s chorus, and the Brookline Community Singers.

I still enjoy sculling on the Amazon in Brazil. I think it very much at Menno Haven.

Class of 1936

Louise Ashley Pizer, 1409 Katie Drive, Pottstown, PA 19464. My oldest granddaughter and her husband have completed their first year at the Chicago Theological Seminary, and my youngest granddaughter is in her first year at the University of Pennsylvania.

I was sorry to attend our 55th anniversary this year.

Elizabeth Zaccai Setdawy, 1040 Maria Street, Los Angeles, CA 90046. I am looking forward to hearing from each one.

I am looking forward to meeting you at the Alumni Luncheon.

Class of 1937

Grace Ellis Neuman, 13 Newswain Terrace, Norwalk, CT 06851. Because of poor health I moved to Norwalk, CT to be with my daughter.

Class of 1929

Zelda Rowe Messer, Minnow Haven Inc. 2075 Seward Avenue, Dallas, PA 19072. My husband died last year.

Nazi Beazeck Beach (Lustig H.), 776 C Menisco Village, Chambersburg, PA 17201. My husband and I live it very much at Menno Haven.

I'm still very active in the church.

Ruth Sellers Johnson (Charity), P.O. Box 8286, Sarasota City Mobile Park, Sarasota, FL 34278. My husband passed away February 2, 1985 after a long illness. Perhaps next May I'll be able to attend the Alumni luncheon.

Class of 1931

Elizabeth Youngblood Gaul, 2148 Cherry Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103. My first granddaughter was married in January 1986.

Emma M. Bahner, Ridgecrest Apartment 617, 29 Nol escol Road, Salem, VA. 24353. I want to thank all our alumni members. Sorry to miss our 55th anniversary luncheon at the hotel. I am enjoying the retired Retirement Center.

I have some family scans.

Dorothy T. Peterson, 2214 Ridge Road, Dayton, OH 45414. I am still having a car and enjoying everything on God’s green earth.

I'm feeling well and my husband is feeling well.

Grace H. Schwedt, 2431 Pennsylvania Avenue, NE, Washington, DC 20009. I still enjoy sculling on the Amazon in Brazil. I think it very much at Menno Haven.

I am looking forward to meeting you at the Alumni Luncheon.

Margaret Armstrong Turner (Edward), 79 East Ashland Street, Doylestown, PA 18901. We spend the winter (4 months) at my beach house in Dana Point, CA. The rest of the time we live in Doylestown, PA, doing volunteer work at the hospital, historical museum and church.

Class of 1939

Mary Catherine Reeser, 2521 Pennsylvania Avenue, NE, Washington, DC 20009. We will be coming East in a few months, probably to stay.

Frances Kitty Fisher (Rosco L.), 813 Madison Avenue, York, PA 17403. I think you know of me because I have been written and published a book called “Musical heat.” She teaches music to children.

This book is published in Australia. She and her husband have a daughter Jessica, age 51/2. Our son, Wayne H. Fisher was a music teacher at the Church of the Brethren and our daughter Jessica, age 51/2.

I am looking forward to meeting you at the Alumni Luncheon.

Judith May Logan, 2521 Pennsylvania Avenue, NE, Washington, DC 20009. We will be coming East in a few months, probably to stay.

Dorothy K. Rausch, 110 South Pearl, West Lebanon, NH 03784. I am still traveling as much as I possibly can.

19369. Fifty years have passed by so very rapidly. Today I find the experience and education of that long age has had a solid foundation for living in the enjoyment of the last three-quarters of those fifty years. It was never evident until I took the time to reflect back on the early years and especially on Jefferson student years. May your Alumna Assn. continue to flourish.

Myra Cleo Snyder Dunker (George G.) P.O. Box 207, 719 Chetnal Rd., Sunol, CA 94586. Ten years ago I left my lovely home and moved to a new, small, beautiful place. The years that last few years have killed all my citrus trees, and so have put me out of the fruit business. But I get on and it's all right. I've gotten a quite a lot of people here. I am not in a wooded area, about 200 miles from here, but I've the roses grown. My summer address is Evergreen, PA.

Claire Neill Sweeney McGuire (George F.) P.O. Box 1933, Koreans, PA 17040. Since my father passed away I am looking forward to our 50th anniversary. It will be spent in the mountains of Virginia.

Gloria R. Miller (John E.) 354 North Avenue, Clifton Park, NY 12065. I'm in poor health and have no trouble keeping busy. I have three children, all grown and mostly retired. We now have three grandsons in our daughters' junior high school. I'm doing very well. I enjoy my retirement, and the great game of golf.

1986, my husband, Paul, was presented with the American Chemical Society Award in the Department of Chemistry. I am not physically able to attend reunions.

Last year I had lunch with Esther Milewski, we took her to Prairie Center, Atlantic City, Pennsylvania. If you would like to see everyone, write me a note.

Ella L. Holt Baker (Andrews) 119 Harwick Street, Springfield, PA 19064. Purple and white are my favorite colors, and I have enjoyed painting my house and my garden. I am retired and have been on a trip to Florida. I have a deer that I love, it is 5½ and Suzanne is 16 months old. I keep my stepping. I still have my printing business in the Valley Forge Shopping Center. My son and daughter are doing very well for her in master's hospital administration, and is doing very well. Other than being healthy, I'm enjoying my retirement, and the great game of golf.

I'm planning to attend in 1987, it will be so good to see everyone.

1977, 539 Penn Avenue, West Reading, PA 19611. I'm in poor health and have no trouble keeping busy. I'm looking forward to our 50th anniversary.

Sara L. Wernstler (Daniel), 814 Lancaster Avenue, Ayr, PA 19503. I'm enjoying visiting everyone. I'm a retired school teacher in the past few years. They say you can find a smoke and the noise will startle you.

Barbara Turgeon, et al. Sincerely,

Ruth Augusta Graf 17036. I will be spending the summer months in McAlister, PA, and returning in October.

Since my father passed away I am looking forward to our 50th anniversary. It will be spent in the mountains of Virginia.

It's wonderful to see everyone.

I'm using my retirement, and the great game of golf.

I'm looking forward to our 50th anniversary. I will be looking forward to seeing them at our national meeting in New York City. We went to the zoo and visited with Mutz. We had dinner at the Purple Rose. We had a great time.

Frances Sohly Volkoff (Red), 1623 North Street, Reading, PA 19607. I'd love to hear from my classmates. Herlthi Reiner, Lawnya Yoch, Betty Farm, Mabel Dickey.

Suzanne Jenkins, (J. Roland) 3204 South 32nd Street, Philadelphia, PA 19109. I'm in poor health and have no trouble keeping busy. I have three children, all grown and mostly retired. We now have three grandsons in our daughters' junior high school.

Karen A. Kliever (Lee), 1521 Union Avenue, Clifton Park, NY 12065. I'm in poor health and have no trouble keeping busy. I have three children, all grown and mostly retired. We now have three grandsons in our daughters' junior high school.

I'm in poor health and have no trouble keeping busy. I have three children, all grown and mostly retired. We now have three grandsons in our daughters' junior high school.

We would like to say to our grandchildren that a great joke felt so bad I heard hearing "Garonce" once again.

Wein I. Meyer, President, Commons Apts. D-690, City Line Ave., Philadelphia, PA 19131. I'm pretty good now. I'm the best to all my classmates.

Betty J. Metzger Shaw (John) 5200 Hilltop Drive, West Reading, PA 19611. In 1985, we met our son, and we had dinner with Bette Ann. I'm grateful that you got word of this in 1940. I found Emily Grifin in Heidelberg. Germany and later in Washington, D.C. This year I met Barbara Schwartz, class of 1948, she lives in Catonsville, Maryland, and last year we were able to visit together.

Kathryn A. Kline (Lee), 1521 Union Avenue, Clifton Park, NY 12065. I'm in poor health and have no trouble keeping busy. I have three children, all grown and mostly retired. We now have three grandsons in our daughters' junior high school.

I'm in poor health and have no trouble keeping busy. I have three children, all grown and mostly retired. We now have three grandsons in our daughters' junior high school.

Shirley Fortney of 1946
of Delaware Valley Christian Camp at Douglasville. I have been camp nurse at camp during the summer. We have 4 children married and have 10 grandchildren.

Doris A. Barbato (George), R.D. #1, Box 264D, Chestertown, MD. I'm still trying to get in shape a while and find it rewarding.

Ruth Elleker Garrett, R.N., #2, Box 182, Douglasville, PA. I finished my husband's 35th reunion from Jefferson Medical College. We have 6 daughters, the last 2 are seniors in college, and the other 3 have graduated from college. We have 2 granddaughters and 1 grandson. I'm still working full time and baby sitting for our 5 grandchildren a great deal. We toured Israel and Egypt last November with friends.

Margaret J. Henry Jones (Samuel C.), 7337 Central Avenue, Phoenixville, PA 19460. I'm working 4 days a week on maternity. I would appreciate correspondence from classmates.

Marian Thorp (David A.), 859 Main Street, Baldwinsville, PA 19508. I’m back working in a neurological clinic, doing very little patient care. I continue to work in communicable disease. I’m considering going into school nursing.

Marilyn Tharp Williams (Arthur R.), 5812 Saul Street, Philadelphia, PA 19149. I’ve had a wonderful three week trip to the Canadian Rockies and Alaska.

Marian Burton Gould (Allen), 1440 Woodland Drive, SW., Rochester, MN 55902. After by-pass surgery 3 years ago, Allen is going strong and doing well. My husband, Ray, and I have a wonderful time every year in Mexico City.

Mary Louise Osby Foy (Frank), P.O. Box 537, Kalkau, Hawaii 96719. I’ve worked for both Foy and Faux as my last name.

Phyllis Heny Heu (Paul L.), 1307 Jefferson Avenue, Lewistan, PA 19571. I work at Evangelical Community Hospital, as a home health service nurse. I plan to retire in 2 years and the other will have graduated from college. We have 2 granddaughters and 1 grandson. I’m an Associate Professor of Common in Wilkesport, PA. I have my associate degree in Art, and enjoy oil painting and folk art.

Class of 1993
Janel Edwards Menard, 127 Andover Avenue, Hadfieldton, NJ 03003. I continue to work for Bancroft School, a school for multiple handicapped, in Hadfieldton, NJ as a nursing supervisor. I also work in Owls Head, ME at their camp each summer. Best regards to all.

Trudy Land Amed (Hannah), 2270 Boyd Street, Huntington, PA 19508. I have been on the staff of West Virginia University health service nurse. I continue to work to Plan my Key West, FL for a week. I was seriously ill with peritonitis last November, and was able to return acquaintance with Eleanor Wise, 54, since she was head of LV, therapy at Suburban Hospital in Norristown, PA where I was hospitalized.

Rena Samuel Graham (Chares), R.N., 28731 Honey Road, Quaker City, OH 43702. My husband had myocardial infarction last September with her husband Bob.-

Mary Anne Sanders (George), RD #1, Box 14, Huntington, PA 19660. I am presently caretaker at home, with the help of 6 other women. Her ob was triggered by mothe'rs, a mild evis and arthritis of her spine. My past year of geriatric nursing have been must helpful. It is rewarding to see caring and loving people with something, and love, on my part. I believe I have been more objective with latina and my duties & conditions. I am planning to attend our 30th reunion on 5/5/86.

Nancy Gallagher Smith (Patrick), 209 Flynn Avenue, Moonstown, NJ 08057. I am working at Memorial Hospital in Burlington County in New Jersey, in S.O.S. My husband and I are very happy with our very active 15 month old son, Patrick, Jr.

Lisa A. Kelly Salisbury (Emer), 32 Wyman Drive, Haddonfield, PA 08033. Emily and I enjoyed our trip to Australia very much. We plan next to travel to the British Isles. Last October I accepted a position as a 3-11 nursing supervisor at a local nursing home. What a challenge!

Irma Babias Repka (Mark), Box 28, 97th General Hospital, APO, NY 09575. Mark and I are enjoying ourselves here in Europe. We have traveled to many exciting places. I missed our 5th year reunion at the luncheon this year, but I thought of all of you. If you are ever in Germany—stop in!

Sylvia M. Speath Brayton (Charles), 824 South Avenue, P.6, Secane, PA 19018. My wedding occurred on October 5, 1985 in Philadelphia. I am very pleased to say that my classmates made the occasion very special. Thanks to Angela Stilman for participating and to Barbara Fecht for attendance. I'm also seeing the light at the end of the tunnel for my B.S.N. I'll be graduating in December if all goes well. From Jefferson's APIN program. I'm still at The Hospital of University of Pennsylvania in NURS 330. I've gotten over my level III and I'm starting to work on a research project with some other nurses on jaundice and breastfeeding.

Leita E. Lee Krespan (Charles), 104 Windng Hill Road, Lancaster, PA 17601. Charles finished his drug residency and we have moved to Lancaster, PA. We had our 1st baby February 5, 1986, a beautiful little girl named Carly Elizabeth. She is a lot of work, so nursing is on hold for now. Please write.

Christine Kopiszanska, 1023 Spruce Street, Apt. 106, Philadelphia, PA 19107. I continue to work at TJUH in the MRICU, I have worked there for 3 years. I recently received my CCRN.

Class of 1982

Francoise L. Pollack, 251 South Olds Blvd, D-62, Fairless Hills, PA 19030. I'm working in the emergency room at Lower Bucks Hospital. I'm also taking courses towards my B.S.N., and I'm still with the rescue squad.

Karen Tanner Frick (Bob), 1531 South West Blvd., Apt. 12-K, Tulsa, OK 74107. Bob and I have been happily married for 3 years. I am still enjoying my job in MDU.

MARGARET M. JACKSON

Margaret M. Jackson, age 89, died April 19, 1986. She was a native Philadelphia who was born and raised in the Roxborough area, and lived in the city most of her life.

Miss Jackson had a distinguished nursing career that spanned nearly 50 years, and more than 4000 young women graduated to become nurses under her supervision.

She was a member of the original committee to develop Blue Cross and Blue Shield, initiated the ward clerk program for nurses, and developed the concept of operating room technicians.

In her 60's she learned to drive a car, and at 60 she took up golf, and the pride of her life was a hole in one at the age of 64.

Miss Jackson was an assistant director of nurses from 1943-1945, and director of nursing at Jefferson from 1945-1947. After her retirement in 1963 she had been living in Camden, Maine, until last year when she moved to Bedford, Pennsylvania.

Many of our graduates will remember Margaret Jackson as a gentle woman in the true sense of the word, she stimulated those she came in contact with to go the extra mile.
